Session 1043

Date: November 5, 2020

Time 10 am

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Lani speaking to assist you in this process of settling the mind and body so that in essence the higher consciousness of you - generally I call this the light body - can be immediately in the presence, in that dimensional energy state and existence of the receiving area of the Station of Light.

Are you ready to receive and acknowledge and allow the energy shift to take place, as your consciousness expands more with each visitation into this space?

“Welcome into this space, Beloved, each and every one of you.

I am known as Orem addressing you and as you consciously enter into this space, you are already aligning with more of the aspects of you which you allow to be integrated into you. This is what we are referring to as your quantumness - your quantum consciousness - your quantum conscious self - and this essence of you, this recognition of self of you, is what is required to bring in a balancing energy in you, through you, around you and into the connected consciousness that is known as the Earth time space reality in this current aspect, in this current life journey of you as you are present.

Acknowledge that you are present in multi dimensions, in multi realities which, of course, indicates you are present in many forms and so everything that you are receiving now which is where your present focus is, is being emanated out to all of the other aspects of you in those multiple dimensional existences, or the multi realities as you have come to know them. The recognition of this brings you into the opportunities for balance to occur.

Many of you may have been aware of imbalances and a regular need to come into a balanced point, or in a point of resonance with a higher focused aspect, or your quantum consciousness, the origin point of you as you as an individual aspect, and as you do connect into that directly, you immediately come into balance. From the balanced point there is the resonating effect with the higher level and what you call constructs in your physical reality. In this way there is the appearance of manifestation of something appearing before you, which would be in response to a need, or a passionate attraction point that you hold in your images in your awareness.

Again we say, when you are completely connected to the quantumness of you, that is the highest aspect and many of you are familiar with journeying into different aspects that you have existed as and in so doing, there is a clear pathway promoted and provided so that what you resonate with is the very clear image, the very clear creation, in accordance with that greater energy field of you.

Even as this is being presented to you, are you aware of clearances happening around you in your energy field perhaps in your current location and environment? Remember that the more you focus on your presence, clearing your energy field and resonating with the core essence of Creation, then you are harmonizing what is around you, like a ripple going out in a pond, all around the connected quantum network of consciousness that is known within the Earth field.

Within the Earth's gravitation field that you are all familiar with, there are multi connections in multi layers of energy dimensions, energy fields. You might feel that you have come into your body form to clear the very dense patterns of accumulated experiences. You could be working on that level for your entire lifetime - or, you could choose to be in the resonant energy pattern with the core energy creation of that quantumness of you originally created from the core energy essence of creation. You are free to choose. Your thoughts and your intention will directly align you into various layers of creation. Always our intention is to keep you attuned to and resonating with the very highest point of Creation.

There is a purpose behind that. The purpose is the intention to allow you to be the focus to connect in with the high level above the Earth's gravitational field into the outer layers of consciousness field, into the quantum consciousness field of Creation. So, here we are bringing you again into the recognition that many of you who may identify you as Starseeds and otherwise all of you, are connected into the starfield consciousness - the dynamic collectiveness of quantum consciousness throughout existence.

Allow this to expand you and you will not get lost in any misinterpretations, in fact you will be resonating more strongly with the core energy quantum creation field.

In this way also, you are being recalibrated so that you are in the upgraded formation that quickly connects with many of the Beings of the Galactic Federation supporting the Beings relating to the planetoid named Earth, or what some of you named Gaia - it is a reflection of the name that has been formulated for you to identify with, and so it is known throughout all of the greater consciousness field. The intention is there - the concept of it is there. In initiating your connection into that greater galactic consciousness there are opportunities for you to be receiving information, support, guidance from that greater field of connectedness that has come forward to, in the sense, energetically expanding your consciousness, uplifting you into the higher field of existence of manifestation.

As you are aware, all of your presentations into this energy field in this ongoing way is assisting you. You may not realise that many of the experiences that you have gone through in the life journey, have remained with you as a collection of energy systems which intentionally, or unintentionally, disturb your inherent energy field which should be in coherence and resonating clearly with the higher, pure aspect and in your presentation and receiving this energy, you have the opportunity to be clear of all of those disturbances. We continue to take you in your consciousness field back through your life journey into the moment of your birth, in whatever way that occurred, and before that into the clear pattern of consciousness, the quantumness, the clear pattern, allowing you again to reconnect that into you as you emerged through the birthing process, renewing the initial agreement and purpose for you presenting yourself into this current Earth time phase. Thus you are prepared, you are energized, for the processes occurring now around you, throughout you, within you. This is necessary again for you in this presentation, in this present, where all is present, of the quantumness.

By that, we refer to the essence that we know and that you recognize, is clear, is pure, is strong.

You may have a sense as you are enveloped in the presence of those of us here within the Station of Light, you are clearly reorganising, making adjustments, assisting in many of the commissioned groups present and it is all to do with the foundation of the quantum light being activated more strongly within you. Yes, indeed, there are layers to the activations, because there are layers to do with your consciousness, or your energy field. You will continue to be aware of these shifting processes. Therefore, it is necessary to have the intention that it is all about you resonating with the quantum consciousness field - your essence. You may also be aware of many agreements and acknowledgements taking place here between you and others you are connected with in this space. You may also feel the clear energy encompasses other beings to do with your ancestral patterns, your relationship patterns. Acknowledge this as it affects you. It is not that change is being imposed on any other Being. The change and opportunity is presented to you and that is the important aspect of the energy activations and everything which is being facilitated for you. You are the centre of your galactic experience in this quantum light existence. Take this into you now in the many ways that you are sensing it, being it.

I withdraw now

Orem out

“This is Ulea with you in this moment as I am working with you.

You may be perceiving that you are standing within an open portal.

This is how all of this energy is presented to you and how you align very clearly with the resonating principle of quantum light available throughout all patterns of creation.

This is the way that I assist you now to return all of this great consciousness that you are, into the physicality, the complete energy aspect of it that you recognize as your Beingness on the planet in this present moment. You are acknowledged as that.

Ulea out

This is Lani again, acknowledging and giving my appreciation to everything that we have been receiving in this session. Much more has taken place for each one of us as individuals in this session, going beyond the words. Perhaps you asked questions while you were in the presence of this energy. You can do that each time you re-immers yourself in the sessions. When you feel you are fully in the energy field, that is the time when you put forward your questions for individual answers, unless they have come forward in the words spoken as recorded.

Now is the opportunity for you to bring all of this back into you, into your current time reality phase - the day, the time, the location. That is so important, because in these times when you are in altered dimensions you are out of Earth time gravitational measurement and so you have to come back and connect yourself into the current Earth time. In that way you bring the greater alignment in of the quantum light, the quantum presence.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal. Thank you

Lani
