“Greetings to you. This is Orem welcoming you into this dimensional existence again as you continue to explore the levels of consciousness and you allow yourself to absorb the energy sphere that you have available to you in a continual way and that energy sphere you brought into existence from your original point of existence in creation.

All of this again is with you. You are within that individual sphere of all potential that is available to you to access in your current daily existence. This energy sphere we refer to has been with you everywhere in every existence where you are, have been and will be. This is one of the prime messages that we are bringing forth for you to realise in this current presentation today where you are receiving this and every day in that day that you may receive this.

It is always and has been and is, so what we do for you to facilitate this for you to realise, is to open the accessways, or perhaps you say the portals, to understand where you have come from into your current locality existence on the planetary sphere named Earth.

You have begun this type of session multiple times in multiple dimensions, but in the focus where you are receiving this particular issuance, it is important for you to access all that is contained within that sphere of potential which you are bringing in around you and you realise this is you, potentially presenting information and energy into the greater network of communication around the planet, around you.

Extend your vision and perception to understand this - that you are not actually localized as one particular point that could be identified in equations, but you are enhancing and embracing the entire network of the planet, because that is your aspect of consciousness - of the quantumness of you localized so that you can present that quantumness of existence into the reality that you identify with firstly and then into the multiple reality dimensions.

You are clearing, you are constantly clearing and upgrading energy communication networks and the communication networks are not those you use in your technology, but they are in your quantum connections.

You may visualise from this that you are like the central communication device and you are receiving and broadcasting. You are interlinking many of the consciousness fields that you exist in and so there is the potential from your particular sphere of existence to connect in that cosmic quantumness and in that quantum consciousness field is the enlightened civilization state. Many of you are seeking to be within and to manifest the quantum civilization state, upholding a greater order of upliftment and support of all.

You already exist in this state and yet you still need to refine your focus and to embrace yourself within that quantum support level of existence. As you do that, you find presented to you opportunities, offers, expansion of the idealistic potential that you have inherent within you and you find the manifestation of many of those higher principles of existence to be there already with you, in every respect.

Now, as we continue further in this presentation to you today, you will be aware of the presence of the Council of Light who oversee the civilization existence where you have placed yourself within, where you have offered yourself as the portal to bring in the manifestation of that civilisation. The Council of Light oversees this.

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

This is Lani, presenting the energy and information and I open the Omega Communications Portal to you so that you will feel comfortable again coming on an inner journey with me, and to begin this journey all you need to do is close your eyes, take in a deep breath and as you let it out you will feel your body deeply relax. It is as if you can leave your body comfortably where it is, and allow your consciousness, or what we term your body of light, to come into the receiving area of the Station of Light.

It is as simple as that to be present in the altered dimensional existence which is the Station of Light and where it is in multi layers, multi dimensions. Are you with me here? Are you aware you have come into the transition space?

This is how we begin today.

They oversee many of what you report in your alignment sessions where you reconnect into the highest point of your origination existence. The Council of Light is always aware of that and of the data that you present into your quantum presence and realization. Arising from that, there are adjustments made as areas are enlightened, as areas receive a greater light pattern which is alignment with the ongoing expansion of consciousness and civilization into greater dimensions. It is available now to you and within you.

In this way you will feel it is a new presentation to you and you are already responding to this, in your presence here and as the link exists with your physicality presence, you are feeling that within that presentation of you.

This is the prime energy transference to you in this session. Feel the alignment. Feel that expansion within you. You could liken it to being attuned to a new wavelength and you are receiving that. It is recognized by you, by the quantumness that is you, in the quantum field that you have resonated with in a particular vector of connection.

Bringing this back into your awareness within this transition space within the Station of Light, you will also be aware that this is very closely connected to that aspect that you recognize as your physicality beingness, and so it is already being integrated into all levels of your existence and this is what was required by you for this presentation.

We withdraw now

Orem out“

“And so it is.

Ulea here with you presenting myself in this way through this vessel to you and as always, I am able to be very closely connected to you in your physicality unit. This is often why I am with you, helping you to integrate this into you, not only in your current physicality presentation, but also in those multiple experiences of reality in other dimensions which you exist in and which you are receiving in all of those dimensions.

Remember, as a by-product of this - you will understand that phrase - all of those aspects of you are receiving this upliftment in this quantum coherent field. You are realizing this in this moment and this also is what I am helping you to bring into your physicality, in every way, in every dimension.

As you feel this happening, I also withdraw

Ulea out“

Lani again - thanking Ulea, Orem and the Council of Light - and thanking you in all of your dimensional existences. It is fascinating, it is mind-expanding in itself when you realise the quantumness of your presence.

It is now time for you to take in a deep breath, and as you let it out, be aware of your location, be aware of your body and your energy field and perhaps you might feel it is more complete, it has contained, or it has received a new aspect through this particular transmission.

Work with this, allow it to expand throughout all of your thoughts, your energy field, all of the layers that you are. It will be having an effect - perhaps strengthening, clarifying, energizing in some way and it is you who has drawn this into you, to facilitate some aspect of creation that you are involved in. Perhaps it is just simply to be feeling happy and joyful and that goes out into the quantum field of existence particularly around this planet we are on.

This concludes this session today through the Omega Communications Portal and again I end this with love and appreciation and light to you. Thank you.

Lani
