Gathering of Light Beings - Session 5

May 20, 2020

This is Lani speaking.

Today I am drawn into a state of consciousness where I am aware of a great many Galactic vessels popping into visibility and coming into our locality around the planet, observing from a distance.

Already I am in another transportation-type vessel, or station, from where I am observing many different types, or shapes, of vessels coming into the reality and in the vicinity of our planet Earth. There is a greater assembly of Beings coming forward.

“As you assemble here, Beings of Earth, you will be aware that you are receiving information into the depth of your understanding and your reality where you may insert this into your current lifetime.

The presence of these Beings indicates their assistance to you. They envelop you and they envelop the organisms creating life manifested upon planet Earth at this time, investing them all with the greater infusion of knowledge and life existence. We are talking about the civilization of existence that you have been changing. Civilisations continually evolve or change in some way that could be viewed as devolving.

In this instance, you have the potential to create evolvement in a procedural fashion which increases and challenges your current thought-times of time reality, as you measure time. Time is not dependent on how many revolutions there are of the planet and how it turns and evolves in accordance with the sun and different time linear measurements. Time measurement is truly a dimensional measurement of change and evolution and manifestation of change in consciousness, and this is where you stand in this time. This is why you have manifested on planet Earth at this time.

To assist this process, the energy you are receiving through the galactic portals upon you are changing the reality of time, and therefore you are manifesting a different reality, in accordance with your sense of time and change.

This has been an ongoing initiation within you of the increase in cellular functioning, in the increase of your capacity to perceive the manifested dimensions around you. That also relates to your perception of time.

As you choose to perceive the manifestations of civilization around you that are possibly what you would refer to as future, this changes your perception and experience of time.

In one sense, you may be perceiving a very great stillness within your inner perception as all of this occurs, as you draw into you the entire concept and the potential you have.

In this presentation to you as you assemble here with us, you are reminded that you are receiving another flow of energy to help stabilization of all of this in you. Your energy field accepts this. It understands it.

You are in the presence of that overseeing body that you have come to understand as the Galactic Federation. This is the commissioning of many of the groups from other galaxies and many of these have been present in your reality for a continuation of life cycles, but their presence has become more known to you and they are here as part of the process of your expansion of consciousness - the upliftment of you into that expanded field.

So, the purpose of you being present in this gathering in this moment is to consolidate your perceptions and understanding.

In these few moments many of you are observing your connection with some of these Beings from other galaxies. We are hosting this gathering for you to receive this and for you to also step forward into the reception of this. As you do that, you understand that it is your choice. It is always your choice.

This was the purpose of this gathering at this time, for you to understand there is the appearance of the Galactic Federation coming forward to assist you, in particular as Earth is going through energetic changes and you are experiencing those changes. What you are experiencing in this session is also re-aligning you into these ongoing changes.

And So It is. “

Lani speaking to you again and this is the time where they recede from the presence and you will be aware that you are with me and many others as we are relocated - brought down to Earth - into your present lifeform, such as it is and as it is changing.

So much change is happening at this time in this awakening and shifting process that you do need to take time to remember that it is all in accordance with what you agreed to experience in this current lifetime.

This ends this inner journey for the gathering and I want you to make sure - make it your intention - that you are physically oriented back into the present moment. You can revisit the session at any time to again enhance yourself or to receive individual information in that process - but now you must be present back in the present moment.

I leave you with this, filled with love and light and gratitude for these journeys. Thanks for being with me.
