Session 1035

Date: September 10, 2020

Time 8.30 am

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Lani with you again, helping you to orient yourself, your focus, your attention, into the greater state of consciousness and that which we identify as your galactic body of light. Resonate with the higher energy fields that you bring through into your physical body and also resonate with the higher dimensional energy fields of information. Now feel that you have been drawn into this receiving area within the Station of Light.

Are you here? Are you perceiving what is around you? Are you seeing this? Are you feeling that you are present in a gathering of Beings? I know that you are here with me and with others.

This is how we begin this session today.

“Welcome Galactic Beings, travelers through time and dimension in existence.

This is how we acknowledge you in this space today, Orem addressing you as usual and this is a gathering space which you and we created in a different state of consciousness for you to regather your infinite energy system, bringing it all into what you know as you in this current lifetime in the present dimensional intersections of creation. This you are within. You are part of that creation.

Many times in the humanoid body you have forgotten this prime energy presence that you are and so we created this space for you to come into to remember, to regather those aspects of your infinite state of consciousness and here you are. This is the present moment of existence within existence, within creationism, within the cosmic consciousness that you are. Everything is here with you now.

In the dimensional separation as Earth had become its own individual entity, this was when you came forward into this particular current aspect of creation of you, to help organize and be part of the accessible informational system which acknowledges that there is the underlying essence of creation and this is coming forward as illumination - as light - as existence as light. Involved in the revelation of light illumination and being revealed, you undertook to dissolve within the light many aspects of creation that in a sense you might have termed are not part of that centralized consciousness of light. You have been doing this until you realised that they were just areas that needed more of this essential aspect of creation.

As we deliver these words to you and the energy with the words, again you will be experiencing aspects within your own energy system that are receiving this light and the light is activating the energetic processes involved in your physicality energy field to repattern, to dissolve those areas that were needing this essential higher existence of light - the higher patterning - the codes.

This is a continuation of the sessions previously you have been experiencing, so as you adjust your energy frequency and you are opening the intelligent analysis processes to receive the full knowing, then you realise more of what is coming forward to you in this quantum field of consciousness, embracing all that has evolved around you in your existence - the accumulation of what had experienced in patterns of other aspects of you and currently still existing in that overlaying field of energy systems. You have been working to reveal the clear pathway through those energy systems as you resonate back with the original point of consciousness where you existed in your original form of created consciousness. This is another way of delivering to you that reconnection to your original point of existence - your point of origin.

Again, you may be experiencing a stronger alignment reconnection. It does appear sometimes in your consciousness field that there are layers - that you are moving through layers into the actual central point of existence, and so it is, gathering to you again, that encoded sequence that is necessary for you in the current existence. If it is necessary for you, it is necessary for all of the Earth field existence - the Beings present in the current existence and many of those reflect aspects that you have experienced.

Also within the greater consciousness field surrounding Earth are the higher evolved patterns that you have existed as and you are drawing all of that information field into you as a conduit for that to come in to align Earth station again into that higher patterning of existence. Earth is placed where it is in a sequence of dimensional shifts and these respond to the activation of different fields of consciousness and you are part of those fields of consciousness.

So, when you realise the quantum of all of this, then you realise you are part of the Galactic consciousness existence and you are radiating an energetic field of support.

Here you may find this is interesting in a quantum level because if you are radiating on a quantum consciousness level to all that exists around the Earth, you are doing that to you. You are part of that quantum consciousness field. We are all existing as part of this quantum consciousness field. Resonate with that. Expand into that. As part of this you may be experiencing a shift in aspects of what you might term energy fields. You may feel that there are darker energy fields that are dissolving away within this quantum connection, within this quantum field of consciousness. It is not defined as one or two or multi. It is what it is, purely, in existence, in this quantum field. Experience this.

If you are on Earth to manifest new creations, these concepts will be surfacing within you and around you and you will be finding that there are new ways to present yourself and your concepts and your creations into this quantum field of existence known in your current terms as light cities, of the higher evolved civilisations within that energy field system. Experience this.

Experience the way that you will be existing within it. You still have the essential form necessary to exist in everything that is of the planet Earth in its general atmosphere, in its energy patterns and so you will still be needing nourishment, needing specific activities as you continue in a community, the communal existence within the quantum existence of all that is and all of this is expanding within your entire energy field.

Allow it to respond and activate and enliven the blueprint - the quantum blueprint for life - the blueprint - the concept which contains the blueprint. You are surrounded in this galactic quantum field of all support, upliftment.

You are now restored to awareness of being within the receiving area known more fully to you now as the transition space as you transited through dimensional fields to access this quantum field with you in this aspect where you are, still fully connected within that higher evolved aspect of you of that quantum field of consciousness.

And thus it is.

Orem out “

Lani again speaking with you and again Ulea is present. There is such a great field of - I can only describe it as joy - that flows out amongst all of us. Are you experiencing that? What else is the quantum field but that pure essence? We can only use our words to describe it as Light and energy and being informed with it all.

“You have been ready for this - every one of you. You knew, you held in your consciousness field this dimensional connection, the intersection of many dimensions. As was referred to in the beginning of this session, you created this in this absolute quantum field. In this way I, Ulea, honour you and acknowledge you for your creation and for allowing us within the Station to use the Station of Light to assist you to reconnect with all of this. Retain it within you.

Now together we bring you back to bring this into your physical aspect as you know it, this energetic unit that has the form that is appropriate to exist on the Earth planet as it is evolving and changing, as you, your body form is evolving and changing. Your reconnection is assisting all of this process. Acknowledge this within you.

Ulea out “

Thank you. I perceive Ulea withdrawing and I acknowledge and give my appreciation to Orem as well as all of us in this quantum field which I am bringing back into my physical body, even as I am addressing you, as you bring it all into your physical body. Be aware of the changes, be aware of the creations you want to manifest, be aware of changes in the civilization in accordance with this quantum field. In my awareness I feel it has eliminated many discordant patterns. You may be sensing it in some other way, it is all with you.

Now bring your attention back into the present moment, as we measure time.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal. Thank you.

Love and Light to you Lani ❤️
