Session 1066

Date: April 15, 2021, Thursday

Time 9.30 am

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Lani speaking to you, opening the Portal, drawing you within. Take in a lovely breath, filling yourself with light and love and acceptance of all that you are. You will feel as you breathe gently and naturally that you relax your body and your mind and so you are ready, on your next breath in, to enter within the receiving space in the Station of Light.

Already gathered here there are many of us from Earth, stationed on Earth, and many others who gather in with you, because they are part of your energy system and some of those will be from other dimensions of existence.

So, here we are - ready to participate in this session today.

"We welcome you into this space and greet every one of you as an individual Being and as a special Being called into be actively promoting and generating and emitting the energy systems that you have available to you now.

Orem addressing you in this space reminding you of all that you are. You may feel you have become this, as a new Being, as a new aspect of you, whereas the reality is you have always been part of this dimensional existence where you are participating in the expansion of consciousness and in bringing in the stabilising energy aspects of Creation to be part of you, to be part of your energy field, to be part of the energy matrix field that is the Earth energy Being.

Energy is what existence is within the multi-dimensional fields of Creation. Therefore, everything you may feel is reality - the Earth, dwellings, vehicles, people - it is all energy and it is all being experienced in different timelines and different stages of evolution, different stages and levels of dimensional existence. Therefore, when you identify yourself with that highest point of existence, you are bringing into alignment everything that is part of your consciousness.

That could include close consciousness as you exist in a daily pattern of what you do. It could also include a much wider pattern of existence throughout all of your current journey through this current body-form life and many of the parallel lifetimes that you exist as and many of the other dimensional type of aspects existing. Therefore, this is the expanded consciousness field that you are experiencing.

From your highest point of existence, you are actively participating in a more present way of presenting that exact alignment through the solar portal to Source Creation of what is actively needed and is in action already as part of the - we could say improvement - at this phase of evolution for you.

Focus on intentional improvement. That is the sense. It is not a deliberate action to interfere with anybody or any process. When you hold the intention of improvement, of enlightenment in many ways, and of actualizing the higher point of light existence, that over-rides everything and is available for those who are ready to receive and to allow it to manifest through their own thought patterns, through their own creations, through their own existences. We are saying in another way, do not become involved in what you think is a static outworking of different layers of existence. Everything is moving, even if that is moving in the lower density fields that exist, there is movement.

Bringing your attention back now into where you are within this Station, already you are aware you are within a different subsector of the Station. This is closely involved in the energy systems upon on Earth Station and that which is expanding and that which is being used and flowing out with energy through the energy matrix around and within the Earth, the actions of the Beings who are assessing and who are providing the energy systems to be activated and used in a more expanded consciousness way. All of that is ready in the extra-dimensional fields of existence and you are aware of this. You are within it in this presentation. You may feel the sensations of being enveloped and supported in this level of energy field. The frequency pattern is something that you naturally resonate with, especially when you are open to the natural field which Earth is. This means away from the artificial energy systems that have been created on Earth.

There are what you would call the bio-plasmic energy field systems already within the energy matrix around the Earth and this is a layer also that you resonate with.

It has a vibration and when you resonate with that bio-plasma type energy, you are already participating in allowing this energy system to become more evolved and more present in the manifestations around Earth. This is moving away from the evolution of some of the power systems still used upon the Earth in your land masses and cities. You are aware that there have always been ones who have come into civilization and who present new types of existences and yet they in many ways were not permitted to be available to everyone on the planet to utilize. There are levels of the new existences, the bio plasmic type energy systems and many of the other ones that have been recognized through the intelligence systems and communication with Galactic Beings. Always there are ways to prevent it being used in a destructive manner on the Earth and so it is only to the ones who are already involved purely and actively in the higher fields of manifestation who will be creating these new systems. They are there. Because of your resonating field that you experience, particularly in the gatherings in the Station here because you are in the expanded dimensions of light, then you are already receiving elements of the new energy systems. You might say you receive it in your energy field and you receive it in your body in the fluids and in the energy pathways which carry the specific coded instructions into all of your energy systems within and around your body. Are you ready for that? Are you ready to accept it and involve yourself in this expanded field of existence?

We encourage you in this way. We present it to you. We also observe that there are many aspects to everybody that has some resistance, some reservations about what is being presented and how it can be used. It is at this time presented in a way that is not able to be logically analysed because it is in a different level of sensory perception. It will be, and is already, part of your existence. Much of the original and overlaying commissioning of the Galactic Beings who come around Earth and who have always been around Earth, is to present the higher evolutionary systems to you and you will be aware that this has always been present and had come through in other civilisations, the memory of which still exists. It is simply that in your history it is labelled in a certain timeframe. We have explained that time is not linear as you measure it in years or centuries. It is an experience within dimensional patterns of existence and you exist always in those. Choose where you are existing and it will come through into your current patterns of life systems.

Many of you may be feeling you are controlled by various aspects around the planet. The essence of you, this higher pattern of existence, is not controlled. You are always in your higher aspect of field of existence in that originating dimensional pattern of existence. When you realise that, then you can observe how you will, or will not, participate in what is presented around you and whether you will just go along with the outplaying of it and at the same time you are calling and connecting in with and to the pure aspect of Creation. Remember, it is part of your wholistic blueprint. It is part of the wholistic blueprint for Earth that exists. It is the core essence of all that is. You are that core essential Being.

Now that you have identified as that, we restore you back to your initial presentation in the receiving area here in the Station. You are correctly aligned and attuned in this moment. This is acknowledged.

Orem out “

“We again come forward to assist the process of integrating all of this which you have been experiencing in this session.

I am that one known to you as Ulea and we are all surrounded in that greater energy field of the collective consciousness of all of the Beings here assisting you.

Experience being aware of the new civilization overlaying and within everything which you see. Every new construction you might observe in your existing environment, look for the higher pattern of the bio-plasmic energy systems surfacing and when you see them, when you sense them, you are bringing them into manifestation. Trust this. Trust your inner perception to validate all of the greater dimensions coming in to support and manifest around you, through you. This is for you.

Ulea out “

Lani speaking again, with thanks to Orem and Ulea and the other Beings surrounding us, helping us to see truly into the greater dimensions. It makes a difference.

Now, bring all of this back into your physical form, into the present moment. Breathe it into you. It is all energy that your body systems and your energy field recognise and resonate with, so you just have to consciously allow that to happen. Every time you read this, it will be consolidated, it will be expanded upon and you will feel the difference. You may feel more is being unfolded everytime you read it, as you receive more, as your capacity, as your energy field expands to receive it all. It is as if there are circuits within the brain mechanism or the energy pathways that have to adjust to it. This is already happening.

It is wonderful to share this with you and in the greater energy field of Earth now.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications portal today. Bring it into you in the present moment right now.

Lani ❤️
