Session 1055

Date: January 28, 2021, Thursday

Time 9 am

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Lani speaking to you to begin this journey into the Station of Light and beyond.

Again, it is a simple process for you to be in that state of being within the Station of Light, within the receiving area.

All you have to do is take in a lovely breath, filling your mind and body with light and it is this body of light that already is present in the receiving area of the Station of Light today, in this moment of experience.

This is how we begin this session today.

“Welcome. I am known as Orem and again I draw you all into this gathering space, strengthening the sense of your presence here, as you allow yourself to become integrated into the energetic field of light, energy and information in this process.

It is a process, as you have identified, to allow the consciousness to expand into the external, or extended informational field often identified as consciousness. Your presence in this state where you are assisted by and overseen by many Beings here, announces to your conscious mind that you have given permission to explore other dimensions and actually move back into the expanded dimensional field of existence. From that state of existence, or your state of consciousness in that field, you are experiencing modifications to your entire energy pattern that you are as the Being on Earth planet, and you also will be experiencing the shifting of what you might refer to as timelines.

The purpose of that is for you to identify with a particular field of existence, a dimensional existence, that you are wanting to experience, that you are choosing to experience in your current existence in the physical form. You therefore are drawing into existence the dimensional presence and pattern of a civilization as you would choose it to be, a more advanced or enlightened civilization for all people, for all beings, for the entire creationism that is within that dimensional civilization.

The dimensional civilization you have travelled through and which has propelled you to move into receiving this type of information, indicates to you that there are certain shortages - short-sightedness

- in governing people and states and you have also observed and realised there are more opportunities of sharing of upliftment in many ways that you would determine that to be.

We have presented to you many different civilizations. The one most often presented to you has been described as the crystalline civilization light cities. That framework encompasses multi dimensions, so again you have choice. The choice is determined also by the field that you resonate with. If your energetic field incorporating mental, emotional, physical is not ready to assimilate a higher dimensional field, you will be automatically attracted to the level that you resonate with. You may understand from this why we have been presenting you into energy fields to help clear your energetic pattern and in that way, you resonate with a more expanded dimensional field of existence.

Allow yourself to be filled with energy patterns which clear you of interfering patterns or patterns that have become distorted or disturbed in your experiences, so as you become clear, you become more strongly resonating with your original point of existence and that allows you to resonate within the dimensional field existences that are being and have been and always been existing in creation.

It is you who need to allow yourself to resonate with the most appropriate and higher level of existence.

All of the experiences you have will facilitate your realization and the opportunity to resonate with that higher energetic field. It is simply you choosing to release from you experiences, having taken the opportunity to understand them and then to enhance yourself with everything that you have benefitted from and now you are ready to manifest the higher level.

Again, the framework may be identified as a different timeline. The timeline, again, is experience and manifested experiences for you to move into.

All throughout those dimensions there are the Ones who assist you. They often show you the clear pathway because it is the overall intention of life to live freely and joyfully, expressing the perfect pattern that is inherent in the encoded patterns of evolution.

Here, we conclude this aspect of the deliverance of you into this state at this moment. The prime purpose has been fulfilled for this particular transmission and your experience of that.

You will now be experiencing the choice and your depth of allowing all of this to be incorporated into you as an energy input for you. It will continue to exist as a pattern of a code of the light field for you to draw into you at any time you choose. This is the light field that is of you and is you in your prime origination state of existence.

I return you back to the realization of your presence in the initial gathering space in this Station.

You may also expand your awareness to encompass this energy of the pattern of Earth, with all of its alignments, layers of creation, within the gravitational aspects and rotational aspects and within the energy patterns as you descend within the layers that is the Earth.

We remind you of the energy field matrix overlaying all - an energetic grid - and you are part of that, so with the light field you have already observed, that energetic field is also presented in your unique way around the patterning of Earth and the entire population and as that vibration is observed through other Galactic Observers, it is recognized, it is acknowledged.

This also assists in the ongoing upliftment process of evolution. Thus it is all present.

I withdraw now

“Into this space with you, Ulea is here.

As always, I assist your process of integrating all of these patterns you have been experiencing. Many of you will have been perceiving these as images. Many of you will have been perceiving them as a sensation and perhaps as different Galactic Dimensional Beings with you presenting the information to you.

It is part of your individual way of allowing the energy and information to come into you.

You will also be experiencing adjustments within your energetic processes as you are here within the Station and this begins the interaction of those with the actual physical processes of your physicality. There is the immersion and the interweaving of it all which occurs even now as you feel you are breathing all of this back into your body form. As you do this, you can enhance your body form with the realization that you are breathing in clearness which enables you to resonate with the pattern of civilization of enhancement and the extra-dimensional fields of consciousness.

This is all presented to you with our loving joyful presence and by that, we understand and we recognize that aspect of you vibrates to that energy frequency pattern.

Perhaps it could be measured by your instruments. Perhaps it is best measured by your inner sensing of what you resonate with.

I withdraw now

Ulea out “

Lani again with you, acknowledging everything we have received through those Beings, through the many who were surrounding you in this state, in what you experienced.

The emphasis was on you allowing yourself to receive it all and experience it all.

This concludes this session through the Omega Communications Portal.

Thank you for being part of this and being part of the change on Earth, the clearing away, the upliftment and bringing in, or bringing us into a higher dimensional field of civilization. I love it! It's a wonderful way to end this session. Thank you.

Lani
