Session 1033

Date: August 27, 2020

Time 10 am

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Lani speaking to you.

Begin by consciously identifying yourself and connecting with your Galactic Light Being Presence - a Being of Light - in the current body form you have, and then allow your current body form to be relaxed and at peace and your light body form can gather into the receiving area of this Station of Light.

We are again called to be in this dimensional space and, accordingly, I relax and open myself, my consciousness, to allow the energy and information to come through to us all.

“Indeed, we are with you here, Beloved, and you are in the presence of the Galactic Federation of Light Beings here.

I am the spokesperson for this group consciousness addressing you, known to you as Orem.

As we begin this session today, again you will feel dropping away from you in this space you have entered into, many of the restrictions or misinformation or other energy systems that had been accumulated around you in your journeying through your daily life experiences. They may be important for you in your current physical experience of life, but in this space they are not part of the higher existence that you have and from your original point of existence from Source Creation.

In this way you are being correctly identified and reconnected again into that pure element of creation, so the aspects that may have been disturbing you cannot exist in this pure aspect of creation. In this pure aspect of creation, as you connect with your original purpose for presenting yourself into a physical body into a physical planetoid on whatever dimensional level that is, then you bring in the higher aspects - the potential that is often referred to.

Do you feel this? Do you feel you are again absorbing an energy field that you have correctly attuned yourself to again in this space?

Currently the Earth Station is going through many changes and different alignments of different patterns and portals, and so in effect, there are many identities, many species, of you who are identifying with specific creations that they want to manifest and some of those are not in accordance with the higher pattern of evolution.

When you correctly identify your point of origin - and for some of you it will be a particular galaxy, or space, or form - then you are naturally in tune with the highest point of evolution. That was your mission in coming to Earth.

It is perhaps identified in your mind as a very highly evolved purpose and this is for you to realise that you are being pulled into alignment, into a correct placement and alignment, above some of the normal resistances and that layer referred to which is not of that higher pure evolutionary system.

Having re-established this with you now, we are also calling you forth into a greater gathering of Beings and here you will be aware of different organizations, different collectives, here who are observing current situations occurring on planet Earth, and also observed of course are the different individuals who are waiting to come forth in another leadership aspect, or perhaps there is a change in some form of authority or training. In many aspects all through the countries and satellites existing of planet Earth as you know it, within and around, there are adjustments occurring. By your presence in this state and your alignment with the reconfiguring which is coming through the highest potential grid systems, you will be aware that this energy will be filtering through into the greater consciousness matrix field surrounding all.

Initially, you could be identifying how this energetic matrix is reconfiguring your individual physicality energy field and many of you are experiencing sensations of being adapting to something different. Be aware that it is a higher adaptation to the higher evolved configuration - the blueprint - which is being reconfigured to help you exist in the higher evolved state of existence, even consciousness as existence in you and through you. Some of you may be experiencing various symptoms physically or energetically through you and this will help you understand it is part of your adjustment to the higher energy state of consciousness.

To assist you in this adjustment, continue your intentionality of being reconfigured in accordance with the higher aspect of creation. You may visualize that in different ways. We have referred you to visualization of an energy pod, an energy sphere, an energy beam, all of which is part of your current existence in the higher evolved state - your point of origin existence - which continues to exist. It is always there. You emitted, you descended from that, into various isolated states of existence in particular forms to assist in the stabilization of areas of existence, or the potential to be unfolded as a place of light which would support Beings who are in that process of evolutionary cycles to bring in the higher consciousness state of existence.

Naturally as part of that, there is the continuation of the breakdown of some organisms - you see it in plant life - you see it in all organisms - and so you would be aware of that. You would also be aware that there is continual adaptation to environmental changes existing everywhere and this is why we bring to your attention when you focus on the higher evolved evolutionary state and environment, you naturally are adapting to that higher field of energy, not that which is still part of the lower denseness.

This was necessary to bring this to your attention and for you to understand some of the sensations you may have been experiencing in and through your physical and energetic body as it has been existing and you are stepping into that altered, higher dimensional field of existence containing that higher potential.

Continuing your presence in this higher gathering of beings, there are many who come forward to identify you and who come to connect with you again, as part of this strengthening of your connections and the strengthening of what you are achieving in your current physicality existence. In that way, assistance is being given to you. Are you receiving it? Are you allowing that energy field to fill you as you maintain your presence in the gathering? That is the initial step required.

Then these Beings who are familiar to you bring you back into the initial receiving area of the Station - the transition space - all the while they are assisting you to integrate what you have experienced here in this space.

Do you experience the joyful sharing of that energy frequency that you resonate with as part of all those who are known to you, and you resonate with them? They could have come from your original place of existence, in support of you. They may also be reflected in Beings who support you in your physical appearance, and be aware also of the supporting field that we envelop you in from this Station of Light, which envelops Earth, remembering of course, that people identify with other desires, other places, so it is your intention of aligning your energy self to the higher resonating field of energy that will help you correctly align to everything that you need to fulfil you in your presence in the current journey of experience.

This is all with you and so we withdraw at this time

Orem out “

Lani speaking again, and thank you Orem and all of those Beings and I thank You - the individual - who has come forward receiving this in this particular session.

Remember, what you have experienced in this session also contains everything else that has come forward through this vehicle - this Station of Light - in every other session, because your consciousness expands to receive everything that is contained in this area. You may remember in earlier sessions, you established an area in this receiving aspect of the Station that you could physically reconnect with that contained everything for you. Perhaps you identify that again now.

All of this is part of you and all of this reconnection and the download of the higher integration of the higher energy blueprint is within you and this is what you bring forward now integrating it into your physical form. It is, in my view, as if we step forward into that higher existence, so of course in our thoughts that means stepping away from the old patterns, stepping into the new alignment and energy field.

I have enjoyed bringing this particular session through at this time and I remind you now to take in a deep breath of light, of that resonating energy, and make sure you fully fill yourself with this energy and feel you have been renewed in some way - in every energy aspect of your physicality - into the atoms - into sub-atomic particles that exist, as if you are a giant galactic solar systems, that sometimes we feel is just space - and you are that.

Thank you for being here.

I give my love and light to you all as I close this session through the Omega Communications Portal.
