"I am known as Ulea and I am here in accordance with the Council of Light - which is a gathering of Beings from many different star systems in the dimensions beyond where you are existing, where you focus in at present, although there are aspects of yourself focused already into the dimensions in which we exist.

We are here to present the opportunities to you in an ongoing fashion to allow yourself to open and allow the higher aspects of the eternal aspect of self to be present. It is, in a sense, commanding yourself as an entity on Earth, to be in accordance with the ongoing unfoldment and the issuance always which emanates from the Central Core Station of Existence.

Where we are stationed in this that you identify as the Earth Station of Light, we are focussing the greater intention and purpose for you to amalgamate your own intention and purpose to receive the flow of support and expansion and this is what is required of you in this session - to allow this to enter within your individual assembly of space and this in turn is received as you unfold and progress into the entire system of your unit, in its physicality.

The purpose of the introduction and communication is always to help you expand your sense of purpose and presence. When your presence is known and understood in the many layers of your consciousness field, then you function in accordance with the dimensional purpose and flows of energy and information.

All of this is coding. It is a sequential understanding and expansion going beyond how you usually interpret and how you listen to other interpreters of the information. This is entering into your existence as a solar aspect of Creation.

Interpreting this in your personal understanding brings you back to the realisation you are an aspect of Light, of Solar Light, where you are informed by the patterns of light coming through your introduction and alignment with the solar patterns. These are coming through the solar portal from the central light positioning.

You have experienced many lifetimes in this journey and all of the information received as data codes are a continual process of expansion, of release, of incorporation of the data fields. This is what you essentially are, as you exist in different realities. You are receivers, you are distributors of the energy systems.

The more that you receive of the solar light patterns, the more you expand your personal presence as your Essence of Light and this gets enfolded into the existence in your present reality and civilisation and into conjoining reality systems. Those conjoining reality systems must always resonate with the higher aspect of Light coming in.

You have been informed previously that the light that you take in is assisting the other aspects of self, existing in those conjoining dimensional realities.

We have come forward to this point of discussion to emanate this in you so that you emanate and disseminate all of this that you are receiving at this time. If you are a visual person you might see many different galactic appearances - the starfield systems around you and within you and through you as you expand and you receive and you envelop more of what you discern as the individual galaxy that you are in - the universe that you identify.

There is a great deal of information you are absorbing at this time and you will identify that which fits into your understanding. That which does not quite fit your level of understanding as it is currently still exists in your level of consciousness.

Remember - you have existed in many different ways.

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Hello. I am glad you have joined me today at this time to come with me again into that dimension where the Station of Light exists, which has been associated with planet Earth, overseeing, observing, helping since, apparently, life began on Earth. So, the Beings must have observed many cycles of civilisations and they exist here at this time especially for you. How important does that make you feel?

So, come with me and be consciously present in the greater awareness of your higher aspects, your higher energy light form, assembling into the receiving area of the Station of Light. It is a transition space and it is an easy way to expand your consciousness to receive what comes through. This is how we begin today.

You have travelled through time existence and you have brought into the Earth station many codes that you are still identifying. At the same time as you are experiencing this system of communication you are enhancing different aspects of your own life pattern and what you have brought forward to implant as codes, as energy devices incorporating the codes.

We are giving this so you understand there is continual expansion which you are taking part in.

Are you receiving this? Are you experiencing it? Are you resonating with the energy field containing all of this that is being presented to you?

Find your stillness in all of this - the central aspect of you.

And here we bring your focus back into the Station of Light, being aware of what is around you in this particular situation materialised, and where you have materialised. There is the aspect of this that you manifested as a particular area to come to, to remember and to receive.

You are also being shown the alignment of you in accordance with the alignment of the planet Earth-being, and this is for you to experience as a direct alignment and the direct alignment allows the clearer communication to be received. You will be responding to the energy of this connection.

It has been said in humanistic terms you have found the buried treasure. You have opened up the pattern that had been presented to you, but you did not have the key before to open it. You are the key. It is your energy system which opens it. It is a higher dimensional form of intelligent comprehension and the key necessary is contained in that which is defined as your energy DNA. Your energy DNA has been continually aligning with the point of Creation which needed to reconnect with a deeper aspect and this was needing to be connected into the DNA pattern within your physicality and it expands throughout the carrying systems in your energy field of your physicality.

Again, you will feel this expanding and connecting into different areas of you as you identify yourself as a humanoid form at this time. It is valued, it is necessary and you are able to enhance it, to clear it, with your conscious intention, as you draw in the pattern of the energetic form of the DNA. We witness this occurring in your pattern as you are presented here in this Station.

It had become appropriate for you to experience this, in its fulness and from this will arise new creations and opportunities for you, as you realise your existence at this time. You could liken this to exploring different areas, of galaxies, where you have been presenting yourself and you have been accompanied in those experiences by those resonating with you in part of the conscious field of purpose and intention.

The intention is always to expand into the highest aspect and unfold it all around you and within you. So this was my intention as I came forward to you in this space.

Remember that you are also receiving the intention of the Galactic Council of Beings of Light present here, always observing, always able to reveal more of your existence as you return to continue the presence of Light on this planet, and not just on this planet, but throughout this particular system where you are stationed.

We acknowledge you and assist you

Ulea out “

Thank you Ulea. This is Lani again.

There is a lot to comprehend in this particular session, so, everyone bring your focus back to recognise that you are this light energy form and bring this light energy experience back to your physical location, to the physical form in which you embody your highest aspect of consciousness and its many layers.

If you feel what I feel at this time, you will feel clearer, perhaps taller, cleaner, more active in the opportunities you have to spread the Light around you where you are existing currently.

So, this is the appropriate time to bring your focus back fully into your body, to open your eyes and be aware of what is around you, be aware of the present moment as we measure time. I remember we have been reconnected to a different time dimension, which is very relevant as we exist on Earth. Perhaps we are timekeepers and observers ourselves and that is what we report back to the higher states of consciousness that the Beings are in that dimension.

Again, this has been very interesting and there is much to experience as we re-visit and go over this particular session.

I end this session through the Omega Communications Portal.

Thank you
Lani
