Session 1077

Date: July 1, 2021, Thursday

Time 8.45 am

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

I am known to you as Lani and as I open this pathway and greet you, you become already aware of a greater energy system that surrounds you and is within you and this energy system is what I refer to as your body of light. A different aspect of you, so you can breathe in more light, more vital essence, as if you were looking directly into the sun, with your eyes closed, and you breathe in the vital light essence from that, deeply into you, into every cell of your body and every pathway and connecting into the central core essence of you. So, this central core essence of you is the one that steps away from the body, into your body of light and is with us in the receiving area of the Station of Light. A greatness of energy, an energy sphere, that you enter into, to receive on a deeper level than the conscious thought plane that exists around the Earth. This is where we begin today, “Welcome and greetings to you and to all the ones you bring in with you from your locality, from your linkage - friends, family, other ones around the world that you resonate with. They are all part of your consciousness field and so we greet you all as thus.

Speaking to you I am Orem but surrounding me and surrounding you are the collective Beings - those who support you as an individual and those ones in the greater galactic field of consciousness who support the entire planetoid and the entire population on this planet that you are existing on now, where you are experiencing the fulness of life within the physical body and within the physical substance that has been created in the world that you know it as.

Remember, you chose to come forth into this current pattern of Earth but you chose to bring in with you a greater field of consciousness. We again tell you this is an aspect of your original point of creation, of your existence.

There has been another shift between the previous inner journey connection where you were gathered here and this current receptivity that you are within, in this current state. The shift has enabled you to realise more of the substantial form of consciousness that you exist as. Therefore, what you have been bringing in from your original point of creation into your conscious timeline and into the creation of that timeline has had the effect of clearing many of the energy imprints that had been around you.

So you would find that some of this light system that you have been bringing in has enlivened you back to certain phases of this current timeline in your current physicality and we are referring to timeline experiences where you were deeply connected into your point of origin and your purpose. You all had various phases and dimensional connections where you experienced that greater purpose. So, this is reminding you that you have been taking the energy back to collect what you had experienced, and you have recovered that and it has cleared specific imprints that had been around you.

The description of these imprints cannot be given because they are existing in different dimensional frameworks for you. We could generalize by saying some of those imprints were what was occurring in different pockets of civilizations around the planet as you evolved, or as you grew, to your current body structure and with the clearance of those imprints which were simply suggestions and created manifestations, then you are restored to the higher blueprint where you are creating and manifesting a clearer line of existence in the time phases, in the dimensional existence. So, you would feel that you have expanded into a clearer dimensional field of vitality, of essence, and to support you in that and to strengthen that, you have been taking in the new codes, or the unfolding codes because they have always existed, but they have come more into your consciousness as they are received through the solar portal for you. You have been resonating with that. It has been drawing you back into that and you have been drawing that back into your conscious field.

What will you experience now as you realise that this field of existence of the clear pattern overlays the civilization existing around the planet? How would you perceive that and would you perceive that unfolding as clearness in some way?

Inherent within those patterns of light through the solar portal there are natural elements. Those natural elements exist in the energy matrix around the planet, therefore around every single individual.

They are also of course around all of the natural patterns in the natural kingdom, in the creatures, the animal kingdom that you might refer to as animals that are different to your human animal. Therefore, this element of energy coming through the solar portal is touching everything in existence. Experience this as you are receiving it. Experience also the sense of a rhythm, a pattern, that you may also resonate with because it is equalizing and stabilizing some of the patterns that were out of balance with what is coming through the solar portal.

You will be aware that many resist this pattern, who remain stuck in the level of action and reaction and the realities they have created around that and similar realities that are portrayed through many of your systems that you attach yourself to. This is clarifying to those of you who have realized that many of those lower systems are unstable and they have no reality in the dimensional realities. All of this is part of you in your physicality because your physicality is part of your true essence.

This is presented to you in this way to reinstate the pure blueprint and as that is strengthened even more through you, those lesser imprints diminish and they are replaced by this, similar to you refueling a vehicle. Your body is a vehicle, and that vehicle has certain systematic processes, they all relate to receiving refueling through what you are receiving in the light energy.

We needed to redirect your focus into this and now we direct your focus into observing streams of energy flowing closely over the ground of the planet, closely over and within the water of the planet and you will also be aware that this light is coming in from a higher level of the energy field around the planet. It is coming through what you would call the atmosphere and infilling the entire biosphere of this planetoid. We spoke [previous sessions] about separate biospheres for separate planetoids, but the planetoids of course are all an aspect of one system of creation manifesting.

There is a synchronized pattern occurring, opening up pathways, opening up concepts of new travel systems, opening up concepts of what the human dimensional existence is, opening up more concepts of stations in other dimensions, you might say the unseen dimensions already existing on this planetoid that is Earth - this aspect of creation. You are part of this materialization of the expanded dimension.

We are fulfilling our purpose of presenting these sessions, presenting you into these sessions where you experience this dimensional existence - multi ways, multi facets of you. Therefore, it is part of your conscious mind and the many layers of you and it is all aspects of your vital essence - your pure essence of creation.

Some of you will be experiencing now the connection to some of your support team. Some of the support teams you may be connecting with exist within the earth construct, perhaps within mountainous areas, perhaps within water systems, perhaps existing in a dimension suspended above the Earth. If you are experiencing any of this, this is confirming to you many of the images that you have had appear to you either in your dream state or in your conscious state where you step into a deeper aspect of dimensions. They may only be momentary immersions into those areas, or they may have continued for many of you for a length of measurement of your time. The time is irrelevant. What you experienced is relevant. This is given to you to validate this to you, to confirm it to you and it is all an aspect of you and you are working in many different dimensional fields of creation. This, you realise is what the support team you have is helping you with and you will also realise the presence of the Councils who oversee all of this. They exist as part of you, an aspect of you and therefore do not feel there is a seperateness. Do not feel that you are lesser, because that is part of the imprint that holds you into the lower sensations of existence. What you have experienced in these sessions and in this presentation and your presence here is synchronizing you with all of this.

And this was the intention here in this gathering that you drew into you for you to know and experience in and through the words presented.

Now you are presented back to focus within the initial receiving area of this Light Station.

We withdraw now

Orem out “

Acknowledged, Orem and the Beings all around us. Thank you.

Lani speaking again and I am drawing this session to a close, for you have received a great deal and many shifts in this session.

So, now take in a conscious breath and bring all of this back around your physical body and within your physical body. Do you feel it coming back within your true essence, giving you the sensation that you are a being of light? I perceive this myself as a golden white body form throughout my body. You might perceive this in a different way, a different colour. Please feel free to let me know how you perceive your light body and true essence.

Now take in a lovely breath and release all of this beautiful resonating energy throughout you, throughout your entire timeline, throughout every aspect of your physicality, I feel like rejoicing. It feels like a huge opening up. I see that in you.

Thank you for being part of this and I thank all of the aspects of creation that bring these presentations through. I now end this session through the Omega Communications chamber and portal. Remember, each time you revisit the sessions, you receive more.

Lani ❤️
