Gathering of Light Beings - #7

August 21, 2020

6.15 am

This is Lani speaking.

I have the very strong impression of a big gathering of people - Beings - and so we begin.

As you open your awareness you will be aware of this and so you are immediately in the gathering.

“Greetings to you at this time.

We have assembled you together as there becomes another field of energy around you which you will realise is to initiate within you a coordination of many of you who have recognized your agreement to work together for the overall upliftment of consciousness of Beings on planet Earth.

As well as this occurrence and the coordination happening, you will be aware that many of the areas that have been defined as separate locations, perhaps identified for you as separate planets, you will realise that all of these are grouped as one collective consciousness field and because you are immersed in this energy field which goes beyond linear time, you will also be aware that there are many different aspects of you - your individual aspect of consciousness - existing in parallel dimensions and realities, as you would describe these to be as life experiences. Many of these different aspects of you existing in other planet areas and other galactic areas.

At this time with the coordination there is a gathering of many of you who have come through and have aligned with other galactic portals, just as you will know, you came through the solar portal known as your sun, and that gives you access to similar solar portals in other galactic areas.

In this way you have a greater understanding of this coordinated effort and effect of Beings coming through around you and around the gathering of you all and the gathering of all the consciousness known as the galaxy, the aspect of which you are within on one planet named Earth.

Understanding this gives you the realisation of the fulness that conscious creation brings forward through you in the present.

The coordinated effect of all of you is bringing through a higher level of energy systems supporting you and you may be sensing that also this is coming through as a clearing type energy field. Identify that in your own phrases in your own language. We are identifying it to you in this way as a clearing field of energy throughout you, so you must realise this is around you and through you as your individual Galactic Being Self here and as you see that working through all of the aspects of you each, it encompasses the energetic field of Creation.

This is for you on this current Earth planet as it exists in this dimensional existence at this time and as you know, the dimensional existence is shifting. Your dimensional existence is shifting through areas of that dimensional field which continues to expand into your consciousness, into your conscious energy field.

This is all overseen by the advanced consciousness of which we are part, we are an aspect of that presenting all of this to you, to all of the aspects of you and you are participating in this overall clearing and coordination experience.

You will feel this expanding through you, around you, in every aspect.

This remains in your consciousness field, your energetic field of that which you identify as yourself and we identify this as your Galactic Being present, participating in this coordination and clearing.

This is the purpose of this Gathering, for this to be revealed to you

And thus it is done.”

Thank you. This is Lani speaking.

So now it is up to each one of us to keep the sense of this which has been presented within our heart and mind - within what we recognize as our life.

Bring this all within you and the sense of you.

I was left with the sense of appreciation for us allowing ourselves to be gathered to receive and to participate in this very powerful expansion experience.

Thank you

Lani
