"Indeed, you are welcomed as we greet you here, Beloved.

Orem addressing you and it is in this adjustment phase that you are experiencing that you will notice more of the energy systems which surround you here in this dimension.

You will also be noticing more of the energy systems surrounding you as you go about your daily activities in your physicality. The energy systems are a complex organization, a system within that whole concept that is life and your purpose and the reason for existence and all of that is combined in the true consciousness that you are expressing.

So, as you experience this being brought forward to you, you may become aware that there are different segments and processes around you in this particular receiving space. It is many of these processes that can be recognized as energetic symbols or shapes, energy flowing movement and you will be precisely attuning to particular flows of energy here. Momentarily feel what you are receiving. This is making an adjustment to you all to help free you of mis-aligned concepts, beliefs, statements, resolutions you may have made in some particular aspect of creation of lifeforms you have had and in the freeing up, you then participate more strongly in what is unfolding here within the Station.

What is unfolding here within the Station surrounds you in the sense of the formation which is changing of the Earth construct planet - the planet Energy Being that it is as a construct. Also in its origination of its existence it was a concept that came forth to experience a continual unfoldment of life, of expressions to support it and to sustain it and likewise, there were the elements that came forward to the planet to work with the foremost intention that is creative in its expression, and you have come forward at this time into physicality to link your higher purpose of energy system from your pure source of origin to come in to assist the process of Earth.

Involved in that, you bring in a collection of experiences. The experiences could have been from other lifetimes on the planet, within the planet, around the planet, it could have been experiences you brought in from some other galactic existence. While that does not matter, it is still within your consciousness framework and this is why there has been the continuation to support you to be free of those elements that you had connected around you that had changed your perception of Creation and what your life is.

In this way, we are upholding you into the pure aspect of Creation. This supports you in every way. This allows you to understand that you have multiple choices in many situations. When you are resonating clearly, strongly and intentionally with your original placement, your original pattern of creation, the choice is very clear. The pathway is very clear which you have already chosen to be upon, within, expressing, moving, existing. There are many words to describe that pathway.

With your resonating pattern engaged within the overall concept and purpose, you are finding a greater freedom within yourself, within your environment and you are also able to choose more and attract more to you of support systems. Support systems of Creation. Aligning yourself always with the higher aspect of creation, Source Energy through the Solar Portal for you, opens up the entire concept of support in a different context, in a different framework that you will understand and accept. Initially it must fill every aspect of your physicality, that includes your thought patterns and emotional responses, with this same resonating frequency from Source Creation. This is fully connected to you in this presentation. You do continue to have choice to accept that in an ongoing way and to remember the sense this gives you, even as we are presenting this to you now.

Session 1027
Date: July 16, 2020
Time 9.30 am

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Lani speaking to you again and beginning this inner journey today.

As you are receiving this, wherever you are receiving this, surround yourself with that energy field that was referred to in the last session, where you connect with the Point of Origin and you feel that pure light enter within you, into the core energy essence of you, and then as that expands out through your energy field, you realise you are existing as a Being of Light.

It is this light field energy self of you that is called to gather into the receiving area of the Station of Light. It is a very quick introduction, but that is all that is necessary because it is a pathway that is known to you. You have always known you have a greater energy self and this is It which comes forward into this space.

We wait here for the Beings of the Galactic Command in this Station to come forward.

We now proceed to move you into a greater assembly area in the Station. You will be aware that many of the Beings you are familiar with are present here, many who have come to you in your individual acclimatisation to these areas, where you have come in and you resonate with particular Beings. Some of you have been given names for those Beings. Some of you identify them in particular shapes, colours and energy systems. All of this is presented to you because you are resonating with particular lifeforms and energy systems that are appropriate for you to use now.

In this assembly area you will be observing the overseeing Beings, the Council of Light who are present here and there is also the presence of that Being addressing you as Ulea.”

“I speak to you as Ulea in this space and I would demonstrate to you different areas of this assembly area. Some of these are working with aspects that will be relieving many of the body system difficulties some of you experience. As you have continued to align yourself with the power and the Source

Energy that you were originally existing as, you find you have made great adjustments yourself in relieving distortions in your body systems and the ongoing thought patterns you had become aware of which were disturbing you. So, you will see in this area there are many groups involved in assisting you all in many of these processes. There are areas you are drawn into as part of the cleansing and upgrading of your entire energy systems, so be strongly aware of this.

You may also perceive in this area there are groups involved in correcting some of the water element patterns that had been embodying elements that were not helpful to the overall ecology of the planet and the pureness of the water and the purpose of various elements of water. There are also areas you will be perceiving who are continuing the process of creating more crops to sustain the physical body form, now that there is a decrease in the desire and the ongoing system of using animals to sustain the body nutritional biome systems, so there is a great deal happening in these areas. It is only at certain times that your attention will be drawn to these particular stations in the assembly area and many others, of course, who work in different galactic fields of creation. It is all about helping you to understand there are many systems in place in other dimensions which are supporting the ongoing life and upgrade of planet Earth and the population.

Now I am able to bring you back into the receiving area of the Station and here, become aware please, of the energy sphere that is appropriate for you that you could immerse yourself within as an individual. This is containing more information for you and it must be apparent to you, it must be forthcoming to you in an individual way through your own connection and this energy sphere you are within here connects to your Point of Origin. It is a necessary alignment and resonating situation for you and this you now are being encouraged to bring back into your space where you are receiving this energy session. We perceive many of you receive it in multiple ways, in text form, in listening to the energy patterns between the words.

What is being presented to you is the opportunity that you need to recognize you are bringing this entire energy sphere into your space around you. This will be growing in its intensity. It will be recognized by you in different shapes and patterns, depending on the purpose and your specific need at the time for you to retune yourself to your Point of Origin. This is permitted through the presence of the Council of Light and the Galactic Guild of Beings to assist you to create the upgraded type of civilization and it brings in the awareness of the greater dimension that you are accessing, moving into and bringing into reality.

This was the purpose of this session today and I withdraw now

Ulea out “

Lani again, present, aware of you in a sense I have that you have brought this individual sphere back down into your space, so wherever that space is, and the Beings are referring to your living space whether that is temporary or permanent - bring it into you, around you, recognising it is filling that space with this energy sphere and information and energy patterns.

This has been great. I have been sensing this energy sphere that we had access to, to draw deeply into our existence and these types of energy spheres come in at the appropriate point of the intersections in the dimensional matrix surrounding creation, surrounding you. It is another unfoldment and upliftment.

Now make sure you have orientated yourself back in and around your body form, into this life. Perhaps you are creating change in your life and this energy sphere is part of that. Acknowledge it. Bring it into your reality.

Thanks again for being part of this. I end this session through the Omega Communications Portal.

I give my gratitude to Orem, Ulea, all of the Galactic Beings that we were connecting with, and the Council of Light. It is all available to us. Thank you.
