Session 1041

Date: October 22, 2020

Time 10.30 am

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

This is Lani with you for this experience.

All that is required of you is to allow yourself to shift your focus of attention away from your physical body and environment and into another dimension of existence, which already is around you, but we have a focus point to gather in the receiving area of the Station of Light.

So, as you breathe in Light and Love and Joy and you breathe out the material existence around you, then you realise you are already in the gathering space in the Station of Light, where you are stationed.

This is how we begin today and I call on Commander Orem to come and address us.

“Greetings Beloved. Orem addressing you indeed, as I address you and perceive you as a point of consciousness in the quantum consciousness field of existence and within that field of existence you are within experience and your experience has drawn you to this point of gathering in this session and beyond that.

Whilst you are present, focused in this existence in this presentation around you, your quantum existence is within every other visitation to this presence into this Station. Even if you are new to these gatherings, your point of consciousness in the quantumness of you currently here has engaged all the previous visitations to the Station. Therefore, if you go back to listen to and experience any of the previous sessions, you will feel yourself engaged in what is presented to you, but in a very multi-dimensional way, for all exists in the quantum presentation.

We have begun this way, this experience, in your presentation here so that you realise that everything is contained in the present as you are present and focused in the present. Focus not elsewhere. The present is where you are drawing into you everything that you are resonating with at this moment as you are here in your presence. This includes the ultimate awareness of your mission, of your purpose of your presentation into the planet Earth experience and everything that is required for you. Therefore, you may be experiencing as these words are presented to you, energy shifting around you and within you.

Already you are adjusting to the energy field that you are resonating with here and adjustments will be occurring within your energy vortices throughout your energy system which is around and within your physical systems. Understanding this in the quantum reality that you are in also will manifest for you in the physicality the adjustments necessary.

You are being recalibrated to tune into the frequency patterns which are coming through the solar portal to you. In the previous transmission the solar portal was also drawn to you for you to realise that this exists within you in the centre of you, the solar portal plexus within you and the surrounding areas within the physical body. This is how you are physically and energetically receiving the higher frequency pattern and the energy of this has codes and in those codes are the particular activities necessary for your body form to be upgraded and the upgrading sequences enable you to remain in a state of vitality and awareness above all of the changes and discussions and events which take place in the physical denseness of the planetoid - the physical planet that you are on.

You will realise of course there is the energy dimensional frequency pattern of the planetoid named Earth. As you expand your consciousness into the quantumness, you also are engaging the quantum energy field that is the planet. Are you perceiving a dropping away from you of certain thoughts and ideas that you held regarding the planet and the systems upon it, the civilisations upon it? As you engage yourself within the quantum dimensional field you are also making it appear more strongly into you. You facilitate the portal that presents the individuals to you and those individual existences are all about the higher energy field manifested already. You are supported in that already. There are higher aspects of your consciousness field that support you in all of your activities, especially when you remember to call upon that higher aspect of you that exists always as the original point of your existences, of Creation. That manifested out of the quantum essential creation field.

This was the way that we can present it to you in this way without labelling it, which if we label it in your languages you are confined, you are limited by how you perceive the known label to you. So, already you have established a higher field of existence for you, necessary for you as you have been promoting the energy field around you to establish the higher order.

You will also realise, of course, as we refer to multi times Councils of Light and there are groups of those. The Council of Light focused here through this Station around you is supporting you, is evaluating what you bring in every time you visit the Station. You are bringing data in that you collect consciously and on multi levels of consciousness and that is analysed and understood by the Council of Light and they in turn are reflecting back to you the appropriate energy field which you can resonate with and which you can then bring back into the environment around you.

Have you been noticing the shifting energy in the environment around you, in the energy field we are referring to specifically, because we keep reminding you that you are an energy form and the energy form has taken on the humanoid form that is appropriate for you as you mix with people as you anchor in the quantum consciousness and awareness everywhere around you and through you. Continuing to realise this and allow that to be will be supporting the changes that are revitalising your physical unit, regenerating it, clearing it and you will realise you must allow that to take place and allow yourself to adapt to the changes in concepts, the changes in what you bring into your body form and around it. That is you choosing to identify with the high evolved state of existence. In this way you, in a sense, are creating a separate civilization and community. This is part of the resonating field and the support of this connects you in multi-dimensional ways to other Beings around the planet also involved in realizing their quantumness. You could say it is an intelligence, it is aware, you are aware, you are intelligent. You are aware of shifts in energy fields.

You will be aware of the presence of Beings from other dimensions supporting you, coming forward, making themselves known to you and others around the planet. They exist always. As you expand your consciousness field, you raise your vibration to a frequency where they appear to you, then you have the sense that suddenly they appear around you, whereas it is you who has allowed your vibration to raise to where your frequency matches those and they come into your awareness in that way as you enter into that energetic communication field.

There is ongoing work, if you would call it work - energy exchanges - happening throughout the planet, ongoing balancing, ongoing effective shifts. Therefore, it is important for you to align yourself on a daily basis, especially when you return into consciousness after sleep and you orient yourself back into the form, realizing that it is your higher consciousness that is orienting itself into the environment and bringing in the new form. You could be creating a new environment, the new dimension existing around you. That is the potential that is within the quantum aspects of you. This is my presentation to you at this time, Beloved.

Orem out “

“Coming forward to you in this space, I am known as AnTur and I am here bringing your focus and attention back into the initial gathering space in this Station, in this dimensional field that supports you.

I am also representing part of the constellation gatherings within you and this is known in your many fields of information as part of the Galactic Federation. It is in effect all of that contained within your words and your knowledge of the Starfield Fleet and that Starfield Fleet is part of multi constellations that you are aware of in that visual space you see as darkness comes around where you are living, in the night sky.

We are present and we come forward as part of the greater initiation of you to come more strongly into being aware of the presence of the quantum aspects of you, as you have been realised and confirmed in the many sessions you have had in this way.

This I needed to confirm to you.

AnTur out “

Lani speaking again, back with you in this space and I bring all of that energy field into my awareness as I now tell you it is time to bring all of it back into your physical surroundings, into this life you have created, enhancing it with what you have experienced. Also, I am aware that Ulea is with me as we bring the awareness back into the current time date scenario that we exist in and use.

This concludes this session through the Omega Communications Portal. Many thanks to all of these Star Beings and to You. Thank you.

Lani
