Session 1074

Date: June 10, 2021, Thursday

Time 9.00 am

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Take in an easy breath of life essence and allow yourself to relax your body and to be aware of your light body and then feel that you connect with every one of us who links in and gathers with us in the receiving area of the Station of Light.

Are you feeling it? Do you sense that you already have shifted your perception and you are in a different state of consciousness in the Station? This is where we begin, as usual and as you become aware of the Beings around you from Earth, from bases within the Earth and perhaps from other planets, there is an air of expectancy around us.

So, I withdraw to allow the Beings within the Station of Light to come forward.

"Into this space we greet you Beloved. You are invited always. You are connected to resonate with the energy in this space. It has become very familiar to you because it is part of what you chose to be connected into before you entered into your current Earth body. You are well aware that there are aspects of you existing in different dimensional realities. They also are connected with you into this vital essence which is coming through to you at this time.

You will have been experiencing many shifts in the energy fields around you in every locality around Earth planet, because this is where you are focused in this time. As you maintain your awareness of your connection to the higher aspects of yourself and you put yourself into the streams of light coming through your solar portal, you easily adjust to the many shifts, to the many messages which come forward to you. Remember, we have reminded you many times, that when you reconnect to your original point of origin, your blueprint becomes activated and more codes which are embedded in your energy field through the blueprint - that original master plan - unfolds more energy and information to you personally.

You have your individual connection. So now that we have again connected you to that energy system, you will be aware that this space we have drawn you into has expanded and you are able to view a dynamic unfoldment of the potential, the possibilities existing for the higher dimensional patterns of civilization. They are already there. From this perspective you can observe these.

You can observe the possibilities and you can choose which area you will go into where you are most needed to be present with the energy that you bring through from your point of origin and the original purpose for your consciousness, your life essence, to be present. This is emphasized to you in this session because it is bringing together many of the threads of information that you already know and have understood and have absorbed within you. As more of this is integrated within your energy field, you become a stronger presence within your own light field and it is the light field that interacts with the energy matrix all through the layers of consciousness of the gathered people on Earth at this time.

We understand that there are many people would be feeling this energy and would move into that state of distrust and fear. We tell you about this so that you accept the level that other people are in, but all the while you accept yourself as being very firmly within the light field. This is the importance of the gathering in this session. The reminder is important and in the reminder you will be absorbing that entire higher light field - the dimension. Remember, there is nothing to counteract or to overcome, in your common language. This is all about you receiving the fullness of your particular purpose for being in the current body form you have. From this moment, as you resonate with that light field that you are encompassed in here, remember that it goes to every aspect that you have had a lifetime as - all of those aspects that have different experiences to what you are experiencing now.

There is a diversity within you. You may also be perceiving there is a diversity in that initial plan as part of the blueprint for your life essence and that plan also receives modifications, or upgrades from the higher field that you resonate with each time you connect to the energy through the solar portal. Again, this is helping you to facilitate more of your interactions with people which will have a greater meaning to them.

It facilitates the engagement of your conscious field within the point of origin existence containing the overall plan and it is part of that overlaying energy matrix surrounding planet Earth as you and many others connect in with that higher energy field and it shifts Earth into its greater purpose.

Already, what is occurring in the greater dimensions is the alignment of Earth energy system and its full environment with the energy coming through the solar portal. Remember, Earth and its solar portal and what is known as its galaxy, is connected beyond time into the collective galactic federation, which is a term for you to understand - that the Earth galaxy is part of the entire unfolding and progressing light field of Creation.

We observe that many of you are feeling this in the greater energy field of you each and as you absorb all of that, there will be unfolding within you in current phases around you and ongoing, information for you to implement the creative aspects of you, because you have expanded already to simply be that pure light energy essence that is known as the human being that you are. It is important for you to acknowledge that, because you have chosen to be in the civilization in the present, but the present is a conjunction of many extra dimensional fields waiting to be manifested, so that it becomes the uplifted civilization for all people.

There is a balancing occurring within the Earth construct and the overall watchful Beings who are participating in providing the energy and information to be accepted by the individual people. When all of that energy is integrated, there is a very strong connection in the higher energy field matrix around the Earth. Remember, that higher energy field of consciousness, we call it the energy matrix, shares communication and information and it is actively fed by the Beings in the extra dimensions already existing around and within Earth and its satellite moon and also from the other planets in your known system. It is all one. You are all part of this. When you absorb all of this in the concept that is presented to you, then you will find many of you may sense an alteration in your pathway.

You may sense a shifting has already occurred, because your consciousness has expanded to absorb that shift.

There is correction contained within this energy field that is around you at this time, simply in terms that it is correctly aligning those energy channels which are necessary for the maintenance of your healthy blueprint system throughout all of your physicality and this occurs because the clearer your consciousness field is, then this automatically creates adjustments within your physicality. This is understood completely by you.

So, be aware now that you, your light body, is returning to focus in the receiving area of the Station. We are assisting you. We are observing the layers and the aspects that you have absorbed and the information patterns. They exist as patterns visible in your light energy field here. There are receptors in that. As you stabilize yourself in this space, I withdraw now.

Orem out "

"I am Ulea coming forward to you again and this is just to help you stabilize all of this in you and to synchronize the different fields of energy you have been experiencing in this session. It will continue to unfold as you continue to step into the correct alignment that is known to you.

It is part of your essential vital essence, that core energy essence of you that is the pure consciousness field.

I am also permitted to help you to return back to your physical form and locality and in this way, I assist you to bring in everything that your light field has received, so that it naturally is absorbed into you as you consciously bring it into your body.

This is.

Ulea out"

Lani again with you and of course down to Earth again, anchoring all of this into your body.

So take in a lovely breath, breathe it all into you, all of this energy system and for a moment, appreciate the bio sphere that Earth is, where you have the light rays coming from the sun and you have the air that you breathe, and you have the water and the vital essence contained within the water that you take into your body, to enhance the water within your body, and you have the elements from the earth through the plant life and minerals that you take in and all this sustains many different levels of your physicality.

Bring your attention now back to where you are receiving this and the day and the time.

This concludes this session through the Omega Communications Portal. I thank you for participating in this and contributing more energy to that overall consciousness field matrix surrounding everyone, available to everybody, and of course I thank Ulea and Orem and all of the other Beings who came forward around us.

Lani ❤️
