Session 1071

Date: May 20, 2021, Thursday

Time 9.30 am

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

The purpose of the Omega Portal is for us to connect into the dimension where the Galactic Beings exist in the Station of Light,

Are you ready? Is your mind curious and open to receive? Take in a lovely gentle breath and as you let it out, feel that you are moving, being transported in some way in your body of light into the receiving aspect of the Station of Light.

Lani speaking to you and I have the sense that I am drawing you into this space and this is where we prepare ourselves to be fully immersed in this experience.

“Greetings to you all in this aspect of you present here with us. Orem speaking directly to you and I am representing that extra-dimensional group of Beings - extra-galactic group of Beings. You may know us as Galactic Star Beings - and we welcome you and address you because you are part of this same dimensional pattern of existence. Wherever you present yourself, in whatever body vehicle, in whatever state of consciousness, in whatever state of lifeform or time phase, you are that Being of consciousness, consciously commissioned and consciously bringing through the energy of the dimensional existence of creation.

You are expressing in different levels of your consciousness what that means. Wherever you are, you are connecting and reconnecting back into the original point of existence of creation for your purpose as being the pure element of creation as a Being of light. So, in this way you are indeed an aspect of the collective extra-dimensional Beings present.

You are on Earth presently observing change, also observing opportunities to change for people to realise the greater potential. The greater potential we refer to is this communication state of sharing the extra-dimensional experience of life within the current physical form and bringing that into all of creation manifesting on the Earth-plane.

In bringing this to you in this way, as you observe, there are many people who exist in their particular block of experience. The block of experience is where they choose to be. Indeed, many of you may have been aware you were in that block of experience until you expanded into the realization that your life was more than this particular timeframe from your birth until you leave the body.

In that, you took the first step. You opened your awareness, you opened the consciousness, to extend into remembering and reconnecting to the essence of you. You are immersed in this in this current presentation and currently, we are collectively helping you to realise you are travelling through dimensions. The dimensions we refer to specifically can bring you into presentation into different groups of Beings.

Initially, we bring you into what is referred to in your language as the Council of Elders, the Council of Light, who oversee your presentation into Earth in this timeline. They oversee different aspects of you also into presentations of existence and they are then able to oversee changes that are presented as the potential of opportunities into whatever land mass you may be in, whatever planet you may be presenting your life aspect into.

In the observation of these Beings, they are also presenting you into observe the energy that is flowing between every civilization on the planetoids where you are existing and have existed and will exist in that perpetual presence, in that sphere of your presence. You will be observing changes unfolding.

Bringing your focus and attention to the planetoid you are existing on named Earth, and its many other names given to it, be aware of the opening in certain vectors and intersections of the energy flows, the intersections of the energies are where Beings have gathered and created various Stations, various pockets of civilization. You may be searching to find these in the physical presence. They, at this stage, are in a different dimensional state of existence and that dimensional state of existence becomes visible to you at times when you can present yourself into it. You have been presented into some of these stations, often referred to as cities of light, and as we present this to you again, you will be aware that you are radiating energy from your presence into those stations and states of existence. You are observed by those ones who are organizing many functions of patterns of livingness and what this is doing is preparing the energy systems of you to recognize more of these other states of existence. There are aspects of your energy systems and this of course incorporates your cells and conscious awareness patterns - those are all being prepared so that you can engage more fully into those other realities.

This is part of the opening of consciousness, or expansion of awareness of people and as you all move into those different dimensions, there is full support, there is the full nurturing aspect, there is a greater sense of enjoyment of the peaceful environment.

Where you are existing presently, that is happening around you in accordance with what you are expressing through your connection to the higher states of consciousness where you experience all of that in a constant state. You are bringing that into you more fully now that aspects of your energy system and physicality are receiving it and resonating with it to a deeper degree. There have been the ongoing transition states as you absorb more of what has been activated in your blueprint sphere that functions all throughout you. Again, with your focus on this in this presentation and immersion, it is strengthening more of you, more of what you are in your energy, your bio-energetic form that incorporates the quantum, energy of you, multi-dimensions of you, deeply into the physical structure and what is often referred to as the sub-physical that is deeply connected into the Earth construct and you are of course functioning in a higher framework than that. That is the whole focus of this session again.

You will be aware also as you are receiving the energy which you are immersed in here, there is a clearing effect happening throughout your energy field. Be aware that this is occurring in what you call your thought field which is in a state of receptivity to what is being emitted in that thought field level surrounding the planet. When you step out of that, above that, into the dimensional existences, the extra field of consciousness beyond that thought field level, then this is where clearance occurs and it flows through the lower levels of patterning of existence. In particular, there may have been thoughts you have been considering, evaluating, choosing some point of action. In this state where you are accessing pure energy constructs and flows, you will find choices that you have been considering are not relevant, because where you are choosing between does not exist in the quantum dimensions that you exist within. So, this quantum aspect of you in this energy field accesses the - you could call it higher intelligence. It is nothing to do with what you have learned - people might say you are not very clever. It is beyond that. The quantum intelligence is the inflow from pure Source Energy. You are immersed in this. You are bringing it in to you. Feel it in this deep state of immersion you are experiencing. Feel it as a field of energy around you, even in your light body form - feel it, as that energetic sphere of the quantum light field.

Again, we remind you this is being observed by the Council of Light and you are bringing all of this back into your awareness of being present in the initial receiving state and space within this Station of Light.

Momentarily observe that you are within a very strong energetic field, take it all into you, and this completes this aspect of this energy immersion for you.

Orem out “

Thank you, Orem, this is Lani again and I am still aware of the presence of the Council of Light Beings. This great assembly around us -

I see them as golden light Beings. This is strengthening your individual energy sphere.

Bring this now back into your conscious thoughts. Breathe it into you and as you breathe in, you are breathing it into your physical unit where you are receiving it.

Feel the patterning changing, clearing in whatever way is needed throughout your thought form field and therefore the emotions and your physical form.

They showed us the beauty of the higher dimensional civilisations already existing. Remember this. You were present in those and you are helping that to be manifested for many others on the planet. You can feel secure knowing the higher field you brought into you, and you are supported and the changes you are making are observed and acknowledged. Therefore, you are valued, because you are bringing in the change. The changes will happen naturally, as you notice improvements day by day.

This concludes this session through the Omega Communications Portal. Again, take in a lovely breath from the top of your head right down to the soles of your feet, engaging yourself back in the current day and time that we exist in. thank you.

Lani
