"We welcome you into this space, this state of existence known to you on many dimensional levels of your existences in the multi-dimensional aspects of yourself. I am Orem addressing you, but there are, as you know, many of us of the Galactic Guild of Beings around you.

You have originated into this existence as a place to be, representing your point of origin, we refer to your presence on the planetoid named Earth - and also this opportunity is another way for you to remember and gather back into you all members of your original existence pattern. That is a code of existence which can be presented in many different organisms, in many different conscious beings and because you are peculiarly aligned in this moment to be attuned to your original point of origin, this becomes much clearer to you and the patterns you have existed as and the memories of what had been gathered into you through experience can be utilized. So, it is your intention when you reconnect with your point of origin original existence with your purpose, that you gather in all of the encoded energy systems appropriate for you to use now.

We confirm to you that you have firmly entered into the altered dimensional existence in recent passages of your time and it is now time for you to appreciate that and to acknowledge that you are creating, because you are ready to create and manifest a more wholistic upliftment and energized, purified type of civilization. Along with this there are many manifestations occurring, opportunities of new ways to work with what you know already and use already on the planet, and then there are opportunities coming forth for you to understand a deeper wholistic pattern to be incorporated in your particular living spaces and in your deep knowing of how you would create and manifest a new type of civilization which you could call light civilisations, light cities, cities of light.

This is brought to you, as it has been delivered to you over many of these sessions when you come in the Station, but in this case it is brought to you in a different way because your energy systems have aligned and are resonating better with the higher civilisations manifesting. You are being given great assistance by those of the Galactic Federation who support you. There are many layers to those Beings, many types of Beings and existences. Many of these Beings you may perceive simply as light forms, you might call them energized, etheric Beings because they do not have the solid feel as you do in your physicality. Referring to that, become aware often as your physicality that you could touch different areas of your energy field around your body and still feel the vibration of that in much greater detail and sensory perception, feeling it is greater than the flesh you touch. We are confirming this to you. We understand and we recognize many of you are aware of this already and you are wanting to accelerate the process where you perceive with all aspects of your vision the new civilization, new types of transport, new types of equipment in many ways.

This is already created. It is waiting for you to recognise that it is already in existence and so as you become more aware of that, you will feel the intertwining, the overlapping of the different dimensional forms and all of the equations that are necessary for you operate in and through multi dimensions until you are firmly functioning in that "advanced" and we say advanced in your quotation marks, so that you are aware of the change and the shift.

In delivering this to you in this way where you are present, you will be vibrating to that greater pattern created and you have been participating in that creation and you will continue to do so. It is within you to receive impulses to manifest it more in your reality currently and these are what you will be following, especially when you resonate with the point of origin existence which overlays everything, because that is part of the creationism within the matrix of creation within what is known as the starfield energy.

Session 1026
Date: July 9, 2020
Time 9.30 am

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Already you should be now relaxing your body, letting it be comfortable where you are receiving this, and in this way the essence of you, or the greater state of your consciousness as a dimensional being, can separate from the body and be fully present with us in the receiving area of the Station of Light.

This is how we begin every session, opening the mind, being receptive, allowing your greater senses to be fully present and active in this state of you, this aspect of you, that is present here.

Already the light is changing around us. Do you perceive that? Sensing it in whatever way is right for you? This light appears to envelop every one of us. So, already the Beings in the Station here are working, they are presenting something to you.

I recede and allow this to happen.

So, initially of course, you will be needing to utilize that energy within and throughout your entire physical existence as you are in the physical form presently and all of your journey through this present existence that you focus within. Therefore, you will realise this is helping you to resonate more efficiently, strongly, with the deeper aspects of your point of origin.

Now, briefly we describe to you there is a greater alignment of those galactic vessels which continue to enter within your Earth energy system and some of these are fully recognised, are in communication upon the planet and bases beyond and above the planet. There is the presence of many of the Beings who are helping clear away what you may feel had become the predominant and dominating influence created on fear and the continuation of that and that is being recognised by many Beings and there are processes initiated and continuing to resolve and dissolve much of that. What holds it in place is the determination of people to continue in their ways. We again tell you, as we did previously, focus upon the presence of light, the presence of the Galactic Guild and all of the species who are emanating patterns of light and the pure intention of creation. Within all that there are many experiences, layers, perhaps different layers you could identify in your known language and emotional responses, but the purest level is always to create new worlds establishing patterns of light.

In many ways Earth is still considered to be a new world, emerging to be a pattern of light itself, through all the depths of its creation. As you bring in the light that you resonate with from your point of origin - and you access that directly because it is an aspect of you, it is part of you and yet it is also connected with your solar portal - and as you connect with that, you are bringing that light in, helping evolve the planet-being itself through all the depths of its creation, all the layers that are present unseen to many eyes. You might say it is in the forests, in the land, in the waters, deep underground within the civilisations existing within Earth and the intention of all is an alignment with creating this planet-being you are on as a planet of light civilization. This is the importance of you being fully present and acknowledging the aspect of your purpose of existence connected in with that purpose of creation.

You may be aware of the many Beings around you who are acknowledging you as you accept this which you are, and continuing on from this, you will be realizing consciously that every step you take, every move you make, is filled with that true essence of creation for your original purpose of existence.

You may feel the change. Even as this comes upon you, and you fully realise and accept this as we address you and being with you, you may feel the change around you in this space, allowing you to perceive more of the activity occurring in the Station. There are threads of information which come into the Station and there are threads of information going in through you and through many other aspects of the energetic grid - the matrix around the Earth - all being fed with this energy of assistance. In many ways, part of your purpose is to help people connect into that energetic grid surrounding all life created. As you know, there are many who will deny existence, they will deny that existence continues after the death of the body, so there is still more work to be done in helping people to connect with their pure element of existence - the consciousness that exists beyond the physical body.

Now this was the purpose of bringing you into the Station at this time and as you integrate all of this into your conscious presence here, I withdraw

Orem out "

Lani with you again.

I feel I am continuing what Orem has been bringing through to you. I feel I continue it, helping us all absorb it, myself included, and helping us all to bring this back into the life we are living now in the form, in whatever stage or age or gender or position in the civilisation you have.

Let it be important. Let the light come through you of this energy that I feel is very inspiring and helpful, in many ways.

It is up to you now to focus consciously back within your body form, knowing that your greater light essence surrounds it, in a great circumference all around you, the edge of your consciousness field, but the pure, strong, energy field around you is likened to an energetic shield. Your personal energy field and shield arising from your connection to your point of origin, or that which is known as your higher evolved self.

At this point I end this session through the Omega Communications Portal. I am grateful for your presence and I am grateful for all of the methods, everything that has been manifested to help us receive in this way. Whether you are reading it, or listening to it, or watching the little video part of it, it is a great manifestation of support and you took part in the creation of that, and more to come.

Enjoy who you are. Thank you

Lani
