Session 1039

Date: October 8, 2020

Time 9.15 am

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

This is Lani presenting this to you and as I invite you to join me in the Station of Light, you need to be somewhere comfortable as you are receiving this, so that your body can relax and your mind can be open beyond analysis, beyond belief so you can move into that state of trust and acceptance, and you can analyse it all later.

Just for now, be present in that greater consciousness aspect of you that we can refer to as your light body and be aware that you are with others gathered in the receiving area of the Station of Light.

Here we begin today.

“Welcome and I greet you. Orem greeting you in this moment as I present the energy field you are surrounded in, in this Station of Light and at this particular conjunction of many of the dimensional realities that you can often relate to and interpret as different aspects of you and your life journey experiences.

When we say this is the intersection, we indicate to you that there have been many courses, many life journeys and changes and opportunities presented to the Earth planet and the Beings who bring light and joy into it to experience a particular dynamic shift in the position. We have spoken about the planetoid shifting its position particularly in the range of consciousness fields, or those fields you refer to as dimensional fields and they have been numbered or given particular colours to indicate different fields. We continue to advise you that there is no definite delineation or definition of these particular fields. They are all embraced within the quantum consciousness state of existence.

The differences are apparent due to your focus and your belief systems and the areas, or particular beings you follow who indicate certain states of existence where they are relating to and bringing energy and information through to you or to other individuals, through them, for themselves and for the existence and this is all very relevant to different aspects of creation.

From the quantum consciousness examination you understand the different aspects that are present all around you. So, indeed you are able to address yourself in a particular way where you would most resonate with in that quantum dimensional existence.

In saying this to you, the words will be again strengthening your alignment to your point of original existence and this is part of the greater quantumness of you and it is also that which is Creation. The emphasis again is on you bringing all of this creationism into your organism, into your bio-organic unit that you are in your physical presentation in your current focused dimension of existence.

We are offering you the opportunity again, as you are surrounded in this quantum field here, the energy of clarification of the many aspects, the many systems, the many coherent intersecting pathways of you as the physicality unit and you as this energy dimensional field present here. It is all one, but we understand where your focus is in your physicality, it is necessary to integrate all of this into that unit so that you function in that coherent field of resonance with the quantum energy.

Now, the quantum consciousness contains potential, it contains all patterns of existence, so you are realizing more and more that the control you have is not over any thing, but it is over your focused intention into what you are achieving as you bring in the resonating field of the potential of your original point of existence. Many times you will be feeling you are repeating the same aspect, the same presentation, the same purpose. This is so, for in the potential in that energy field, your sphere of existence of your original point of creation, you had that original purpose and mission. Are you responding to this again in this presentation? Feel it all around you.

We refer again to clearance, to clarification, which includes your realisations on many of the situations you are in, of what the outer world reflects to you, which is part of the ongoing assistance within you and around you.

We also understand in this present moment the programs that have been part of your concepts and the programs also have been built upon from civilisations' programs and how many of the Beings who wanted to control people installed specific programs in the way current people think, in the thought patterns that exist and these had been compromised by programs that many times could have over-written your original programming or the set of codes and your purpose and mission. So, all of our sessions with you have been helping you to step aside from that layer of alternate programming and that is part of the clearance presented to you, so that you restore again to every aspect of you the original purpose and mission and the codes contained in that energy that you brought forth from that time.

So, we perhaps have given you more understanding of what that concept and the sphere of energy that you brought in around you contained for you, as part of the clearance and the upgrade. The upgraded blueprint for your energy systems is part of this restoration of the original codes for you.

You will be seeing this manifesting around the countries as different high ranking officials begin to speak about the true realities of such controlling programs that have been put in place and you now are being presented with, you might say, unusual perceptions from some of the people who have a controlling voice, an outspoken voice. Again you will find that this will be filtered so you need to restore back to you your original perceptions and your senses which allow you to interpret what is really said and how what is being said, the intention is to reveal to you that programming, so again it is a clearance happening around the planet. This must occur as part of the shift into the greater expanded consciousness field, as Earth was intended to be existing as.

So, here you are, realizing the effect you are having within the world, simply because you have become clear of implanted programs of civilization and you have restored to you the original codes of your mission as your quantum galactic self. You have brought this into many fields of civilisations, so you may experience yourself as a different lifeform in a different way as all of the clearness becomes part of your natural existence again.

You will also become aware of more of the galactic beings you work with, because part of the clearance allows you to see them and to be participating with them in a greater collaboration for this clearance and upliftment and reinstatement of Earth back into its prime position in the galactic field of existence. Indeed, Earth is part of this quantum consciousness field of existence.

You may take into you all of this in the way of light. Light is energy. Light contains information patterns for you, so you are being informed on a multi level in this deliverance. Earth, too, is being informed on multi levels and all of this is being received by the civilisations present in the dimensions within and around the planet.

This is all for your assistance and upliftment in this phase you are experiencing, Beloved. This concludes my presentation to you in this session

Orem out “

“You are restored to your awareness of being in the initial receiving space in the Station of Light.

Ulea presenting this to you, surrounding you in this field of light, energy, information and you will be feeling already the clearness. Perhaps some of you have been feeling there has been a cloud lifted off you. That is the energy, that is the assistance given to you in this presentation and it will bring into your understanding the purpose of these sessions - these multi-dimensional energy presentations around you.

The continuation of them. If you are visual person, you might see yourself in this Station here, but you might also see echoes going back in a spiral, because that is part of evolution - a spiral - and you will see multi-levels, the multi changes within the presentations.

Stabilize yourself in the present in preparation for all of this to be integrated into your physicality. I withdraw now

Ulea out “

Lani again speaking, with my gratitude to Ulea and Orem and all of the Beings in this quantum consciousness field of existence.

This has been a big shift again, a big clearance, so you will be understanding this as you now come back into your physicality, which has been described to you of what that is - your galactic energy self in this current humanoid body you have. Treat it well. Love it well. Accept it well. Accept this life you have created because you are a creator, but also accept that you have that ability to change what needs to be changed and you brought that in with your energy sphere from your original point of existence, your point of origin. Take in a deep breath now and bring your focus back into your current reality, in your body in the time and place where you are receiving this on all levels of your being.

Thank you. This concludes this journey this day through the Omega Communications Portal. Be fully grounded, be fully present in that expanded energy field that is you and it is your energy field that is recognized by other Beings.
