Hello, Lani speaking to you again and it is my pleasure to open myself to connect with the Galactic Beings in the Station of Light in the space, in the dimension, the locality where it is and to be with you as we gather in that space in the area identified as the receiving area.

In the receiving area you are able to focus your attention into the greater conscious energy Being that you are, to be present, and of course, your physical self will benefit from everything you receive in this state of consciousness.

This is how we begin today.

"Welcome again.

Orem addressing you and we welcome you again into this space now familiar to you, and familiar to the aspect of you that has existed beyond time, beyond immersion into a physical form.

That aspect of you exists not dependent on being present in a physical form, but exists as an ongoing state of your individual consciousness.

It is necessary for you to identify that aspect so that you then realise you are in a continuum of existence. In that continuum of existence you are able to stabilise many of the conditions that you experience around you, because they are in many times an imposed reality upon you, so as a Being of greater consciousness, what will you allow yourself to experience or to have superimposed on your own individual reality? These are questions for you and you will resonate with the correct informational pattern which you may recognise as answers.

It is all about bringing you into the present understanding of your Self particularly located where you are on planet Earth, in that reality, to stabilise a condition or to bring in the advanced evolutionary cycle that exists. It is in your consciousness. It is in the consciousness of all Beings present. There are many Beings who do not wish to acknowledge this and who are also playing a part in a different aspect of Creation in accordance with the reality that they have chosen to be in. The difference is important for you to realise.

In realising that you have come into this assembly area and it is expanding your conscious knowledge - the knowingness of what reality is - this makes you more able to identify the higher level of patterning of energy for creation to manifest, to come in through you. Remember to keep this in your conscious memory. It exists there.

The existence of the reality of - many times we have referred you to the space that you would step into to orient yourself back to that highest point of evolution and also to identify the aspects within your physicality which may need some clearance or some upgrading work and of course, this is one of our main purposes for connecting you into this space - this Station of Light here - for you - created for you. You are part of this creation. It is part of the memory within you and you may also have been bringing into you, into the current reality, other memories that get triggered by events that you experience in your locality. The difference now is that you can see those for what they are. That they reside or originated in a different reality - and do you need them now?

What is your prime intention for coming into these gatherings and for your presence in your current locality and body? As you direct your intention and focus into the point of origin and the energy coming through the solar portal and also through other dimensional gateways, this is when you become aware that you are indeed participating with a greater galactic field of consciousness and conscious beings.

The purpose is manifold, in a multidimensional way, so this can get confusing for you. To help you identify with the initial construct of the reality that you are located in, this is what we do in helping you restore the potential contained in the concept that you brought through from your original point of existence.

We would remind you that this is part of the reason that you came into Earth-planet-being and that had an overall energetic purpose and location. So, you are helping to restore that through the many levels of evolutionary processes it has gone through.

Some of you will be aware that there is a duality of reality, of time, and so some of the historical events that have been recorded relate to the different timeline from that which you are existing in and manifesting as the reality.

You possibly will have been aware that you have shifted from the alternate time reality to come into the balanced state and in that state there was the potential for many things to be manifested. Where you are now in the cycle and what you identify with is creating the parallel reality that existed of pure light harmony and balance. If you are a musician, or have studied art, you understand where you resonate with a particular transitional aspect that brings everything into a resonating harmonic frequency. This is what you are doing in reality with you aligning with your pure aspect of creation, bringing it into your true deep resonance and then you find you are drawing into you different ways of creation to restore you into - perhaps you would call it a state of better living. You have experienced that throughout your timelines and throughout your current existence.

Maintain that awareness in you.

We bring your attention and presence into a deeper gathering within the Station. This is likened to a multi-dimensional control centre - an overseeing area - and you may be drawn into one particular aspect within this space and again you will be communicating with particular Beings who work with you and you are aligned with. Remember, some of these have come through from a different dimensional reality, so they may be perceived by you as having a different type of life form construct. Recognise the energy system of each and the information which you are witnessing and receiving. There are many activities at work relating to the Earth. We would also bring your attention - all of the attention of you all here - into the process of engaging a higher level of energy into everything that has been manifested on Earth and into its surrounding atmosphere.

Perhaps you could say, or witness this, that you are observing a higher potential of joy and love, of enlightenment and you will see this carried through in a vibrational way, through that overlaying energy field surrounding the planet, surrounding you all. This is brought to you through many different channels and different ways.

We remind you that you are both observing and participating in this process. As you do that, you realise it is all being done with loving intention. You are present here with loving intention.

You are now aware that you are withdrawing from that space and you are with me in the receiving area of the Station. This area in the Station and all areas, are vibrating with particular energy fields, emanations, which you can be sensing and participating in. There is much activity here. In many ways because we have our existence here and we need different aspects to support the existence of all of us in the Station. It may appear to be different to how you support yourself in existence on Earth, due to Earth's planetary conditions and the components of the physical form that suit the planetary existence. Again, we remind you that the energy of the planet is changing and this is why you are receiving constant upgrades with the downloading of energy being received.

This was the intention of your presence here in this session and I now withdraw

Orem out “

“I am that one known to you as Ulea, in this space at this time and I enjoy, indeed enjoy being with you and observing the change, observing more of the awakening to your true reality and assisting that. This is just briefly to help you orient yourself back into your energy form here in the receiving area and then you are being reconnected, using your intention at this time - reconnect yourself back into the physical form that you have. You are bringing into it another sequence of energy contained in the entire energy sphere that you are - containing all of the potential of the concept for what life is to be now around you.

And thus it is. I leave you now

Ulea out “

This is Lani again, and my grateful thanks to Ulea and Orem and many of those others we have all been connecting with in this session.

It is very comforting to realise you are in the presence of those Beings who truly know you and you know them.

Bring all of this back into your conscious mind, your conscious reality, and this is how I end this session today through the Omega Communications Portal.

Do make sure you are focused in the present moment. Possibly in that moment you exist everywhere in the galaxies of creation - but focused in the reality that you are bringing it all into this manifested life on Earth.

Thank you. We will meet again, I am sure

Lani
