“We welcome you again into this space, dear one. Orem addressing you and your presence is requested, which is why you have come into this space again. Perhaps some of you are newly presenting yourself here and for others it is a reminder and again answering the call to be present.

The purpose for this is so that you are aware of the shifting parameters around you, in the sense that they are not physical boundaries or limits. They are indeed energy fields that you need to work through, to sometimes understand what those energy fields are and therefore in so doing, you are identifying yourself as that aspect of Creation who made the agreement and chose to come forward at this time. In the process of coming forward, as we speak these words, you will be identifying yourself as a Galactic Being of Light, recognizing the energy field of you as Light, which is an energy system, and the energy system may be revealing itself in particular elements that could be described as colours, or vibrations. The overlaying, or the main energy system of you, will be one strong, energy field which allows you to resonate and connect more strongly with your original place of existence. It was from that original place of existence that we continue to refer to as your Point of Origin, that you chose to come into Earth at this time and you chose to bring with you particular aspects, particular concepts and codes which are already outlining and bringing into a stronger formation the construction of the cities of light.

What you are bringing through is potential and the already formulated matrix of energy for the stabilization, initially, of the conditions that are out of balance around the planetary system and around some members of humanity and after the stabilization occurs, you find revealed to you more opportunities, more aspects of a higher evolved system of support and provisioning for all that is required for the sustenance of the population as it is at present and to promote and to reveal the portals through which people will be moving to identify their places of essential places of existence, in relation to your energetic field. It is worked out in that regard to what you identify with most.

Even here, as you are present in the Station with us, you are resonating with an individual field for your ongoing existence. We offer you the opportunity to discern the different portals that you resonate with and always through the particular portals which relate to your original existence, you are drawn to that, and in that way any resistances, doubts, anything that may be restricting you from fully connecting back to that original purpose will also be loosened from your energy field and in a sense, they become dissolved, because their existence is not part of the original pattern of existence which you are identifying with and bringing into manifestation in some dimensional field of existence.

You may rightly discern from this that not all of that higher field of existence will manifest on Earth as it is at present, so you are taking the opportunity presented to you to exist in a co-existence at the present portal opening in the dimension that you are recognizing is right for you. It is this co-existence through the movement through dimensions that you are involved in currently and this may be why you sometimes fall back into old humanistic egotistical patterns and at other times you are clearly in that greater energetic field of your greatness, of your pure essence.

Take this opportunity to strengthen this through you and to feel the energetic chords being strengthened and this also will be clearing from you some elements that you accumulate through your daily patterns of existence through the environment, perhaps through the air, perhaps through what is present in your current environment. You are given the pureness at this time and that in turn activates a stronger energetic process throughout your normal physiological processes.

Lani speaking to you. Are you ready to put aside your daily activities and identifying you as the particular named person, and to allow your body to be comfortable so that the true essence of you can come with me and assemble in the receiving area of the Station of Light? This again is for renewal for you, renewing your energy field. Perhaps you have the sense of renewing a contract of some sort that you made to be here at this time and to assist the expansion of consciousness. Perhaps you are here for a different reason.

As you assemble here, you may already be sensing the shift in energy around you and so the Beings will come forward who exist in this inter-dimensional Station of Light.

This is everything that you need that you are drawing upon in this moment.

Moving deeply now into another gathering space in the Station, you will be observing many areas coordinating some energy pockets to be presented to some of the Beings around the planet who are needing to understand more of the higher process of evolution that is required. Also, energy is presented to those ones who are not yet aware that they have the ability to draw on the pure aspects of creation to facilitate cleanliness, to facilitate a wholistic pattern of life, which is something you are familiar with. Help, therefore, you will see is being provided. It is recognized by those who are ready to receive it, to understand this new level which is coming forward into manifestation.

So, feel you are connecting with what is appropriate for you and you are connecting with the areas that are presented around the planet that you are assisting simply by the level of your current consciousness. You may be aware of the energy field, that matrix around the planet and around the particular solar system you are in, receiving more concepts of upliftment. You have done this work yourself mostly in other patterns of existence where you have observed what is being experienced by the citizens of different land masses and in observation, you are also presenting the higher field of potential, in the same way that the higher field of potential exists around this planet-being named Earth, currently.

What is required is an alignment and repositioning through the dimensional portals to allow the strengthening of this to come through so that lower fields of consciousness will recognize this support and help.

Much of this potential and energy system is also incorporated into the energy of the structures that humankind has put up into the atmosphere around the planet. It is all receiving the higher potential field and this can be engaged, because everything that is encircling the planet has an energy field.

Therefore, when you realise the higher concept of the potential of higher evolved systems is connecting into what has been presented up there, you will realise there are many mechanisms of support coming forward. Already many of the creators of such mechanisms are changing in their consciousness field of realization to alter some schematics so that the higher field is incorporated into what has been manifested already.

There is a correlation between your individual energy field and structure receiving the higher energy potential that you brought forth from your original point of existence and you know that your everyday daily circumstances are being upgraded in this way.

This is what we wanted to reveal to you in this session and I bring you back into your presence in your beautiful body of light - your Galactic Presence - in the receiving area of the Station.

Are you ready to continue with your agreement and your mission in your physicality existence? This is all with you.

We withdraw now

Orem out “

“Thank you Orem. We are with you again as one connection.

Ulea communicating with you through this vessel speaking the words and we are able to communicate in this way and you may feel the words are within your own awareness, within your own thought patterns within you.

Indeed, because of your connection, you are receiving in this way. It is the cosmic conscious communication you are aware of.

Now you must reconnect all of this into your physicality and you do this by being aware of the soles of your feet, the palms of your hands in communication with the energy matrix existing throughout your natural kingdom on this planet. So, become aware that you are fully connected into your energetic form surrounding your physicality and within it and through it.

Be aware now as you open your eyes and take in a breath that you are fully connected into the current time and day as you know it to be and that connects you correctly into the dimensional portals available to you, bringing in that energy field deeply into you. Thank you.

Ulea out “

And so this session is complete through the Omega Communications Portal at this time.

From my heart to you - Lani speaking -

Love and Light to you 🍷
