Gathering of Light Beings - Session 4

May 6, 2020

This is Lani speaking.

I am drawn to observe a vessel - it looks like it is coming out of our sun, heading straight toward Earth, moving very fast - that is the impression I have. Coming to Earth, hovering above Earth as Earth revolves. I am seeing Earth revolving, so it is hovering in a space out of our measurement of time, but it can observe us.

There are many of us being drawn up into this vessel at this time, again into a gathering space.

The Galactic Beings have been waiting for us and one by one they are drawing many of us into this assembly into this vessel.

“We want you to understand that there has been no sacrifice made and no compromise made of our position with you in your position.

There has been some concern amongst many of the Galactic Beings, like yourselves stationed on Earth, that the timing is off, or it has been too late to assist planet Earth and its citizens. This is where we say there is no longer the perceived threat to existence of life, as you consider life to be.

There has been a change. There has been the direct calling upon the assistance of the Galactic Federation and the Councils involved in observing planet Earth and that assistance has been given. In many ways you may not be aware yet of those ways that help has been given to you.

In the first instance, the help comes to assist each one of you to realise there is no appearance, there is no experience that you need to move into a fear-based scenario and fear-based pattern. When you fully realise that, you have come back to your central and direct connection and communication with your area of connection into the Galactic groupings that you individually connect with. There are not many who come around Earth to connect with you.

You have many Galactic names given to the galaxies or to particular planetoid phases and we can give you many of those names. The importance of the message is available to you to what you resonate with, the direction you are getting the information from, and the energy is the prime focus for you to realise is coming in and has come in, in accordance with your call to be directly assimilated in you to alter any pattern that allowed you to begin the disintegration pattern of the physical form.

In the upgrade process the energy moves into your energy field, into your known electrical systems and the patterns and the codes which are transferred in a very fluidic pattern around your entire physical unit. This is from the very densest aspect as it is now today, in your gathering, to the energetic body that you have - this greater body of energy, consciousness.

Your consciousness body will reveal itself to you in the ways that it has been described as your body of light and even the crystalline light body. We use these phrases because they unlock those concepts within your consciousness field to allow you to access all of that potential within that concept, and thereby you are having a direct effect upon the land masses known as Earth. That includes waters - everything around the planet because that is living energy, like yourself, so in these few words and in your momentary presentation here into this, you will feel the energy that you record as lovingness enveloping you all, as you are here, enlightening you and you, of course, have already experienced the upliftment to be in this gathering space.

Allow this to remain with you.

Your consciousness as you are here is very familiar with this and uses it in a very materialistic way. That materialistic way is not to do with greed. It is to do with suffusing the manifestations that you exist in with this same energetic frequency which you have perceived - sensed - known to be coming through your solar portal.

This is what was required for you to realise again and that was the main purpose for drawing you into this space at this time.

There will be continuing gatherings where you will feel you are immediately transported into gathering spaces with us like this, observing the movement throughout your known galaxy system, observing how planet Earth is moving in its positioning in the galaxy that you know it to be in.

Movement is generated by the extension and expansion and acceptance of the greater consciousness state - the patterning encoded within you.

We know those of you gathered here have accepted your personal and individual commissioning to come into your Earth life at this time. You are helping you. You are helping the civilization.

You will observe the breaking down of many known establishments that have, in a sense, been dictating and controlling the way Earth has developed and evolved through the greed system.

There will be changes you will be observing relative to this upliftment into the manifestation of the next level of existence for you each, so hold this within your knowing, within your great consciousness field that extends around you and as you connect with that higher, infinite space, it surrounds the entire planet.

We conclude this session and allow you to move back into your physical state.

We acknowledge you.

Orem out. “

Thank you, Orem. This is Lani again and I was also aware that the Being was speaking on behalf of many of the Galactic Beings gathered there, in this particular vessel travelling across, or through dimensions, through the solar portal so that we could readily adapt to the pattern of that and be aware that we were gathered into the vessel, that space.

So it was all good. I trust this has assisted you and will continue to assist you in ongoing days.

It is time now to fully bring yourself back. Actually, you may feel you are being transported back and this may have happened while some of you are in your sleep state, so you will come back into your body in whatever way is appropriate for you where you are. Again, some of you will feel you have been beamed back to the planet. Perhaps if you feel you have come back in some other way you could leave me a comment - that would be really interesting.

Bring yourself back into the absolute present moment of your presence on Earth, and remember, you are a conscious Being coming into physicality into this body that you chose to be in - so you must of course fully love and accept that body and then accept the changes in accordance with the upgraded blueprint and cellular functions. I love it! It is wonderful!

Thanks for being with me on this journey. I end this little journey - taken out through the Omega Communications Portal.
