“This is a powerful way for you to enter into this space, Beloved. I am Orem greeting you, because I am representing all of the Beings present who come and go within the Station of Light for the purpose of being with Earth observing the changes, observing the Beings like you who have awakened to your presence as a Being on Earth bringing in change, connecting in with the elements of creation which come forward through your solar portal into you, through you, into the Earth energy consciousness grid. It is all contained in these opening words and phrases and the energy you are surrounded in here. Feel it. Allow yourself to receive on all levels of your Being.

Remember that as you are assembled here, this is your natural state of beingness - as an open, consciousness channel, as an energy Being, as the Light Energy Being that you are that entered into the physical space that you experience life as in your current body form. We remind you always that essentially you are this pure Light Being.

You have accumulated many experiences to develop and to utilize as a means of synchronizing yourself with the energy field coming in through the solar portal and to bring in new creations, as part of your purpose. This means that you need to access the original purpose of existence for you as an energy Being and you therefore will be receiving the elements necessary to enable you to properly function in your timeframe and to work cooperatively with the expanded field of consciousness and all of the Beings within that. It is a constant reminder and you know this.

Do you know it to the extent that you feel you are purely this energy Being that we acknowledge you as and this is how you are in this space with us, because we see you. We recognize you.

Continuing with the process of your engagement within many of the other assembled Group Beings here within the Station, you may be aware as a particular entity, you are working constructively with some areas around planet Earth and particularly within the base that you know as the moon associated with planet Earth. There are many of you who enter into this space as a conscious member of the groups who are also working collectively in the overall expansion of consciousness. You may be aware that there are those who would lower the vibration, who would move away from the original intention of what the Beings are doing - what you are doing - and firstly, in the initiation of this, is the intention of keeping Earth aligned into the evolutionary process of being a station of light.

Do you perceive this happening? Do you perceive the expanding of centres of light around the Earth - those bases often referred to where many of the Galactic Beings can enter into the space created because it is of a higher vibration. From there, in that higher vibration in many of the bases around Earth and the moon, they are able to gently experience connection with Beings such as you who are still vibrating in the lower energy field of Earth existence. There are aspects of you that still wholly vibrate at that level and there are other aspects of you, as you are assembled here and in the various areas of the Station, who vibrate to the higher light frequency patterns. There is the movement and realisation that you move constantly between those two aspects of dimensional existence and this will naturally change as more light is assimilated into your complete pattern and into everything that you exist as.

Remember, it is not an energy that overpowers anybody or any other situation.

Session 1070
Date: May 13, 2021, Thursday
Time 9.30 am

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Lani presenting this to you.

Take the opportunity again to get yourself relaxed, breathe in a lovely breath and as you let it out, allow your mind to relax and your body relax and let go of any pre-conceived ideas or thoughts that you hold onto which may not be relevant in the energy systems that you are receiving.

You will have realised that energy systems are changing and you have changed as your consciousness expands.

This is the way we begin today's session. Be aware that we are already in the receiving area of the Station of Light - ready to begin.

It is an energy that is present and in the presence of that light frequency pattern, changes naturally occur as other energy systems and other beings feel the vibration and resonate with that light frequency pattern.

This is always a representation to you that you will understand. In the higher dimensional understanding which goes beyond words, there is a different presentation of this process. You are already engaged in that. Feel it. Know it. Receive it. Allow it. Already you are absorbing yourself into that frequency pattern. This allows you to maintain the vitality for your physical cells and structure and that energy field relating to the physical form, and thereby it is prepared to adjust to the higher pattern of frequencies known as the blueprint and the activated aspects of that blueprint. It is always there with you and for you and you engage it in the way that you naturally respond to from the core energy essence of you.

Every time you acknowledge the core energy essence of you as that original point of existence, you are absorbing more of that pure blueprint, activated. This resonates with the dimensional constructions of the advanced cities of light.

When you acknowledge there are aspects of you already existing in those spaces, you are bringing it into manifestation and it will come into the existing field of manifestation in proposals for new ways of using energy, new ways of construction, new ways of vitalization for the body. When you focus within the light frequency patterns coming through Source Creation, then you are assisting the manifestation of those new ways of living, you are bringing it into you. It is the field identified as the bio-plasmic energy field and this is the method which is, as it were, the flow of energy systems that you already recognize as crystalline energy, as the higher vibrating pattern of consciousness. It is a flowing field which you engage with. This is for you to recognize. You may feel it as a flow of energy in you and through you. Your light body presence here is within that, it is part of its essence, so it is familiar to you. It is a natural energy field.

You already recognize that these energy immersions you experience accelerate your expansion and adaptation to this higher energy field. Again, concepts and words. The phrase higher energy field has that concept of what we are presenting to you in this multi-dimensional existence and patterns you are receiving in this state. It is more readily understood and received when you disengage yourself from the conscious mind and the reality of living in the experience that you are immersed in on Earth. Remember to consciously step into this energy field throughout your days, upon waking, before sleeping to maintain the constant renewal of cells and receptivity of everything that you agreed as your purpose to bring into Earth, in this current phase.

This aligns you in many ways to the complete pattern. Feel this and bring this all back into your awareness of being consciously present in the receiving area, as we began this journey together in this session. We acknowledge you and we observe you.

Orem out “

Acknowledged Orem and thank you.

Lani addressing you again and also, I am aware of those Galactic Beings, the Golden Light Beings that I often refer to simply as Star Beings and this is because they do not align themselves and describe themselves as coming from a particular planetary or galactic system. They come forward as Conscious Beings originating from elsewhere, originating from multi-verses. I struggle to bring the words through sometimes from the concepts that are presented to me in this way and at the moment they are giving me an image of you and me and also of us enveloped in an amazing, organised galaxy, and several galaxies.

It is if we are travelling through the envelope of space, in that field they describe as the bio-plasmic energy field which flows, which is all of the elements of consciousness. I guess they wanted you to have a sense of this, but also have a sense how important you are in your purpose and being renewed within this energy pattern. Take it all into you.

Now take a breath in and breathe it all back into your physical form where we began this journey, anchoring it all into your energy field, into your cells, into the essence of you as this Human Being. It is a very clear state of being that you have been experiencing in this session. Allow it to continue to unfold in your lifetime, from this moment, as you focus your attention back into your body, into the present day and time as we measure it on Earth.

It has the appearance of opening up new potential within the energy you have received, opening up a new aspect of Earth. This is what you are doing by being present consciously with the higher light field.

Thank you. This ends this immersion through the Omega Communications Portal into that Station of Light.
