Date: February 18, 2021, Thursday

Time 9.30 am

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Lani speaking opening the Omega Communications Portal to you and to everything that you embody in your life here on planet Earth and your life in other dimensions. It is all you and aspects of the pure, essential Being of Light that you are.

Begin as always by taking in a lovely breath and as you let it out, feel that you are immediately present in the gathering in the Station of Light. It is here that the other dimensional Beings will come forward, enveloping you in the energetic field and in this process, your energy field itself is infused with a clearer energetic field.

This is how we begin today.

“Greetings to you all. I am known as Orem and I come forward again embracing you in the energetic field which we have available to you here. Draw it in around you. Feel it around you. Allow yourself to do this. It is part of your inherent ability to recognise the shift in energy which occurs when you introduce yourself into an expanded dimensional field of existence, which you are in as you have presented yourself here, in this session.

You will realise that this is all about uplifting you, clearing you so that you are able to happily, joyfully, with full conscious awareness, fulfill your purpose. As part of that purpose you knew you could present yourself into areas such as this, as a great reminder. You are also presenting yourself into the Council of Light who are part of this essential energy Station and you are also present with the other Galactic Beings fulfilling their purpose, reaching out to you to assist you as you function and you activate all of the potential that is your pure essential purpose and beingness here on Earth, within the physical body.

You may hear a distant echo or resonating effect as these words are spoken to you, because they are being received by other aspects of you existing in different timelines or timeframes or distant locations anywhere in the created galactic fields of existence. Therefore, everything that you receive in these presentations where you immerse yourself within the field and allow yourself to receive, you are allowing the other aspects of you to also participate in the clarification, in the shift in energy field.

You may perceive that energy fields shift and expand.

They are not static, they are not stationary and they move in accordance with the expansion of consciousness. In effect, they are fields of consciousness, often referred to as dimensions, as different planes of existence. The terminology that you use will help you to recognize that there are different terms used to allow you to understand the different fields of consciousness where you participate in functions and existence. Realizing now that where you are positioned on the planet named Earth - some people name it Gaia, some people name it some other terrestrial form of identification - all of the different terms of course help you to expand your framework of reference and this allows the expansion of the field of consciousness, so it is not defined with a particular label which has been identified.

Continually you must expand your consciousness field and as that happens, you understand that you realise more of the quantumness of existence. It is this quantum field of energy that we draw your attention to in this session. This quantum field you could liken to a network of energy patterns which come together in various energetic connections, or nodes. There is similarity with your own energetic field relating to your physical form and framework. All of this dimensional network is receiving a constant flow through the solar portal, through a greater state of consciousness coming through the solar portal and this is perhaps sufficient for you to acknowledge and realise that the flow is continuously upgrading and expanding the dimensional network that you are part of. Obviously, you, as an energetic Being, is also receiving this upgrade.

For some of you who are physically or mentally creating new manifestations within an upgraded sense of civilization, you receive the information patterns needed for you to bring into the creations. If you are a person who is stationed within your own home primarily and you may feel you having nothing great to offer to the new creation - well, we are validating you as a particular receiver of the informational patterns that are needed to assist this entire process.

You are needed to be clearly attuned to the flows of energy, the quantum light coming through the solar portal.

At times you redefine how you think this quantum light is. Therefore, you are changing the pattern. The original pattern referred to as the quantum light field is again enveloping you and you may immediately feel that shift which takes place. It is, as it were, a higher functioning resonating effect which will draw you as if you are drawn magnetically to that quantum pattern. This is refreshing you. This is renewing you and helping you to adapt to the patterns of light that you are receiving in that energetic grid.

In this way, when you focus on all of this, your attention is not being drawn into lower patterns that still need a great inflow of light to evolve. By immersing yourself into the quantum light field, that flows out through you without you giving a conscious thought to it. It happens in a natural way through your energetic systems, but you must ensure that you are correctly receiving that higher frequency pattern - the quantum light that you are connected into within this session.

Feel this. You are immersed in this energy field which perhaps you are sensing it as a pod-like sphere of energy around you. Perhaps you are visualizing you are in a star field. Whatever way naturally comes into your sensing is the appropriate vehicle for you to understand this is the way you are receiving it. There is also the way that this transports you through the different dimensional fields of existence.

We allow you these few moments of silence to experience

. . . and this is what is happening within you and around you.

This field of light is around you, as you bring your awareness back to being in the receiving area of the Station of Light.

The Council of Light is overseeing this process. They made sure that you were sufficiently resonating with that incoming flow so that you bring this higher organization of light within you. They also understand what is needed. They also understand the shifts that are occurring within the planetoid structure and the energy fields within it and this is partly why the emphasis is on the upgrading of your energy field with the higher pattern so that the disturbances and shifts and changes around you will no longer disturb you, as you understand what is happening and you understand you have the availability of the quantum light field to help you rise above the changes and to help bring in the higher pattern of light.

Thus it is. This is my presentation to you in this moment, to assist you.

Orem out “

“As a Galactic Being involved in ensuring you absorb all of this, Ulea speaking to you, I also engage this prime energy that you have been allowing yourself to receive in this session. You are needed to absorb it all and I am able to assist you in this process. Remember the connections are always there because you brought those into the life pattern that you are existing as now, so what is important for you will come up to you in your inner receiving patterns. Take time to still the mind and allow the intuition, the impulses, to come up in you.

I envelop you at this time as what you understand is the starfield matrix - this energetic grid which Commander Orem has referred to.

You are surrounded in this and the energy is activating your own starfield matrix, all throughout you, through all the patterns, through all the pathways. Remember this.

You do not need to investigate every corner of darkness. All you need to do is to bring the light in around you whenever any thought arises of something which is not within this higher starfield quantum light. There is much of that lower density still existing on the planet at this time, until the full shift occurs into the dimension referred to as light and that civilisation manifesting.

Now we bring you back to anchor all of this in you and round you in your physical location. This is important. This is where you are placed in the present moment, even if that changes in the next few moments, wherever you are that is the space where you always continue to have access to the quantum light field. It is you, within you and around you.

Ulea out .”

Thank you - all of the Beings in this session. Lani speaking again and I am ending this session at this time. Just as we started the session with a breath in, take a breath in filling your body and all aspects of you and breathe out naturally and make sure you are fully present right now. With that one word of being here - NOW.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal. Thank you

Lani
