“Orem coming forward to greet you and to welcome you and to draw each one of you a bit closer into this energy state here, where you might find you are still adjusting to the patterns of light - the frequency codes that are around you.

They are apparent around you wherever you are in your physical location. In this state in this Station you are more able to perceive them because there is no interference in your perception in the ways that you do perceive and sense and know what is around you.

Be not limited in your daily existence by your perceived limitations. Use this same extension of your consciousness field that you are in here - use that in your physical experiences, your daily experiences. Thus, you are enhancing your daily experience with the higher frequency pattern of that state of existence of the higher civilization. This is a simple way for you to manifest it around you and to draw yourself into it, for just as you have drawn yourself into this space by releasing some of the concepts that limit you in the physical life, you also do that to enter within the state of the next dimensional civilization around you. You could also perceive this as if you were in the centre of a bubble and you must extend your perception and sensing and consciousness field further out and out, extending that bubble of energy existence around you, all around you. This is the example given to you today of what you are receiving in this state.

We have drawn your attention to the Galactic Federation Beings entering in through more of the dimensional portals and this again is very strongly around you and is continuing, remembering that what has been put up into the area surrounding the planet have been many man-made creations and manifestations and you have various concepts and viewpoints of the functions and interactions of those. We are bringing your attention to the higher field of energy patterns available to you.

As you continue to expand your consciousness field, you resonate with the higher functioning levels of the Galactic Federation and all of those levels of - you might say they are empowerment coming to you - clarification of your individual mission. Remember, you have a sole mission - an over-riding mission and purpose for your presence on Earth and that did not involve anything that was of a disturbing nature to you. Those were all caught up in the web of existence overlaying the consciousness field that had been created of fear and drama - as was mentioned in the introduction to you in this particular visitation.

Your particular mission is always to be clearly aligned to the higher functioning aspect of you which exists always as your consciousness. That is your true consciousness state and it is that, that the lower levels of your consciousness, your conscious mind, has been wanting to reconnect with fully so that all layers of you are aligned to bring in this change and upgrade of cellular codes and mission codes into you.

It is all about you releasing older concepts and allowing this new field of opportunity that you are resonating with, to manifest within you.

We also would say, there is no fight. There is alignment to the pathway of your mission. Be clear on that and let it clear you of all old ways so that you are manifesting the pureness that is your conscious state now.

We bring your attention now to many of the functions within the Station that you would be interested in and which you would be wanting to participate in, in a much more aware level of consciousness, as you are present here. Feel that you are gravitating to various energetic spaces, remembering that we exist here in this Station and we all have various needs for our existence, and so there are many providers to assist what is needed for everyone of us. Liken this to your present physical existence. You have many providers and you are participating in the provision and receiving.

Lani speaking to you and I take this moment to extend my consciousness field into the Station of Light and as I do that, I am aware that you are doing this at the same time, because that is your intention, to be with me in the receiving area of the Station of Light to receive more energy and information about the downloads happening, about whatever is appropriate for you or me or any of us to understand at this present time phase we are in.

So, let us begin by bringing our attention into this space, leaving aside everything that relates to the Earth body and what has been imposed upon us in relation to fear or drama in any way. Let's just bring our joyous, beautiful selves into this space to receive.

It is part of the pattern of existence within the manifestation field of existence and experience.

You will notice again you have choice of providers to sustain, to nourish you, to keep you progressing on your pathway of activating all aspects of your mission and your present within that mission. So, your presence here engaging in the energy field in this Station in this phase is reminding you of that original mission.

You have gained insight in recent visitations here and information presented around you and you have also gained clarity within your entire energy field. Are you recognizing that? Have you allowed it to be active completely within the aspect of your physical form created? This is another opportunity to use the energy field to assist that process for you.

There is a certain amount of density that many of you still feel around you. Take this opportunity to engage the higher conditioning life essence, the ultra-light pattern, into those places of density you might be existing and feeling and experiencing within you. This is a multi-level session for you in your conscious state here and you will be relating to the various levels within the dimensional pattern that are appropriate for you individually.

You may also be aware of the many Galactic Beings here as they interact with you, or you perceive interactions of them within the Station, exchanging information, exchanging the levels of movement and perception as it relates to the evolvment of you each and of the planet and of the particular Galactic field you are within. You exist within that. You are of that. Every choice you make as now you are fully aware of this, will have an impact on the energy field which is around you which interacts with the energy field of many others you come in contact with.

Maintaining your conscious connection to the higher state, to your mission, to the particular Galactic Beings you work with, will also impact in subtle ways upon your entire environment. This is the importance of this for you today to realise.

This presentation around you of your experience will be unfolding in an ongoing way for you and is having the sense of bringing you into a different resonating field, enhanced, and you are knowingly embodying this.

It is the appropriate time now for me to bring your awareness into this assembly point in the receiving area so that you integrate all of this within you. You may also be sharing some moments of connection with the Galactic Beings around you - the Beings of higher intensity light - all of that field of existence contained within the energetic starfield matrix around you. The work is continuing in the enveloping matrix of energy around this planet that you are fulfilling your mission upon.

I leave this with you

Orem out "

Lani again speaking and I am aware of a beautiful encircling ring of Beings enfolding you in such love and joy that I am sure you will feel that and you will feel, as I do, a sense of another layer being cleared from us.

So, at this point it is necessary to bring the enormous, amazing, clear Being that you are - your consciousness field, fully back, connecting into your physical form. It is becoming more difficult to call it a physical form because it is really an energy form that you are and you just have the appropriate housing for that. It is quite a mechanical process.

The term quantum mechanics comes into my mind about everything we have been receiving in the last few sessions, so those of you who understand quantum mechanics will be understanding in a different level what is happening, what is being received.

Again, now bring your focus and attention back into the present moment and I end this session through the Omega Communications Portal.

Take a few moments for all of this energy to settle around you, to balance you. We are still receiving the downloads, I am sure. Thank you.
