Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

In these sessions it is more than just listening to the words or reading the words and analysing them. It is all about you opening to receive the energy transmission and to experience being with me in the immediate receiving area of the Station of Light. You could visualize this, allowing it to come into your senses to perceive how it appears for you. It will always be in a way that you will feel comfortable and welcomed, but allow it to expand as the energy expands you and clears the filters that you have in your mind and memory, so that you respond fully as an integrated Being of Light Energy yourself.

So, this is how we begin this session today and this is Lani speaking to you, but I withdraw to allow the Galactic Beings to communicate through me.

“Greetings to you.

Orem addressing you in this space.

This is a trans-dimensional space that you would understand, shifting in its energy as you align yourself completely to your bio-energy form and thus you are able to recognize another stage, another level, of the dimensional frequency here. As we come in around you, we are bringing in another level of the dimensions. We are not labelling these changing dimensional dimensions in the energy frequency, because you will be resonating with different levels as you incorporate the energy field within you and your personal energy field adapts to the dimensional field surrounding you.

In this way you are receiving the concept of what comes to you and then your internal processing through the highest evolved consciousness state of you will present it to you in a way that you understand it. There are multi layers to the words coming through to you even in this initial greeting to you Dear One.

As an individual you hold many concepts of the civilization around you. You also hold many concepts of the greater dimensional field, which this Station of Light is within and is part of that. You also have a concept of your known planetary system and other starfield systems. All of this is part of who you are and many of you have come from a different star time civilization and system - different galactic fields of creation for experience and for you also to bring in the purest amount of energy system before it became changed or overlaid with many of the concepts that you accumulate through your journey through experience.

You are in the opportunity time now in your field of experience to disengage from many of the concepts and experiences you have accumulated in this Earth-time reality you are existing in and the opportunity you present yourself into here is to embrace the different layers of dimensional creationism which you are accessing in this way. This is the opportunity for you to embrace a wholistic concept of what you would wish to see for the evolving civilization to manifest and therefore you are receiving downloads into your memory banks, into your consciousness field, of - perhaps you would talk about them as futuristic ways of living, of manifesting the needs, of supporting the needs, of creating different types of structures for you to exist in - and all the while you are refining your concepts of how food is grown and delivered to you, and how you assimilate the light energy contained in the natural food kingdom. There are many levels of the creations available to you.

The main concept is that you are responsible for what you manifest around you and what you will engage in, in activities, and what you will take into you as part of your vital essence to sustain your wholistic bio-energetic system, as you are.

As you assimilate this which you are receiving in these words, you have already stepped into another level of dimensional existence. In this time, we describe this to you as the crystalline light cities civilization. Experience this around you. Experience this shift in time sense, relating to this existence you are experiencing in this light city state.

Many of you will remember times when we presented this to you, through the star system, through the portal that the Star Beings opened up for you to receive a glimpse of it. You will know that recently portals in the dimensional framework have allowed a greater energy to come through your solar portal and this makes it easier for you to recognize the states of existence labelled for you to comprehend the crystalline light cities civilization. You may be experiencing the exchange of information you are participating in, as you move about into this reality. Different types of communication, organic technology available to you that generates the enlivening system, the power systems, and of course power systems continue to be needed to create films of light, to create energy that will activate some of the technological systems that you will be using, and some of those will be transportation systems. There are many types of ways that you will evolve into existing in this new civilisation.

We draw you back away from that to be again in a central communication area here where you will be aware that there are many Galactic Beings around you and in the centre is the Council of Light, observing, distributing more energy information to you. It is necessary to present you into this in this way because we are working with your many different concepts of what life is and what your main purpose is for existence in the physical body you maintain currently and many ways that you are allowing the upgrade of that bio-energetic system that you are. All of this is being received naturally in you. You are drawing into you the most relevant aspects that you resonate with.

As you continue to immerse yourself in the visitation here, these areas in the Station are also likened to a buffer system, where the buffer system contains the enacting holographic system for you to participate in, and your own personal energy field has its own buffer system, that higher energetic self, and so it is a gradual process as you adapt to what you receive. It is never too much for you to handle. You might feel residual pulses, or streams of energy, in your physical emotional mental systems as the buffer system allows the release of more of the higher intelligent cells in the designated field - that energy DNA system - you may feel those different responses. As you acknowledge that, you also acknowledge with your intention that you adapt easily, smoothly, that all of your cells, all of your systems adapt easily and smoothly to the change.

It is not an exact cross-over point where there is an instant flash. You are already being prepared for the fullness and many of you may already be assessing the level of the change that you are responding to in your particular individual cell changes and adaptivity. Again we are saying it is not an exact labelling system for you. It is fluidic, it is the higher energy system, the crystalline energy light system that is flowing uniquely for you that you adapt to. All of this will be filling you, in a sense, with Light, with Joy, as you take all of this into your particular buffer system.

Also be aware that the entire energy starfield matrix surrounding the planet and its satellite moon and extending beyond that in a field - all of this is maintained by many of the Galactic Beings whose purpose is to do that and many of them come into the Station of Light for their different purposes and to communicate in a more personal way with the Council of Light here and then they continue to adapt the starfield energy matrix around you all, that you also are aware of in different levels of your consciousness field. It is all one great energy system.

Remember - you chose to come into the Earth energy system as it is now currently, with a great deal of energy and information which you could bring into the Earth system, waiting for the particular energy devices for you to connect with and to bring in all of this energy system. In this way you are important. You are gathering in many different fields of streams of energy data for you in your placement. You may be sensing that you are moving toward an energy system of change in many ways, in your current lifetime. Maintain your sense and intention that this is all in accordance with the higher evolved energy system of the new light cities and you are anchoring this into you, the core energy essence of you as an Energy Being from a different galaxy but present here in Earth. This was the purpose of your immersion into the Station of Light in this session at this time and you will be aware now that you are back in the receiving area of the Station and you are gathering into you all of this energy experience, energy data for you and for others in your environment, in your connections around and within the Earth Station. Again, remember you also have contact with the Beings within Earth, within and beneath the waters of the planet and the land. Everything is connected and, depending on your focus, you will be connected into the highest plane of existence available to you.

Thus it is done, and I withdraw now

“Acknowledged Orem.

Ulea addressing you again here and again I am assessing how you are receiving this, as you open yourself in joyful expectation that you will be observing, feeling and knowing the change already taking place from your immersion in this energy session, which will continue for you. It expands upon and compounds the exact energy frequency of the energy DNA pattern for you in your designated activity of life, in your bio-energetic form. Bring all of this into your core energy centre and I am now helping you to restore back to your physical locality. Even in referring to it as your physical locality, you will be aware now of that greater existence that you know is around you, of that crystalline light city pattern. Hold it in your intentional field of life. I withdraw now,

Ulea out. “

Thank you Ulea, Orem and all of the Beings. This is Lani again and already of course you have brought back to immerse yourself, to reconnect in every way into your physical space, haven't you. It is very important to bring all of this greater Light system into this present moment, focused completely. You will be aware that your energy field has vastly expanded, so that was the purpose of me connecting with you for this session today.

I end this session through the Omega Communications Portal.

Lani
