Date: March 18, 2021, Thursday

Time 10 am

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Lani speaking to you, through the Omega Communications Portal.

Actually, it is you who comes through the Omega Communications Portal - you that is the higher aspect of you, and your dense physical body remains relaxed where it is. The essence of you comes through the Portal into the Station of Light.

Already assembly in the receiving area are many other Beings ready and waiting. Are you enjoying the feeling of being here in this area - free of the confines of Earth, free to engage in the higher dimensional frequency?

This is how we begin today.

“Orem coming forward to begin this session today with you. An appropriate time for you to remember that your current lifetime is one pattern of experience, maybe one pattern of a collected number of experiences, but it is the experience of you as this physical body that is referred to.

When you come into the Station into this dimension where you are actually free of the body and yet your experiences come into this space, you are able to encompass all of those experiences within the energy that you are receiving directly from the higher aspects of creation as they come through the solar portal. It is always about this. It always has been and is and will be about reconnecting with that pure element of energy and so that has the effect of clearing the impact of the experiences you have had on your energy field.

You would understand that many of the experiences are able to alter the blueprint - the genetic profile you might call it - and so by presenting yourself into this area into the light and within the oversight of the Beings here, many of those experiences that have distorted your energy field are cleared away. Are you allowing that to occur? You do not even need to analyse what the experiences are. It is the willingness that you have to allow the energy to clear your energy field that is important.

Then we begin going more deeply into your activities and your presence on Earth.

Coming more deeply in experience here of realizing you are with the Beings assigned here, some of whom are part of the Council of Light and others are different levels of support, and you are all perceiving the expansion of consciousness as it expands through the existence of the vectors which contain various systems - solar systems - planetary systems - and there is the overall expansion occurring. You are able to witness this in the energy dimension that we have drawn you into here. You will perceive the natural unfolding. You will perceive the level of energy that is available to Earth planet as part of this clearing away of experiences. Therefore, leaving you to be free and able to participate in this overall expansion.

There has been a shift in the general consciousness available to all on the planet. This is in that energy matrix surrounding the planet referred to often in our series of presentations to you and you receive this. Each time you make a deliberate attempt to step beyond the physical mental boundaries of concepts of what life is on Earth and you activate your presence and engage in the energy field coming through the solar portal, then this is when you really can absorb the energy field to help you and in that way you are also being a channel for that energy to come into the Earth around you, simply by the act of being connected into that pattern of light.

There is this knowledge within you that it is part of the blueprint of life and the original blueprint of life was for a pure Being, humanoid in your case, to function for many decades of existence on Earth so that you are able to be a valuable source of connection. Therefore, as part of clearing the accumulated experiences of you, this enables you to be a clearer Being, more strongly connected into the evolutionary process of expansion of consciousness.

So, this is what is happening around you now. You are receiving on many layers of your energy field and existence, the incoming expansion energy through the solar portal. You were created as this and for this and to do this and to be this. It is one.

Therefore, all that you recognize as existence on planet Earth needs to be upgraded to receive the full benefit of the restorative energy to the original blueprint.

The original blueprint is present there receiving the expansion of consciousness fields and the original blueprint is quite capable and has the potential and the principles of life in it that accept that energy. You may sense there would be a certain sense of upgrading or expansion of that blueprint. It is simply that it is complete. It has all the receptive nodes in it, but up until this time a lot of those receptors had not been activated to receive this particular aspect of energy coming in. so, it is a very fulfilling time for you.

Now we bring your attention into that gathering space where you perceive the many Beings there. Do you also recognize many more have come in as they also have accepted the activation which is conveyed through the solar portal energy at this time? It is a very powerful process that resets many of the active processes of consciousness of individuals and as individuals, you are all part of a connected energy field, or consciousness field, and this is part of the manifesting of a different dimensional existence, as the civilization changes in accordance with that activation of the blueprint.

You will be feeling this filling you, so bring it back into the initial gathering space here in the Station.

I withdraw now

Orem out “

“Lani here again. Thank you Orem. I am aware of the presence of the Being known as a Star Being with the support of the Council of Light

“ and we are simply ensuring that the activation process has been acknowledged and working within you each as you are presented here. It will reach very deeply into you, because your consciousness is deeply connected in this area, in this presentation to you.

And so we now are able to observe this is sufficient for you to work with, to allow it to unfold naturally in your life.”

And so that Being steps back and it is now for us to collect all of this consciously into us and to consciously bring it back into your current circumstances.

You may already have experienced a slight change in what is around you as you perceive the energy of it. You may already have understood that there has been a slight time change and something has altered in your thoughts. This apparently is representing and showing you that you are adapting to the higher energy field pattern coming through the solar portal from Source, so I think we should all be quite happy about all of this and relaxed as we allow it all to activate all of those areas within our individual blueprint.

This concludes this session today. Do make sure now you bring your attention back into the present moment.

You may feel you have consciously aligned, reconnected, to a higher level and that of course was the purpose of today’s session - helping you realise that.

Take it all with you. Let it all unfold and give you more experience of it. Thanks for being here.

I end this session through the Omega Communications Portal.
