"We are here with you.

Orem addressing you and enveloping you in the energy sphere here. We call it for your understanding, an energy sphere because in this sphere it separates you from what is occurring around you in the physical reality in the current time placement where you orient yourself. When you are in this sphere, identifying here, you are taking part in the expansion of the energy system in which Earth is encompassed and by you raising your level of consciousness to this, you are helping shift your energy self and all of those you are connected with.

The energy patterns here also move through layers of your energy field, the matrix of you, and every immersion in these energy systems clears some of those patterns, clearing your original pattern of intention which had become confused or disoriented through your entry into experience in your current body. When you are clear in a state such as this, you are aware of the Galactic Beings around you, and we come forward and present ourselves to you in many different ways.

There are patterns being put into place, actions being put into place, in an energy sense which will produce motivation in those of you who are ready to change the pattern.

You already experience time shifts and we have taken you into experience time slips and transportation moving through different patterns of life experience you have had in your essential energy aspect. Currently you have also been experiencing dimensional shifts, giving you the sense that some parts of your days have passed quickly and others have been apparently passing very slowly. This relates specifically to your level of awareness and activities you are participating in, in other levels of consciousness.

All of this is being combined and integrated in you and you become much more aware you can consciously function in multi layers.

We observe the need at this time that many of you have to relax some aspects of your conscious mind which also interacts with physical construct that you have. When you relax and allow yourself to receive the energy through the time portal accessing you now into the central portal coming through your central sun aspect - your solar sun aspect to central sun - you are receiving another flow of that energy pattern referred to many times which will allow the adjustments to occur.

In this moment as we present this to you, you will be feeling the level of shifting energy in you. You may be experiencing the sense of completion or fulfilment relating to this deep connection. It orients you back to your highest point of existence where you were an original aspect of Creation in a manifested body form, that manifested in a way that it would survive in the presentation of you into whatever planetary sphere that was. So, it is all about you re-integrating the higher pattern of light into you so then you are ready for the shift into the next dimensional field of functioning. Many more Beings on the planet are being prepared for this at this time.

There have always been shifts that have occurred throughout the existence of the planetoid named Earth and science has measured many of these changes and shifts, so as you become more aware of this, you will also realise that you do not cease to exist. You shift from one dimension into another and at present, your humanistic reality is being prepared for that. Therefore, you will be experiencing adjustments in your physical, emotional, mental form. Keep your focus into the higher state of awareness where you are able to continuously adapt to the energy to assist the process easily for you. It will also help you maintain your physicality into what you would identify as a state of health and vitality and joy. That is your natural state of existence.

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Hello. Lani presenting this to you and as I link with you, I ask you to give yourself the space and time to experience the energy of this and every other session you might link in with. In doing so, allow your awareness to expand, allow yourself to shift into a different level of your consciousness and it is in this way that we identify that as our body of light, and this body of light, housing your consciousness is able to be present in the receiving area of the Station of Light. This also allows you to become used to transitioning from one state of consciousness to another very quickly and allows you to experience and explore what the Beings of Light - Galactic Beings - who work through this Station of Light wish you to experience to help you and to help everything in your environment. That environment could include your country, it could include the planet, it could include the particular galaxy we are in. How far do you expand your consciousness grid? It is always interesting, the level of energy which comes through and I allow this to happen at this time.

Now, moving beyond this on a personal level, we move into the greater perspective of the assistance happening and the changes happening. There is a stronger alignment pattern coming in through your solar portal gateway moving directly with beams moving into the central core of the planet and the energy is used by the participants who dwell within the inner planet existence. When you are able to perceive this, you will also perceive that they exist not just within the Earth's crust as you might identify it, but their pattern of existence also envelops a higher pattern around the planet's surface. In this way many of you have witnessed these Beings moving in and out of dimensional portals into the inner existence of Earth and some of these Beings make themselves visible to you and known to you. They may walk alongside you as you journey throughout your life activities for a short time and you may feel their energy presence around you. They do not interfere, but they are willing to help you expand your awareness and knowledge of what they do, whether it is to do with enhancing minerals within the earth, the layers of water within and around the planet and of course waters within your form and plants and creatures. Every aspect has water molecule and sensitivity to water and energy systems. As you experience this, you will be having a greater understanding of what is being referred to in your own particular sphere and pattern of light.

Now we have here Ulea coming to address you.”

“I am Ulea and I assist this process of helping you to understand the organic mechanisms involved in your placement within the Earth pattern and where you journey to – whether that is planned or a spontaneous movement to some particular site and location.

Be aware that you are in constant connection now with what has been referred to as the starfield matrix and sense this around you.

It does not necessarily relate to a specific star pattern that you might recognise by how it has been named. It is an overall sense of the energy matrix around you and as you move through your daily activities or you travel to other locations, there is an alignment of particular aspects of that matrix connecting into different connecting nodes of an overall matrix of energy field throughout your current galaxy and beyond.

You are part of a very great connection. We want you to recognise this. These connections also work throughout your internal energy matrix within and around your individual body form. Many of these are still being adjusted to enable the greater connection and whenever you do connect in this way, these adjustments are happening for you, in every direction. This also helps you to understand that you are never alone. You are supported, fully. This is part of the linkage you have when you intend to be consciously connected with your mission on Earth and with the Beings you work with in all of the dimensional field layers. It is a multi pattern that you exist in.

We understand that many of you wish to be flying around the planet in different manifested vessels, dropping patterns here and there, perhaps you want to be more active in making change. It is on a subtle level that change occurs with impressions received and personal individual choices. There is also this greater connection of the starfield matrix and there is also energy given to disentangle impositions that have been laid over different people and places and lands and it is the presentation of the higher light spectrum that helps the disentanglement that is important for you to realise.

I give this to you with Love, Beloved, and I bring you back to the receiving area of the Station and I withdraw.

Ulea out “

This is Lani again and I always enjoy Ulea's energy. I am aware of it as she uses me to come through to you.

I thank her and I thank Orem and all of the other Galactic Beings who were present who may have made themselves known to you, and those who exist within the Earth.

It is time now for you to bring your full attention back into your light body consciousness and bring that into your body, right back now fully connected into this current body form you have. Perhaps you will replenish it with this higher light pattern you experienced in this session. Perhaps you will feel it unfolding some stress related areas within you. I have a sense of that starfield matrix referred to by Ulea working throughout all of our energy systems, it is a lovely sensation and I trust you feel this also.

Take in a breath and realise you are fully connected back into current time in your current locality.

Again I thank you and all levels of you present in the Earth pattern today and I close the Omega Communication Portal now
