Session 1067

Date: April 22, 2021, Thursday

Time 10 am

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Hello. Lani speaking to you, helping you to connect into the other dimensions that exist and the dimension in which the Station of Light exists.

As always, you need to relax your body and your mind. The simple way to do this is to take in a lovely breath and as you breathe out, your mind relaxes, your body relaxes. When you take your next breath in when you are ready, as you breathe out feel that you are already in the receiving area of the Station of Light.

And here we are ready to commence this session.

“Welcome. Orem addressing you, greeting you in this space and time dimension where we exist out of Earth space time, but we do exist in universal consciousness and dimensional shifts of experience and we are indeed situated in the dimensions surrounding planet Earth and surrounding you at this time. You are always welcome in this space.

You have entered into this space when we are shifting into another level of energy construction and you will be aware there are many movements happening around you. You are in the midst of change and we are with you in the change.

We assemble you into a deeper formation into an inner area in this Station so that you are more aware of the existence of the energy grids and the channels of energy which are available from this area and through this area from the solar portal and therefore into the energy centres situated within and around the Earth Being. Presently, energy systems are being emitted and received and energy exchanges happening, out of Earth time measurement again, within some of the Stations within the Earth construct. There are many of these bases that are actively engaged in drawing in the particular energy fields and streams of information within those energy fields, helping support the Earth as it changes.

Yourselves may have been experiencing energy patterns within and around your particular space, your particular energy field and physical field. What you would be experiencing is on an energetic level and the energy cells and receptors in your energy field naturally, are responding to the light frequency patterns coming in.

So, when we say that you resonate with the exact energy that you need and are able to absorb, this is what has been happening, and is happening and may be experiencing sensations in the body. They will be fleeting. They will change when you engage your consciousness field, your core energy essence, into the resonating pattern from Source Creation. This has a direct influence on your energy field matrix and that incorporates the blueprint, it is the blueprint for you. Take advantage of being present here to allow the free flow of the energy field that you are engaging with in this state and all of your systems will benefit from this. There will be an ongoing effect of clearance. In your common phrases it is a detox, a letting go, a clearing out of old systems and old patterns as part of the activation of areas of the blueprint that have received more of this higher light frequency.

You may be aware that scientists around your planet are measuring alterations in light rays coming to the planet and around the planet. The energy of those is the powerful energy systems and the natural animal and plant kingdoms respond to this easily and when you connect into your point of origin you also respond easily to the changing light pattern frequencies.

This is occurring in other areas of creation, not simply to do with Earth planet and you will be aware this is occurring on other planets close by to Earth. There is a general opening up of energy systems, a general opening up of more information. We again say that the consciousness of humankind needs to be more responsive to allow free exchange of energy and information to the Galactic Beings who exist in support of you all. Many visitations are witnessed. What is not revealed particularly until ones are ready, is the communication and the information. There have been and continue to be, many levels of communication already received. It will be not released to the mass population who still act from fear, so this is to expand your understanding of why it is important to be clear and free and clearly connected to the original Source pattern of energy and it is from that original Source pattern that the Galactic beings come forward to help you.

The energy systems are also available to you to understand the levels of energy available to you each and levels of energy that you have understood and cleared in your experience. We are not defining this as opposing levels. We are suggesting to you it is all one, but on a different scale of energy and understanding, and therefore, consciousness.

Bringing your attention back to this area and the energy which is moving into many of the connecting points - nodes - of the energy matrix around the planet, these are being expanded and they change because they respond to the expansion of dimensions that are available around the Earth planet. This is part of the manifestation of the existence of those light cities, the areas many of you know exist, you have experienced it, you feel it. When it becomes that true feeling and knowing experience, that is when you truly understand those dimensions. Some of you have already been consciously present existing in some of those other Stations and spheres of existence. You will have been experiencing it in a different time measurement as you understand it, where, when you step beyond the conscious mind into the greater expanded level of your consciousness, you access what is available around you in that energy field of consciousness, just as you expanded your consciousness field to connect into this Station, to be receiving what you are receiving.

All through the deliverance of this there is a pattern that you are aware of and you are receiving it and it will continue to unfold. It will be helping you in the ways that you might be requesting and that you can be calling on to assist the process around you, within you, through you and within the Earth station.

Perhaps you do not recognize or hear and see the beautiful Beings of expanded consciousness who are working in different fields of energy. Know that they exist around you on your small planet of light. When you know that, you are also participating in the collective expanded consciousness field. This is important. This is why we keep speaking about it to you.

There are many information packets contained in the immersion you are experiencing in these sessions and it is necessary for you to allow it to unfold and surface within you, for you as an individual. Simply stepping back into this consciousness field, this dimension, will help that unfolding and revealing to you of information patterns that you need. They have existed prior to your entrance into the Earth, particularly in this current lifetime you are experiencing. This is the one where we are addressing you mainly and you are focused in. As we have referred to in other sessions, this is also engaging with the other aspects of you in alternate time realities that are aspects of you. So, you all are receiving this.

Many of you wish to look into other lifetimes you have experienced. In an overall sense, the energy you are receiving now from the pure light goes into all of your experiences - those experiences of your greater consciousness. Therefore, many experiences that may have been traumatic and the energy pattern has come into your present existence, are also being immersed in this clear pattern. It is all experience that you are an aspect of.

In this space here you are experiencing being an active member of the entire group of Beings in this Station and those who come in and move out for different purposes, reasons, times, connections and they can come in just as a conscious connection and thought. This could be perhaps in your images seen as a magnetic sphere of energy that draws those ones in who are resonating with that frequency pattern needed. Even in this session in the gathering here, you are drawing into you the Beings who relate to you, those ones connecting with you and you will be receiving communication in some way. In your own time when you return to your body you will be able to access this and it will be beneficial for you. Already some of you are doing this.

There is a stronger connection now that you have made. It does depend on your conscious connection to pure Source point of existence.

This keeps you attuned into it, connected into all that is appropriate for you, to bring through into you.

Thus, the purpose for this gathering is complete and you will be aware you are now back in the receiving space of this Station. Draw it all into you. You can use the particular devices that you established in this space as storage, or as spaces that you can move to, to re-activate all that you have received in these multiple sessions. The entire energy sphere of this Station maintains all of the information and you have, or you can, create an area here for you to use for your particular reconnection purposes, to access the information on the levels that you require it. This is my deliverance to you

Orem out “

Lani speaking to you again. You may be aware, as I am aware, of a large number of Beings here just stepping back, but leaving you surrounded in a beautiful energy sphere and this is what you now bring back into your current physical body and life. Take a breath in, breathing it all in and as you let it out it anchors into your entire body and energy field, from the top of your head to the soles of your feet, coordinated, connected, strengthened in every way. I feel this was delivered with love, care and respect for each one of us.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal today. I give my grateful thanks to Commander Orem and all the Beings who did not identify themselves, yet they came around us and I thank You for your presence.

Lani
