“Welcome. Orem speaking to you and as I acknowledge each one of you individually as you come forward to stand with us, meeting us very strongly and individually, your presence enhances the entire energy field here. This has the effect of uplifting everyone who comes in with you and it also enables you all to receive the energetic field that is always present here in this Station and in particular in this area known as the receiving area where you transition between your daily life and this life as a conscious Being of Light.

This energy field here also enhances your individual field because the energy matrix of you resonates with the higher energy field and that itself has a clarifying and purifying effect. It also enables the adjustments that many of you are seeking and you are ready for, adjusting the frequency patterns of your particular energy field and this interacts with the vibration of the cells in your body, of the energy centres that in particular require to be harmonized with the energy field coming through the solar portal, almost on a daily basis for you. Perhaps many of you have this daily practice of consciously connecting to the energy through the solar portal and therefore the upgrades that are necessary you are already receiving. By being present here in these gatherings, the upgrade process is intensified and more experiences of the energy and what is occurring arise within you and around you.

In particular we are at this time helping you to decode, or expand and unravel the energies coming through the codes through the solar portal.

You would understand that the light rays contain messages for you and they are encoded in pockets of light and these are, as it were, small points of light that interact with your individual energy grid around you and in turn, that sparks an action which becomes the activation point for you to receive individually what is most needed by you, in the current circumstances. The current circumstances may change as you understand it, on one of your daily experiences, in your daily timeframe.

It could be viewed from this perspective - you could be observing your life and each day, or perhaps subsections of that day as you measure it, are like a timeframe and you could observe it as a single frame of time expanded in whatever length you may wish to observe that on, depending on the detail you wish to see or understand. All of this is part of the greater expression of you and from the greater time and viewpoint going back to your initial point of origin, you can deeply examine your current lifeframe and you can observe the areas that needed more upliftment or light to bring you into the present moment experience, which is of and within, light. You are in that light energy through source creation.

There are pockets of this that you will be receiving and experiencing and the pockets are the points of light referred to, expanded into spheres of light and this can encapsulate the timeframe that you wish to focus on. Is that your overall lifeframe in this particular body, or is it a moment in time, in your timeframe, in one day?

As we bring this to you, the energy that you are allowing yourself to receive is filling you with the presence of that sphere of light encoded in the energy coming through the solar portal.

There is much to be engaged within your life relating to this experience. This experience we refer to with that frame of phrase is the connection you have here with the Galactic Beings all working to create the expansion of light within you, around you and through you.

Session 1060
Date: March 4, 2021, Thursday
Time 8.30 am

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Hello, Lani speaking to you. Come into direct alignment and entry into that dimensional field known as the Station of Light. The more that you become familiar with this, the easier it is for you to be present in the receiving area of the Station and for you to personally engage with Beings who come forward surrounding you here.

It may be different to how you receive energy and information personally in your life on a daily basis. This should enable a deeper immersion into the area of communication and of understanding and experiencing the dimensions that are above our common field of consciousness on Earth. So, this is what it is all about, really - the Beings assist us to expand further beyond what we have existed in on the planet currently in our lives. This is how we begin today.

You would be realizing that these are what you would call special moments in time in your life. That might be a year as you measure it, and these special moments in time require your attention and focus into the higher spatial existence of dimensional unfoldment and it is in those that we bring your attention again to the civilisations that have already evolved and manifested from the focus upon the light field that you are individually drawing in. Do you see the relevance of this? Do you see the importance of where you place your focus and attention? That is what you are manifesting.

We who deliver these energy sessions to you have experienced this type of lifeframe that you are experiencing now and so we came forward to assist you. Some of those who have come forward to assist you at this moment are aspects of your own existence coming forward to help you, and as you are helped, you are existing in our dimensional framework of energy and support and this increases the impetus and momentum of the expansion and upliftment. This has to merge completely into all the aspects of your energy field around you as an individual, physical, Being and so the energy matrix which has already absorbed all of this presentation to you and what has yet to come forward to you in this presentation, that aspect and the energy grid is already in the process of allowing this all to permeate into every cell of your physical form, every layer of your emotional form, every aspect of the thought forms - the energy of those is receiving this same energy within this experience within this phase in this dimension here.

You will also be aware of the many Beings around you at this time facilitating this, being with you, walking with you, over land, through time, through different planetary systems. Whatever is appropriate for you to be receiving at this moment, and in this process, there is a gathering into you of everything that is needed for you in your present timeframe and the phase that you are experiencing on Earth. You are helping you through all of this.

As you bring this back into your presence in the receiving space, be aware already of the greater light field which you are - the intensified and strengthened presence as you. Work with this. Keep reminding yourself of this when you feel you may have stepped out of the phase of this energy presentation to you in this existence, in this session. We leave this with you to absorb.

Orem out “

Thank you Orem. Lani with you and Ulea is here. She lightens me up - you might hear the laughter in my voice and joy. She has with her very bright, intense, golden light energy around her and with her because it is another Being also coming forward - those I refer to individually as the Star Beings. So, there is a powerful presence of love and light and joy with you here.

“As Ulea, I would also say we witness this absorption, the understanding you have already achieved and the gathering into you of all of this encoded light you have been experiencing now. Now that you have experienced this, it stays within your energy field, it stays within aspects of your consciousness which is important, the many layers of that. Therefore, this is the moment when you bring this back into your physical life where you are located. In whatever circumstances and experiences on Earth, you bring in the light field. This is it.

Ulea out “

Thank you Ulea and the Star Being. Lani again.

Are you now focused within your body form and around your body form? Perhaps you are momentarily aware of the many layers of your energy field - the consciousness field that connects always with the greater dimensions of light, the field that is your thought field and emotional field and the core energy essence of you directly connected to your point of origin. This feels to be a direct alignment and a shift from where we have been previously.

This has to be absorbed throughout your entire and bio-energetic body and field.

Bring your attention now into the present moment in this timeframe that we identify as the present moment.

Thank you. Love and light to you and I end this session through the Omega Communications Portal.
