Hello again, as we come together to continue with another visitation to the Station of Light, and as we continue to release everything that is of concern to us physically, emotionally or mentally and then we are clear enough to assimilate more of the higher information which comes to us during these transmissions.

Life is very interesting. Our exploration of Self is very interesting, so, come with me through the Omega Portal and meet up together in the receiving area of the Station of Light. Again there will be the sense of feeling at ease and being comfortable in this area, because it is familiar. It is a state of consciousness and yet it is a reality - a real space - that is available to us, and it is probably more than that as well. Initially, this is what is required for me to bring you into this level of consciousness so that you receive, so that you can receive intuitively and that means of course that the left and right hemispheres of your brain will be balanced. The logic and the sensory perceptions.

We are ready to begin now and I open myself to allow the Light Beings within this dimensional Station of Light to come forward to us.

“Welcome Beloved. Orem addressing you and in the opening words there is created the passageway and pathway which facilitates this way of helping you with greater understanding and bringing you into the clear passageways and pathways and state so that you become more conscious.

Being more conscious allows you to embrace, and allow energy from Source Creation to come through to you. It may also bring you into the informational field which can define to you certain happenings around the planet. You have to be aware that some of the happenings are purposefully created as disturbances and distractions. There is none of that in this space that you are drawn into here. It is your choice. You may feel comfortable with moving into information systems which present to you ongoing conflict, so when you choose to be here, this is all about observing you and your placement on your journey into different realities and the purpose for those journeys into different realities.

Everything that you bring into your life pattern affects everyone around you. The choices you make and your intention, therefore, becomes clarified to you.

Continuing from previous transmissions now, there is a little review occurring, mostly because we are presenting you into ongoing timeframes. The timeframes individually initiate to you specific intersectional coordinates. You understand coordinates in respect to your measurement of longitude and latitude and in this way we are adding a multi-dimensional coordinated system whereby you are drawn, by intention, into the unfolding coordinated spheres. These dimensional spheres also bring to you reminders of previous aspects of your consciousness which are imprinted in your consciousness field, which incorporates your present living life phase reality. So, when we embrace other coordinate areas and experiences, we draw upon those which are most useful for you to bring in around you now as you participate in creation of a higher field of consciousness, a higher state of community existence and all of this relates to how you are helping evolve the planetary system, which is not only Earth, but what is drawn into its gravitational field as you know that and you understand that, and we are talking about a multi-dimensional field of existence. This field of existence incorporates alternate time realities, alternate dimensional realities. In this way, many Beings can tap into alternate realities and they will think that is the only way that Earth is progressing into and those realities may not include an expansion of consciousness. It might simply be moments of power and in that experience, many people find they have growth.

Again, because we are shepherding you through these dimensional coordinates, we are aligning you with the higher aspect of your consciousness field and that higher aspect is all about expansion of consciousness and a higher state of evolution. This is what we experience when we move you into the Earth Light City existence. So that crystalline city of light - and you are becoming much more familiar with that - has a very expansive existence and sphere of energy and that incorporates what you would want to have in the Earth's gravitational field. You might be experiencing a sensation of joy as we bring this to you and that indeed is magnificent. That is what is natural for you to be experiencing throughout all of your energy system.

In your light body consciousness state here, all of this is well known to you. It is simply being brought up into conscious memory and you can draw upon the energy itself, which has its own way of fabrication, of manifestation. Immersing yourself into this brings through you the pattern of a higher way of creation and existence.

Also included in that are ways to be transported through different dimensional fields, so if you are wishing to bring knowledge of how to be transported through different reality time, then the information is included in what you are experiencing in this session.

This is an overall level of information surrounding you all on this planet, and those who are sufficiently tuned into it will be able to create models and to absolutely verify the information they are receiving, creating new modes of travel and experience. This will be coming into your timeline, to your present reality. Those ones involved in the sciences of bringing new creations through are already improving methods of transport, methods of communication, methods of allowing a higher consciousness connection.

As we observe you gathered here as a group, we are able to see many amongst you here who are pulling in the information through what is presented to you, so this is very interesting for you if you are the ones who are bringing the new creations in, and if you are not, then be aware that you are supporting the introduction into your present reality of new methods, new modes. This will all be permitted to evolve. You would refer to it as the appropriate timing. We are aware that for many of you it is the appropriate timing and you are ready for it. You are ready for it to manifest around you, more than it just manifesting here in the Earth Light City where it is already present. Observe around you. Do you see different ways of transportation and communication happening? It is coming into your media for visual presentation and for it to be incorporated within you.

There are many specialised Beings who are already on Earth at the present time, being born as children and the children have evolved and established communication fields which is enabling all of this to come in. This will be reassuring you that it is not far into the future that we are speaking about. It is current time reality for you.

There have been already great shifts in the consciousness of enough people on Earth to create this, to allow it to come through the particular Beings who will work with it and who are supported in the mechanics of it, so while there are many new inventions to come forward and new ways of understanding energy patterns, there is the continuation of a useful stream of research development and implementation also occurring. Some of this is done without mainstream public being aware of it, so therefore it is done protected until it can be presented usefully and fully. You needed to experience this, to understand it and know it. We realise that as you continue to observe what happens worldwide, you may feel a bit disheartened at lack of progress, until you observe around you and see behind the scenes of what really is happening with new creations and there is also the appearance around many people of those who are guiding, protecting and assisting the manifestation of all of this we are referring to.

Withdrawing you from this space where we have been speaking about this to you and you were in an aspect of the Earth light city, we now bring you into the assembly within the Station of Light and again this is to help you absorb what is being given to you and to allow you to sense that you have been given a particular seed of information which will continue to grow and expand within you. It is not just information to be recorded. It is information to be activated within you to unfold newer mechanisms within you, newer patterns of code within you, which improve the overall well-being and functioning of everything throughout your physical, emotional, mental bodies. Being exposed continuously into this state of energy, the emotional and mental disturbances are very easily cleared from you. Those are old patterns and some of you continue to maintain them, to hold onto them. That is not necessary. It is necessary for you to be clear and confident and joyful and in this we are assisting you, so allow this to work for you. Again, your intention is important, as we continue to remind you.

We touch you each upon your heart centre as this seed continues to grow within you, enlivening you. In some people it will be as if you have been reconnected again to the holistic state of consciousness, expanding into the pure light of intention of the energy systems enveloping you.

Keeping this around you, come back now into the receiving area of the Station.

It is a very strong field that continues to enfold you and this will continue as you need it to be there, consciously. We see this and thus the intention for this transmission is complete

Orem out “

Orem, again I thank you. This is Lani speaking again and I come here with you in this area, in this wonderful space.

Again, I feel we have been infused with this energy - updated - our software has been updated, and will that update also the hardware of our physical body? It is an interesting time when we consider ourselves to be a living, organic, unit - this biological state of energy,

Now I want you to bring all of this back into your physical body, into your physical life and environment, remembering of course that you are part of the Earth creation. So what does that bring up in you? What are you creating as the state that you would want Earth to be in and all of its inhabitants? It is very interesting when we consider these ways of why we are here.

Now, become fully conscious again of your body, loving it, loving this life, allowing wonderful change to happen.

It is time for me to close this transmission through the Omega Portal until we gather again. Please continue to be with me by listening to the transmissions and sharing them with others.

Thank you everyone - Lani
