"We indeed have gathered you into this space at this time, Beloved.

Orem addressing you as an individual and addressing the wider group of Beings gathered here. Some of you are not technically known as Earth humans. Some of you may be known as Galactic Beings of all intention and all varieties of shapes which house the consciousness that is you. In this state where you gather in this Station you are visibly seen by the other participants in this session.

Shine your Light Being Self.

Let yourself be natural in the absorption of the energy systems here coming into this dimensional field frequency and because you are an energy form functioning in many different dimensions, you will resonate with the groups who will assemble with you and take part in the sharing of information.

Already you have been drawn into the specific group that you are transferring data to and you are absorbing energy and information from them. It is a collective gathering you are drawn into, in this particular transmission and for the purpose of evaluation of all of the data energy information. Following that you are able to take into you what you need and what you see is a need around you in your particular location.

You do not need to verify what you receive. You do not need to feel - "I must surround the entire planet, or I must surround this other particular planet-being." What is required is that you will draw in the specific energy for your surroundings, of what you embrace in your energy field.

Your original energy field may have been infused with a vast amount of energy which could go out into linkages into different planetary systems and into different aspects of the planet you each are on.

For the present you have been drawn into this space because you bring in with you the immediate environment where you are. Perhaps that does relate to one particular land mass in your locality and therefore what is happening is that you are capturing the energy which is encompassing your particular area and you are integrating it, you are validating it, you are assessing it and you may also be transforming some of the energy you feel you are receiving - transforming it into what can be used.

So, you are taking part in a transformation process.

You will be aware that at times there are beams of energy reaching out, flowing, encompassing where you are existing and those beams of energy sometimes do need to be transformed into a way that is beneficial and also the energy of you needs to adjust to a higher pattern of frequency.

It is an opportunity again to attain the linkage you have to the highest point of Creation and therefore you have the appropriate means and processes to use that energy. Using that term "use the energy" does not mean you have to apply it in some particular way, as if you are an instrument that you can use this energy in. It is not put to you in that way. What is required is we are helping you to remember that above everything which comes around you in your environment is the higher pattern which you know you have within you in your dimensional existence, to apply it, to use it, to transmute it into a way that can be used in the current civilisation to clear, or to restore, some particular pattern.

Looking at it in that sense, you will see why we say it is an opportunity to use what is coming into the planet in a way that assists and is helpful.

There are methods to do this. The prime method is to link with your original purpose through the portal through which you access original energy. It is the point of origin connected to everything and it is from that level that you are able to take in the energy in the most appropriate way.

Lani speaking. I am ready for this inner journey experience, Are you?

Come with me and we will gather together with everyone who is connected in with this type of energy receiving and we meet in the transition area of the Station of Light.

Do you sometimes sense it above you? I sense it often, very close, and today I sense it very close and that could be because we are ready and perhaps we have been called to gather in this way, Lay aside your thoughts. Get your body comfortable so that you can spend these few minutes with us in this space of light, energy and information.

You do not need to do anything, because if you mentally apply it, you are using your mental energy which is associated with the lower vibration of thoughts or what you have taken into you and therefore that may distort the original intention. This is why we reinforce to you the necessity to go back to your point of origin. Your point of origin existence understands the principles of this, understands the vital essence and uses that vital essence which comes through in the most appropriate way.

The way for you to be aware of this and using it, is to be aware of higher vital essence becoming available to you and to where you exist - wherever that may be in various galactic areas - and recognise that you are in tune with it through your point of origin existence.

We have already established for you that you are a highly evolved conscious Being. You can use the terms of light and energy. Those are terms in your language to help you understand that state of existence. Be aware in this moment you are fully connected into that highest state of existence where you were a separate form, a separate consciousness, still closely connected to what we identify as Source, for you. You understand we are using your language to help you understand. You will also understand that many of the other Beings participating in this session are able to interpret this in their own perceptive language in their own way, identifying it, using it.

You may be observing some of these Beings at this time, seeing the alteration in their energy field as they absorb it and they would be seeing this in your energy field here as you are. They will be observing the expansion, the shifts in energy occurring as you integrate this and realise it within you.

This is the message of today and already I am bringing your awareness back to focus in this assembly area in the Station of Light so you are able to bring more of your conscious mind to recognise what is happening in this session, to identify yourself, and to merge that aspect of you known as conscious mind with this higher field of dimensional consciousness and existence. Bringing it all into harmony, where many of the issues can be recognised as a form of separatism created from many of the lower states of existence you have had to come into as you came into your planet of existence at this stage. We are addressing you who are existing on this planetoid named Earth and everything is working to come into one cohesive pattern of a Being of Light which exists already in higher states of civilisation, restoring that existence into you, restoring the vital energy essence and the information from that state. This in turn helps the manifestation of a higher level of existence to come in around you.

Take this into you consciously in this point now. You may also find there are various Beings who come forward to you at this stage. Allow them to connect with you because there will be assistance being given to you in an individual way. As you connect with that and allow the energy to be received, receiving it in a way that you can identify a pattern and you can use this in your daily attunements. This also is important at this time for you, because these Beings are from a different galactic existence and they have come forward to assist you at this time. At other times in creation in existence you do this same function. The focus at present of course is for you to be receiving and this also strengthens your pattern of energy and the way you assist in awakening and the upliftment and the shift occurring around you.

Remember this wave of energy at this current dimensional portal time assisting everything around you. This completes this aspect for you.

I withdraw now

Orem out “

Thank you Orem. I am B’Lu with you, giving you this space filled with this vital essence. It is time for you to strongly identify this pattern and to keep your focus on the pattern of assistance and the evolutionary process, so that you are not distracted by what can be presented to you in various ways, various modalities that surround you.

Remember these energy states you experience and you have been given symbols to help you remember and energy systems also to assist you, as a focal point to draw into you the appropriate flows, energy mechanisms for you, processes. The elements are all there for you.

I acknowledge you.

B’Lu out “

Thank you. This is Lani again. That Being is very special to me and he comes forward with a symbol for me.

Now it is time for you to return to your physical unit, to bring all of this session, the energy experience and reminders and attunement into you - right now - back into your body.

Take in a breath and feel you are fully grounded. Feel the shift in your perception. Perhaps the expansion and clarity in your energy field.

So I give this to you with my gratitude to be able to present this to you in this way. We really have evolved such a lot in the last 20 to 30 years and perhaps it has accelerated more rapidly in the last 4 or 5 years. I appreciate that.

Thank you and I end this session through the Omega Communications Portal.
