Session 1051

Date: December 31, 2020, Thursday

Time 9 am

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Lani speaking to you. How are you on this last day of 2020? Have you allowed yourself to release all of the old things up to this moment - the old programming, the old discomforts in any way, right up to this last day, so that you are free to move easily into the Light of the new calendar year 2021?

I acknowledge you as your Light Being Self, as the Being of You that is the Light and this is what easily enters into the dimension where the Station of Light exists, and so you are already in that state, in that space, out of time and physicality.

“We are with you Loved One. Orem addressing you in this dimensional existence in this space, where in this reality you are indeed present as a Being designed to exist in this dimension. Therefore, you do have a formation which exists easily and flows within this dimension. It is associated with the physical aspect that you exist within on the current Earth space dimension, but when you are present here in this dimension, as you continue to realise that it is an existence as a civilization, you automatically present yourself into the appropriate frequency where you manifest completely and fully.

Have you realised this? Have you realised how far you have evolved - if you speak about distance in relation to the terms that you use? It is the term that we use that we pick up from your presence and from this vessel through whom we address you - the current phrases that are known to you. So - have you now evolved enough to recognize you have moved into this greater aspect as a commissioned Being and part of this is that you gave yourself permission to be present in gatherings such as this to restore to you a greater level of awareness?

We have been assisting you with this many times in all of these journeys and in your own personal dimensional space as you seek to realise who you truly are and the purpose for your presence on Earth.

We continue in this presentation to refer you to the existence within that land mass known as Antarctica. Again, you will be aware of movement happening. Free movement to and from this planet through this particular accessway within this civilization.

Are you one who feels you move in and out of that area? Many of you do have that recognition within you. Many of you presented your energy sphere there in preparation for this awakening within you of this particular aspect of you. The energy sphere that you presented in this general land mass is available to you now to restore the exact frequency pattern that is needed for you as you open up to this expanded dimension of existence, of the reality of this existence, where you are. This may mean to you that you will be presenting yourself more strongly, clearly and freely in the current civilization that you exist in and within the current locality. You were designed to present this extra field of energy and you have now the access, if you haven't accessed it previously, to draw upon the energy from the energy spheres that you brought into the Antarctica land mass. It was and is and will always be a presentation to you of the functions, or you might refer to these as tools, that are needed for you as you unfold into this expanded state of existence.

We recognize that you are calculating all of this in a measurement of your numbered years. It does relate to your awareness, to your intentions and to your recognition of the continual shifting of the orb that you are existing on named planet Earth and as such there is always a form of measurement. In our existence we have a form of measurement and just as you measure your rotational aspect, or the years, we also have a measurement so that we can respond to certain frequencies which intersect and these frequencies relate to dimensional alignments and therefore those dimensional alignments bring in opportunities or new frequencies that you may, or may not, resonate with. You will be resonating with the energy coming through the Antarctica civilisation and the transportational portals, because this is connected closely to your presence on Earth and to the activations you have been receiving in recent transformational phases.

Momentarily experience this moving through you and the energy you are accessing through the energy devices you deposited here will be synchronizing certain patterns within you and these allow a release from you of facets that you may have been holding onto, or you have been reacting to various stresses held within the framework of the Earth pattern. Some of those will not be known to you and some will be recognized by you. What you need to recognize now is that the energy you are receiving is the appropriate energy for you, as you will be translating what you receive into the appropriate actions within your energy and physicality form, and this is what this particular immersion in this session is about, is presenting to you and you are presenting yourself within it for this precise attunement.

Recognize also, this is the reminder of the reconnection you have to your prime point of origin. It was from that point of origin that you brought forth this particular energy device and you implanted it in the Earth and many of you implanted it within this Antarctica land mass, and so it is all being synchronized throughout you.

Are you feeling and experiencing the clearance throughout you and throughout the planetoid - the system of it? Are you also experiencing the release of pockets of energy as part of the activation of various other connecting nodes throughout the land masses and those Beings on Earth who are ready for this will respond to it. There are many activities that you have witnessed and been experiencing in recent phases in your recent year which have needed this activation of the clearance and the connection to the prime portals of life force to enliven the planet again so that it is lifted up into the frequency of - we refer to it as Light - and this helps the repositioning of it and those of you who are ready - the repositioning of yourselves into the Galactic Federation of energy system. It is a very wholistic presentation and interaction for you. It does allow you to focus entirely on this oneness. Many of you resort to a very strong sense of duality and you have the feeling that you shift from one end of that spectrum to the other end of that spectrum.

When you have correctly attuned to the prime point of origin, there is a greater sense of the order and balance and the new civilization arising from that. This is what we came forth and drew you forth to realise in this session.

As you integrate this into your light form as it came forth into the original gathering space in this Station of Light, you will be absorbing more of what you have connected into, through the Antarctica Portal - and thus this series of activation is complete for this phase.

You are Loved. You are acknowledged - always Orem out “

“Thank you, Orem. I am that known as Ulea again with you, helping you to absorb this transition that you have experienced into the new civilization, and the new light aspect of you.

It had been observed that many of you have experienced physical mis-alignments, physical disturbances, emotional disturbances, simply because you needed the extra validation of who you are and the stronger connection to the prime point of origin of you, of existence, as the Earth Station also connects into that. This is done.

It is my joy to help you to assimilate all of this as you begin the reconnection of all of this into the physical life pattern that you have currently and which you will be aware is changing, as you allow the change to happen in accordance with the prime point of origin containing your purpose.

There are many who observe you and assist you. This is for you to identify the ones who come forward to you as an individual, and there may be groups of those already around you. Do you recognize those?

Do you recognise many of the Galactic systems they originate from coming forward around you? This will unfold and become clearer to you, because you will feel the alignment to all that is required for you.

I withdraw now
Ulea out “

Lani again with you and as I take in a breath and let it out and bring myself back into the physical body, my vision is that I see all of you coming back into Earth, as if you are like a separate aspect of you coming back into the physical body, enlivening it in a new way, refreshing it.

There is a lot contained within this session which will unfold to you, as you continue to immerse yourself into it.

Now align yourself back fully into your location and the current day and time that we use as measurement within the dimensional pattern.

Thank you. I wish you Love, Light and Joy throughout 2021 and I end this session through the Omega Communications Portal.

Lani
