“We acknowledge you here as the gathering light beings in this state of connection and reconnection.

Orem addressing you and bringing you forward deeper into this space. You are surrounded by many individual Beings who come forward supporting you and recognizing you, because it is that many of you have gathered in from other Galactic areas into this space and there are many of you who have come in from the Earth planet situation and site and there are other aspects of you who have come in from the realities where you have been existing in other Galactic energy sites. This is just to remind you of the many dimensions of activity that you are presently participating in.

When you gather into a central point of attention and you are aware of the particular entities that you have existed as already here with you, this is the powerful point of all of the aspects of you connecting in so that you resonate completely with the essence of the frequency patterns coming to you. The essence of this is already active within you. This is because in this dimension, you are accessing everything that is needed and necessary for you in the present moment in your lifetime and throughout all of the life experiences you have had and these incorporate the life experiences in the other aspects of you sited elsewhere, in whatever time space existence that was in.

This is a very wholistic presentation of you into the energy pattern that is being emitted throughout all manifested areas. The manifestation of this great pattern coming through originates from a very deep aspect of creation through your solar portal, through the solar portals of every other galaxy in the existence.

This is the multi dimensional formation that is part of the dimensions of experience and existence.

As you bring your attention into your present locality on the Earth site, then you become aware of an overlaying energy grid system that we have drawn your attention to previously in sessions, in gatherings. The purpose of bringing your attention to this again is so that you perceive the incoming fields and patterns and you can draw upon that with the intention of upliftment or clarification and of generally allowing the essence from pure source energy through the solar portal to be available to everybody, so what is needed is the awareness of people that there is this existence of the supporting energy field matrix.

We say this to you as a reminder. We are aware of the continuation of information flowed out through your media which does not recognize this overlaying support structure that you are connected to. Again, there is the need to completely disengage from that level of news items into the more productive energetic matrix that supports you and all. Remember, this is part of your role - to access the energy and information from the essence of creation and to bring that through into you.

You will be aware that what is occurring on the Earth site presently is going through different phases and the more that you release your connection to what is happening, the quicker, or the clearer manifestation of the clear light will occur. This is part of your role. This is required of you. In our dimensional existence and presence we are, of course, assisting you in this and we have the continuation of the metaphysical construction into the preparation for physical manifestation as the energy field increases around the current Earth site into the existence that is there in the other dimensions. In the New Earth many people describe it as, as a separation. Well, do you realise you have and are in the process continually of separating yourself into the New Earth?

Time 9.30 am

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Welcome into another journey into the Station of Light, into those other dimensions where we recognize we exist and where we link with greater insight and energy. Come with me again and assemble into the gathering area, the receiving or transition space within the Station of Light.

Relax and be open, because even if you are aware of your body where it is, your greater awareness in your greater consciousness field is also aware of being in this other dimensional space.

So, let us begin.

It is a new way of thinking that Earth Beings have been aware of through many generations, and yet the ones who were aware of it were not permitted to bring it forward, or they were not accepted by civilization. In your current timeframe there is aspects of that still occurring, so it is important for you to understand your presentation and your primary focus into the dimensions already existing of these civilisations of more enlightened understanding and existence.

We bring your attention into this Station of Light existence. Again, there is the capacity and the potential to upgrade many people when they raise their consciousness field into being aware of the presence and existence of this and as more Beings come forward in recognition of this, more areas are presented to them in the way of presenting understanding, presenting situations and messages such as you are receiving in this moment. It is presented many times in different ways to people who are not quite ready to adjust their energy pattern to fully receive it and integrate it. You remember that your continual presentation into these sessions has an adjustment element to it and this helps you to recognize the patterns unfolding and to recognize why you are existing in your present locality and why you are able to exist in the Station of Light, drawing into you the aspects of higher evolved states of you to assist you to be in that higher resonating field.

In accordance with the openness of the Station to all people who are ready for it, whatever their need is will be provided. If there is a need for sustenance, it is there. If there is a need for companionship, it is there. If there is a need for some form of adjustment in the energy field in the various layers of density, that will be provided. It can be used as a holding space as changes occur and with this, we give you the understanding that at times you are able to present yourself into the Station for a length of experience out of the usual timeframe of Earth where you can be supported and renewed, re-energized and in that time when you are fully integrated back into the physical form, change will have occurred.

In orienting yourself back into the physical form there is always the re-adjustment into what is known as current time as it is experienced within the dimensional framework and the dimensional framework is always experiencing adjustments through solar time and beyond that into all over existence of light patterns. There is a period that we will refer to it as "time" and yet it is purely an alignment to the incoming fields of light and becoming perfectly attuned to that. That indeed necessitates orienting it into your current locality.

This is all about aligning you, helping you to know this level of participation you are in and confirming you as a validation point again of what you are being and presenting into the world through your presence.

This is my presentation to you today

Orem out "

"I come forward to reinforce this into you as individual Beings here. Ulea addressing you. Again, I am able to mingle individually with you so that the energy pattern is acknowledged and I am able to touch your energy field where you are and this helps anchor in what you experience in the sessions. It is accessing and moving into your energy field here in this transition space.

With this pattern already working within your energy form here, this makes it easier to integrate it back into your physical form and this is what you are requested to do in this moment. Feel that you are reconnecting back into your physicality.

Ulea out "

Lani speaking again.

Thank you Ulea and Orem and the other Light Beings gathered.

So, as you breathe now, bring your full focus into the present moment as you who has a name and an individuality on the Earth and also be aware of the other dimensions around you and bring into you all of the wisdom and knowledge from the other aspects of you and the dimensions you experienced. Use it to assist you and everybody, because you know that higher energetic field exists all around the planet.

I end this session through the Omega Communications Portal. Do make sure you are fully present in the current dimensional time energy. This I feel, and you probably feel this as well, deeply within every cell of your Being, deeply within the essence of you. Thank you.

Lani
