“Welcome. Orem greeting you in this space and with me are the Galactic Beings who assemble in this Station, who come forward and observe you and come forward to assist you in this process of change and the shift occurring within you and the consciousness field and within the Earth space/ station - the Earth station planet-being as you know the planet in your language. We are assisting the change and shift.

There are many processes involved in the dimensional field which Earth is known to be. In a similar way there are many changes and shifts in the dimensional form that you are focused as in your current energy body.

The dimensional fields around you continue to experience multi layers of existence and all of those multi layers of existence have a diverse area of experience and it is the experience many times that you are perceiving as happening to your individuality as the being that you know yourself to be. So, as you enter into a dimensional space as this, there is the freedom occurring from you of the beings and the experiences that you have drawn around you, or that you perceive to be, because they are part of the collective whole of the consciousness being that you are and it is not necessary for you to experience many of those multi-dimensional experiences happening in the alternate realities.

Bring your attention into yourself as a highly evolved being in this state and thus you become aware of the aspects that you would be wanting to assist you and the energy from your pureness can go out to other aspects that may be needing it at this time of you, of the consciousness that is you, and therefore improvement occurs in all of the aspects of your one consciousness.

We are directly synchronizing you with the point of origin existence of you.

That point of origin existence is one with the area where we are connecting with you. This incorporates many of the Galactic Federation existences and Beings, those Beings you would call your Starfield aspects, the Star Beings and the Council of Light directly involved in the formation and evolutionary processes of the planetoid you are existing on in this moment.

This is an opportunity for you to expand your conscious mind into the consciousness field of existence beyond limits. This is also a reminder that the potential for you to exist in multi-dimensions in a conscious way is available if it is appropriate for you. What may be appropriate for you is the manifestation of a place of beingness where you can continue to explore creation and to manifest the higher purpose for your Being which always originated from your original point of existence.

In this space between the words you are re-establishing and synchronizing all aspects of yourself with that.

In so doing, there will be the apparent and real disconnection from many of the processes that you observe occurring amongst people on your planet. If you are not present in those situations, they do not need to impact upon you. The impact that you need and the impressions you need are from your original point of existence. This could be considered one of the prime experiences for you to be receiving as you enter into this shared space of communication and of the dimensional field assisting you when you come into this Station of Light within the dimensional field of Earth, and also existing and known to exist by Galactic Beings, within this entire field known as your solar system. We entered within this area where you are existing in this planet through the solar portal and we did enter through this portal from a distant galaxy that would not be known to you yet to identify it as such. We understand the need you have to identify different locations, different galaxies, different planets, different types of Beings present. What is the purpose for you for that?

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Lani speaking to you as we begin this inner journey. Are you relaxing your body, opening your mind, so that you receive on all levels of your being? You are a multi-dimensional being, much more than the person, the body form that we know as your name. Therefore, allow yourself to identify yourself as an energy being - a light form - and come with me into the receiving area of the Station of Light.

This is an amazing dimension where we easily participate in the flow of energy that the Beings, representing a higher or more evolved state of consciousness, will come forward to help you in some way this very day, and moving beyond time in any direction.

This is how we begin today and I step back and allow the Beings here to come through me.

Does it resonate with your original intention and purpose for coming into Earth? Experience the shift in energy as you connect with that and that is known as a prime intention for you. We do explain the prime intention can incorporate many facets within that concept and we bring your awareness back to that concept which contains everything of the vibrational frequency that you resonate with - back to your original point of origin which exists as a frequency, a vibration, as an energy field and the more you realise that enables you to resonate more finely with it. You become more finely attuned with that and then you bring it back into your body form as it exists here.

As you bring that energy back around you, it is making a continual adjustment in your energy field to enhance the vitality, to enhance the energies that sustain you and so this is important for you in the current phase experience that you entered into and are continuing to unfold. We are incorporating the sense of your multi-dimensional existence deep within aspects of the planet and originally there was a greater amount of water surrounding the entire planet and it was from the water that there was the manifestation of many lifeforms because of the encoded pattern in the creation, in the formation of it. In this moment you will be aware of different lifeforms within the waters upon the planet. We are speaking about conscious beings within the water who remain within areas of civilization within the water and again, they are working with the element of water around the planet and around and within lifeforms and in particular, humanoid lifeforms.

It carries many messages. The vibration is carried through the element of water and as water can be transformed into other crystalline elements, then there is also an advanced field of communication that carries information throughout your body form.

You will be aware of many messages contained within water, contained within the crystallised first process as water is dried on the surface into the crystalline salt as you know that to be.

There is also the crystalline element within plants and therefore in the food chain and this all is being enhanced currently as it resonates with the energy coming through dimensional portals from other galactic patterns of creation, places of existence, coming through various alignment patterns that you become aware of in the alignment of different galaxies and planets visible and known to science and known to those who perceive on a greater dimensional frequency pattern.

All of this is an aspect of you, known in particular in the conceptual pattern as the starfield energy matrix. We continue to present this to you. It is part of the upgrade of the multi patterns of you. Recently as you measure time and days you will have been aware that you have stepped into a vibration that allows you to receive confirmation and information and perception into a different field of consciousness and dimensional areas and this is part of what is happening as you synchronise and resonate yourself with the higher field of creation. Following this, you become aware that you are cooperating with and working with the Galactic Guild of Beings and this incorporates what you know as we, who address you from the Galactic Federation. Again, this is confirmation to you that you are regaining your original awareness which became inhibited as you came into the limiting construct of Earth in your birth time. The recent sessions have been assisting you to be free of those confinements and this has a reaction in your body, you will be finding your body is becoming freer, more alive. This is how the process of evolution works.

This immersion for you is complete at this time as you measure it and know it and as you bring your focus again perceiving yourself here in the receiving area of the Station, you will be aware that I, the speaker, and many of the groups around you are withdrawing, leaving you to assimilate this in your own way.

It is with you
Orem out “

“Acknowledged, Orem.

Ulea coming forward briefly to help you identify the new pattern within your energy field here which you would always know as being pure and the light form of you and yet, as you experience this, there have been adjustments in this energy form. It is this that you are now bringing back into your conscious state as your body form, back to where you are receiving this. In every plane of existence in every aspect of you, you are downloading and accepting this infusion. Now, I withdraw also

Ulea out “

Again it is for me, Lani, on Earth to assist you to now orient yourself completely back in your body and surrounding your body in that extended dimensional energy field of you, that is you.

Take in a breath and orient yourself completely in your body, being aware of the day and the time, and every time you re-enter into this space to experience more of what was presented in the energy between the words.

You are acknowledged as part of the Galactic Guild of Beings from wherever you originated from to be present here on Earth.

I end this session now through the Omega Communications Portal and I give my appreciation to those ones involved in the illustrations I use and to be able to bring this to you in this way.

Lani
