Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Gathering of Light Beings - Session 2

April 26, 2020

Lani speaking again through the Omega Communications Portal and today again I am drawn to meet with the group of Beings in a different dimension, in a different part of Earth and the Beings again are addressing the group of us here between 100 and 200 beings here and some have come in closer as if they are more strongly present.

We also are overlooked by other beings apart from the ones who are in the centre who are communicating with everyone. It seems to be in an individual way and perhaps that's what we're each prepared to hear and accept, understand.

They are saying -

"We have gathered you here at this time to continue the energy infusion for you.

We would ask you where would you choose to be if you had not chosen to come to Earth at this time? Would you have held back and stayed in a comfortable position in a more already evolved state of existence?

Here you are in the present circumstances and you each have been drawn conditionally into this gathering. We speak the word conditionally because it is dependent on your sense of responsibility and acceptance of yourself as having a specific role to be clear and to be clearly present and to lift up the veil of consciousness around people. the layer of fear that has existed. As you know like yourself in very current phases of your measurement of days you have come to a sense of stillness and anticipating the direct linkage. Some of you would call this intervention. It is not intervention. We do not come forward to change your timeline. That is your responsibility. We come forward to show you options and opportunities.

This opportunity that you have accepted to be present here in one sense bypasses the original organized pattern of your life and thus you are more prepared to connect into the particular team that you connect with - the Galactic teams that have come from different areas, different galaxies, different stations, some of whom have existed close to Earth, some of these have existed in bases located in the moon alongside Earth and some have existed in other planetary bodies close by to Earth.

So there are a number of helpers around you depending on your connection. It is your choice.

When you initiate the connection to honour the choice that you made to come into this current body form, then there is the automatic resonance with the group of Galactic Beings who are ready to assist you and work with you and bring in that higher level of energy frequency patterns for you.

This continues the energy flow to you through your energetic matrix often referred to as your personal starfield matrix. It is being upgraded- your personal energy system. You realize this. Again, it is your choice to accept it and release what you hold back from allowing yourself to give forth or do.

You have received more of the information today in this gathering so this is complete for this aspect of this gathering."

Lani speaking again. Everybody seems to be very respectful as we withdraw and come back to our housing - our physical body unit housing - and it is as if the body and its current personality is just a house for the consciousness, for our greater galactic self to be present. Remember that.

Do you acknowledge yourself as a galactic being assigned here on Earth? This is the conclusion of this little information energy visitation today and it will continue and strengthen what do you received yesterday and perhaps in many other personal sessions you've had. Thanks for being with me. I do not know when our next gathering will be but I'm sure it will unfold and I will take the opportunity to record what I receive and observe. Thank you everybody

Lani
