“Greetings to you. Orem addressing you and drawing you deeper into this space.

Giving you the experience of out of time and your relationship to the environment around you, allows you to grow in your consciousness field and many of you are aware at the edge of your consciousness field, it is the apparent - seemingly apparent - unknown to you, where you might try to figure that into your personal equation and your station in life and yet you might also be figuring into that equation what you have seen represented in various aspects of your media shows.

In this space here where we draw you deeper into this dimensional field of existence, you are open to receive the inflow from your own higher evolved aspect of Creation, of your highest evolved individualization as a Being of Light. This is much more powerful than what you have perceived around you confined in time. At this current experience in your civilization you are aware of certain confines and limitations. These refer to aspects of your creation-ed form and what has been informed in that physical matter drawn in from various aspects of ancestral positioning and characteristics and also you have been informed during the entire passage of a lifetime from the environment presented to you - what you have taken into you. Therefore, in this space, all of that is disengaged from you, as if you come in for a complete cleansing from the deepest aspect internally of you to the outer aspects of your physicality - your skin - your surrounding energy field that reflects what is occurring within the body. All of this can be initially cleared and cleansed from you, if it is your time to allow this to occur.

The aspect of you always existing beyond time, has the more powerful influence and coordination of all of the experiences that are appropriate around you for you now. Again, in this context we are referring to the expansion of your consciousness field, to the return to absorb the full potential.

We are referring in this moment to aspects that you are aware of in your current technology of imprinting devices to allow the creation of something new. Specific printers, you call them 3D printers.

Relating to aspects we have referred to over earlier sessions of immersion into the Station, we refer you to the imprint of the higher, evolved state of the design, the energy DNA codes, for the perfected physical form for your current experience in civilization and moving forward.

We are outlining to you the changes you are experiencing around you. You may already be experiencing the glimpses - the visions - of the new total civilization emerging, total in its concept. Concepts include the totality of that particular evolutionary phase and cycle and yet there is the enormous potential to be accessed and unfolded and manifested from that one concept of the evolved next dimensional evolutionary pattern of existence. Contained with that is the imprint we refer to and this is the imprint for you as an individual energy Being, bringing in this evolutionary concept to be established. It is also appropriate for you at this time to recognize that you can be, according to your willingness, receiving the imprint in the holistic body energy form for you as an evolving bio-energetic being and thus you will enact more with the imprint of this next dimensional civilization.

There is much of this that you will not be able to foresee or analyse because it is new to your experience. Hold within you in this imprinting design for you - the DNA designation - the imprint of everything to be provided through the natural resources, through the evolutionary processes, through the expanding consciousness using bio-technology in its most informed highest evolved aspect. You may already be aware of the misinformation and the distortion of the true purpose for bio-plasmic technology and this comes from the higher evolved states of consciousness that your Galactic family are already using.

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

These sessions coming through the communications portal are for you to experience the immersion into the energy that is the Station of Light in the dimension that it exists, in the dimension that you are drawing yourself to because you resonate with that dimensional field of existence and this is why we come together in this way.

This is why I am encouraging you to realize the aspect of you that is a higher dimensional light body and thus you are resonating with the energy field of this dimensional Station of Light.

This is how we begin this session today. I am Lani bringing you here and so I withdraw, stepping back to allow the other Beings of Light to come through to you, to all of us.

In another state of existence, this is you already using this advanced bio-plasmic technology for the civilization.

This is what you would say the plan and the purpose for your existence. As this process continues of this imprinting occurring, more of this comes into your realization.

You are moving through a period of separation by design - it is partially to do with this designated higher evolved DNA system - and you will understand as we are presenting these words to you that this is another understanding of how your current scientific knowledge base refers to the DNA pattern - there is that higher imprint behind it, encompassing it, just waiting for the full realization to include the fulness of it. In this way, you have been waiting to include the higher, infinite, expanding state of awareness to come into your conscious livingness - your conscious space.

All of this is surrounding you. We are just presenting to you what is already there and what is deeply known to you in the pattern. It is being organized - coming into a state of order and organization of this higher designated state for you to exist in. It may help you to be aware that the older existence is flowing out of you, like streams of water carrying away the older misinformation patterns, leaving you to be infused with the clearer light frequency pattern.

This is the deliverance for you that we come forward to present to you today, assisting you in this way. Assemble it all to your appropriate understanding, to that level that you resonate with, particular words, particular energy systems, particular colours in the vibration presented to you in the holographic presentation you are immersed in. Holographic presentations are also a reality. This immersion in this dimensional Station of Light is a reality which could be described as a holographic reality. Make it real to your senses. It is your choice, in everything which is presented to you.

Follow your own pathways of your inner sensing as you complete in this moment with us, the reconnection to your original existence, bringing that into you completely and that also is working with the imprint upon you.

Thus it is given. I withdraw now

Orem out “

Thank you, Orem. This is Lani again, but I am receiving - I am enfolded in the presence of a beautiful tall, golden light Energy Being. It has come from a very evolved state of a pattern of existence, observing, working with the Council of Light existing in this dimensional space. This is one of the Overseeing Galactic Beings, ready to communicate and yet I am not sensing any words. I am sensing that this Being is communicating at this time in sounds rather than words that we would recognise as words, and symbols, and is touching you each, assisting the process of this beautiful upgrade contained in the imprinting for this civilisation you are merging into. It is all a very beautiful alignment and processing.

I know you will be wanting more, as do I, and yet for some reason this has to fill us in our energy core essence. I feel it personally in my heart energy centre and then through this representation here of the energy body construct. This is what this Being is assisting us with directly at this time and you are being impressed to bring this back immediately into your physical environment, being aware that cell by cell you are receiving this energy upgrade through the imprint.

Even if you feel you are a beautiful, amazing, perfect physical being, perhaps this is a different element of you ready to receive this energy and you will resonate with exactly what you need and what is appropriate for you in this time.

Most of us have been affected by environmental conditions during our lifetime and this is what has been the emphasis of this session, to completely clear that away to allow this higher imprint.

Now, this beautiful, golden Being - he has got some sort of headband - I don't know whether it is a band or the shape of his head that looks different. You may see more of this than I do, observing from a distance, whereas I am observing it from inside. That Being withdraws. Thank you.

I am filled with joy and gratitude for that.

I am grateful to be able to present this also to you in this simple way, engaging you in the energy for you to use. Thanks for being here.

Again, it is a constant reminder, to bring all of this back completely into the core energy channel of you, into your physicality, into the present moment, so that you bring all of this in to transform you and what is around you, in the highest possible way.

This ends this immersion into this dimensional Station of Light through the Omega Communications Portal.
