Time 8.45 am

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Lani speaking to you from my situation, from my little sphere of existence on planet Earth, greeting you wherever you are in your locality, in your special place that you have created for you to be in. So, surround yourself in light, surrounding your body and your space in Light and allow your essence that is your body of light to be with me and others as we gather together in the receiving area of the Station of Light.

It is an easy place to come into and to feel adjustments and to be connected with the Beings on the Station of the Galactic Federation and those ones who assist in helping you and all of us as we fulfil our main purpose for being present on the planet known as Earth at this time.

This is how we begin today.

“Greetings to you. I am known as Orem and I welcome you again to this space. Those of you who are not so familiar with this space - welcome. Allow yourself to embrace the energy and be embraced within the energy field here. As you continue to allow yourself to accept what is here, you will be experiencing letting go of conditions and experiences and conditioning programs that you are often immersed within, in the physical life civilization as it is at the present time. It is important to allow all of that to be disengaged from you as if you do experience this moving through the energy beams that are surrounding you in this space.

That is the purpose of those beams - to clear your energy field as well as the additional purpose of activating the neurolink network that is present in your energy field here. As the neuro network throughout you becomes activated and balanced and also upgraded, then you realise you are fully immersed here and it comes to you many of the more detailed sequence of your activities when you present yourself into this space. This goes through and beyond the actual words presented to you. It is always the energy field that you respond to which activates more processes for you as you become more fully aware of your presence here and your presence in the Galactic Confederation of Beings who moved out from Source Energy into purposeful activation in the zones that you chose to be within.

You chose to be within the Earth zone currently. You also chose to be experiencing other activities, so you are working in a multi dimensional activity. The energy of that will bring you into focus for what you are doing currently in the Earth phase.

This is what the original intention of bringing you into the Station of Light was for - to engage you consciously into the light field process that you are receiving in this moment. Activation. Activation. Presentation. Upgrading the concepts of what you are aware of. Upgrading the energy codes for the systems functioning within your neuro network pathways, the energy field of you and that, of course, encompasses and is part of your physicality existence.

All of this is being more strongly presented to you through the presentation and alignment of the dimensional portals which are activating various segments of information collectively coming through the portals from many different galactic fields of consciousness. These are all words known to you in your common language as you receive this. Remember, we tell you do not be limited by words. Remember, each word and phrase is a concept which embodies many spheres of understanding, realisations, material existences and the presence of the galactic dimensional consciousness field, or the quantum consciousness field of existence.

Let this enhance you, enhancing the current abilities you are aware of, bringing to you the potential again within your quantumness. As this manifests more strongly through you in the Earth plane dimension, this is where the new concepts for the civilization that are appropriate and necessary will come through, through the many ones who are creators. The concepts must come through a greater segment of the Beings collectively known as the conscious light worker beings, so you hold the presence of the quantum re-organisation, the quantum civilization incorporating all of those higher levels within the crystalline light civilisations. In effect, your energy field is responding to that finer crystalline energy process which in simple terms, are the communication levels, communicating, holding the energy essence of it all as it flows in around you.

Individually, you each have the process that is engaged to allow the integration of the energy which is the information to come into you in the unfoldment, in a gentle way so that you easily adapt to the information, which is energy informing you. Allow this to come through you.

A reminder here that it is not your creative imagination, but you are letting the images of creation, of that higher quantum field, to come into you, into the physical part of you, into the life pattern of you.

It is intended that there is a great deal more to be assimilated by the general population. There are more ones coming into the realization that there is a higher field available. It is not possible for this to be received by all levels of the humanoid population simply because their systems are not able to absorb the energy field. This is especially so for those who have chemically interfered with their energy systems. The emphasis has always been to do a chemical detox. It is apparent that those of you who present yourselves into the quantum light field have the type of activity known as detox happening in a continual way, but there are those who are continuing to flood their bodies with manufactured chemicals and that interferes with allowing the quantum light to be absorbed and that is interfering with the expansion of consciousness of those particular beings. Your emphasis really and truly is to allow the quantum light to be activating all of the energy field of you. In that way you are delivering the most appropriate level of existence into what is around you.

You may sense that your energy field after each of these immersive sessions has expanded and you may sense the area of that expansion. That is the importance of absorbing the quantum light - to expand your energy field. That will have an influence upon what is within that energy field. It is an influence. It is an impulse. It is not an order, although in one sense the energy is an ordered energy because it is in the order of conscious creation from Source Energy, in line with your particular purpose, your particular mission.

This is important for you to be realizing at this moment. It is available through the galactic portals through the dimensions that Earth is experiencing more strongly, this alignment and connectivity will continue into the next phase. It is never an exact shut off point, because dimensional fields flow and exist and will adapt to what the individual Beings connect to and draw into them. Even if you hear people say the portals have closed, that's the end of that phase - that is not true in the quantum dimensional existence of consciousness, because you have created the access point for you as an individual and that is aligned with your original point of origin which already contains all of that energy and information. Never feel you are out of step or you are too late or you are a failure. That all belongs to the lower field which is trying to control the field of consciousness of the humanoid population. You are beyond that, you see above that, you connect beyond that.

Bring all of that higher field connection in around you now where you are in the receiving area of the Station, this is for you to assimilate as you continue to experience the activation in the energy pathways around you here in your energy form. This is for you Beloved

Orem out "

"We acknowledge this, Orem. This is Ulea speaking as an individual presence to you, supported with other ones here and there is energy supporting you coming through from the Council of Light in this because this was a very strong expansion of your field that you have been within and it will be moving through your different energetic field and systems which absorb the energy. It is as ongoing process.

It is with the expression of love and joy that this is delivered to you and the love is evolving you and supporting you as you continue to live this evolving process, maintaining you and always needed.

Ulea out "

Thank you, all of the Beings here, Lani speaking again. This appears to be a very quick and short session and yet, I experienced it as it was coming through me as a vast, expansive, journey and it involved more than just the Earth, it involved you in all of your aspects co-existing at this time. Allow all of this energy to be within you now and allow yourself to consciously be present back in your body in your locality. Remember to sense the expansion of your energy field and the extent of that all around you. It is a wonderful sensation as you experience that love that evolves you, as Ulea presented to you.

Bring your focus now back into your current locality, day and time - the present moment.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal. Thank you.

Lani
