“This is what is required of you, Beloved. Orem addressing you and we come forward into this space especially prepared for you and the many ones who come in alongside you and they enter this space in various ways, in various time zones of where you are existing in multi-dimensional existences in and around planet Earth Station. There are many facets to why you are here and how you are here.

In all of your visitations we have commenced bringing you in through a field of energy patterns and frequencies and these are patterns which come forward from Source Energy Creation through your solar portal. You may understand from this that in other planetary systems that have a different sun - a solar portal - the energy they receive comes through in a way that is right for them in that system. In the same way, you receive the correct energy frequency patterns through your solar gateway through the sun for just the precise calibration of you as you exist in your current physical body. So, in your presence here your energy system vibrates and accepts the higher patterning that continues to flow in through the solar portal to you, to all upon the planet.

You may understand that this is the potential to clean up and clear away many belief systems, many misconceptions and, also, for those ones who are ready, they can be retuned into the patterning coming through the solar gateway that you would call the healthy pattern and that of course is your blueprint.

The blueprint for you each again is being adjusted and many pockets existing within it that have always been part of the blueprint are receiving and some are being activated in a different way so that you receive the patterning. This is the codes and energy systems that are natural, that are the optimal codes for you as you continue to adapt to the higher frequency patterns of light coming through your solar portal from central source of all creation.

There is a complex and yet a very simple patterning that you are receiving. Through these words and your presence here, you are receiving that. You could be perceiving changes in your energy patterns as you experience this. There are different areas that are the receptors, that are the containers for the energy and some of these are more dominant than others. This relates to various energy systems within your energy pattern and physicality which are needing specific elements at this time. Some of the elements you may be receiving relate to part of your purpose and what you bring in to elevate the consciousness field of planet Earth and of the inhabitants.

It is necessary for you to be fully absorbing the energy patterns for you. This will be enhancing you and it is also delivering the essence of the components coming through the solar portal into a higher level of receptors, and these are the Beings you might call your initiators, your creators, your manifesters. These also surround many of the global situations currently being experienced around the Earth globe - as you call it. The initialization of more of the light frequency patterns coming through is awakening. That is a term you would recognize and we use your terms to help simplify the energy message and information coming to you. The initialization of it all is allowing the many pockets of confinement that have been experienced individually or on a greater mass level to be opened to receive this light patterning frequency - the codes of the light, and it is all to do with expanding consciousness and uplifting civilisations of the entire planet into a clearer pattern.

Session 1068
Date: April 29, 2021, Thursday
Time 9.15 am

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Lani speaking to you. As usual, begin this session by making sure your body is relaxed and your mind is open to receive, and take in a lovely breath that fills you. As you breathe out, you feel you relax even more and when you do this again in your own time, naturally and easily, feel that you journey with me and many others and we enter into the receiving space of the Station of Light.

This is where we begin today, with the essence of you, your true spiritual being self, your true energy self, into this space. You may feel you are in the two dimensions. The dimension where your physical body is and the dimension of being in this Station and that is fine. You will receive just what you need, so be open as you put your attention into this gathering space, in the receiving area.

Again, we are saying this lifts the population into another level, so those who are ready will understand this and receive exactly the pattern they need for the thought processes or the emotional concepts to be identified as what is true and what is a belief system and what has been imposed in thoughts to keep people into a level of understanding that they accept is the reality. In effect, they keep themselves in that level until there is some activation point received in their true blueprint where they understand there is the greater light civilization.

We have delivered this to you in many different ways and it is all about presenting the newer light frequencies to activate more of the latent receptors in your blueprint pattern and in the overall blueprint pattern around the Earth energy system.

This is moving around the planet in flows surrounding the planet, dependent upon the areas that are receiving the full light coming through the solar portal and how that is distributed through the energy matrix that surrounds the entire planet. Therefore, even areas of the planet that receive fewer hours of sunlight or daylight are still receiving the energy because it is in the energy grid, or the matrix, surrounding the entire planet. That is also supported and fed by the Beings in the various energy Stations within the Earth and around the Earth as described previously and they also are receiving this greater input. You could liken this to them receiving energy information from a central command area, from the Council of Light area, and they clearly are receiving a very high point of intelligence from consciousness creation from Source, from that original patterning.

You are in a phase of accelerated expansion. Scientists understand this because they know that in certain layers of gravity or energy field, as there is more light, there is an increase in the energy vibration. In terms of sound, the sound rises to a higher pitch, a higher level, of light. You are all part of this essential expansion, upliftment, enlightening.

In concluding this aspect of this session, we value your presence and how you have awakened to realizing the importance of accepting the layers of light frequency. Also within this, you will be experiencing a release of some of those disorders or discomforts you have experienced during your current lifetime and you would understand, it is a level of light patterning with the codes that are the necessary elements to complete the clearness, to complete the surfacing of you back to your pure essence which you then enliven your current life pattern with.

This concludes this communication to you today and you will be aware you are again back in the receiving area of the Station. Again, we honour you, we accept you, we appreciate you and your presence.

Orem out “

“I am Ulea again addressing you, to validate this information for you. Do you feel you have been confirmed and validated into this new aspect? It is similar to you experiencing changes in seasons, changing in patterns of light is what you are receiving and what you respond to.

Enjoy this as you assimilate it fully in your energy field here in preparation for allowing this to be fully integrated consciously on all levels of your Being into your physical formation. The physical formation is an energy formation.

This is for you again for your strengthening, for your deep alignment in your reconnection processes with pure creative energy.

Ulea out”

Lani back with you, as if I enter back into my body of light in the gathering space here so then we all return together to our individual locations, our individual bodies. This has been another wonderful expansion of what we already know and yet it is a deeper and more powerful energy. It will work in you in the ways that you need it, perhaps in how you present yourself in the world.

It is all important. You are important and you are loved and supported.

Now take in a lovely breath as you bring your conscious awareness back into your body and into the current day and time where you are located in this body. That is important, because we do travel into other dimensions and other embodiments, so completely be anchored in this physical body you have.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal, with my grateful thanks to all of the Beings participating in this session.

Lani
