Time 8.45 am

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Lani speaking welcoming you into this space and as usual I ask you to take in a lovely breath and let yourself let go of your physical surroundings and orient yourself into an expanded state of consciousness.

This is your body of light vehicle and this is the vehicle that enters into the gathering area known as the receiving space of the Station of Light.

As you breathe normally, taking in a breath and letting it out, feel that this is where you are, in a gathering of Beings in the Station of Light.

"Welcome. We greet you and we greet you that is beyond this entrance into the Station of Light. Orem addressing you and it is in this way that we are able to help you to identify many of the other aspects of your experience into other life patterns, for the purpose of identifying the original role you have, the original impulse, or your purpose, which continues to exist. It continues to exist beyond your dimensional experience in the current physical body form that you focus within. It is important that you focus upon your present body form and life experiences in the way that you are always elevating your connection and expanding that into the greater dimensional existence of you. In this way you connect more clearly to the Beings who support you and who are overseeing civilizations as they change, as they diminish and increase and we refer in particular to the planetoid and it's current civilizations that you are aware of. So, even this is changing and you are aware of that also.

Are you also aware of the dimensional existence already present when you enter within your expanded dimension of consciousness, your quantum existence, you become aware of the existence of these other civilizations and cities and we are referring to the ones that you are manifesting currently. Therefore, what are you manifesting? Do not look back into historical drama. Create what you would want your life to be, bringing it into your awareness, creating it.

Because you are always connected to some degree to your original purpose, this will help initiate these creative impulses.

Again, in this session we are drawing you through a different portal into a civilization that has existed, is existing and will always be existing because this is the prime civilization for you to be aware of. This is what many refer to as the cities of light, the crystalline cities of light. The crystalline cities of light are based upon the organic creations that are suitable for the humanoid form as it engages the streams of light patterns which activate latent codes within the natural template for you all.

As you do that and you enter within that already established city of light civilization, you will be bringing into that the creatures that are also in tune with that energy pattern in that construction, the energy construction that is light.

As you feel and perceive what is around you that we have drawn you into, you will be realizing there is the lack of certain elements in your current civilization that you accept as normal and you will also be realizing that there are many stabilizing areas in this city, in this civilization, because we were talking about it as a civilization that embodies the entire planetoid named Earth, there are areas that you are naturally drawn to. Some of these are used as transportation portals and some of them are used also depending on what is appropriate for you or the group you are with, these will have the function of resetting many of the natural processes of your form which may from time to time need synchronizing or balancing. You will have already been experiencing some of these energy patterns that you step into. We have presented them to you in the Station of Light and we have also drawn your attention to the fact that you have presented them into where you are currently located. It is all a matter of your dimensional perception and your orientation.

There is ongoing expansion of potential of activities of creation in this already established dimensional civilization that is named Light. We have already explained that the substance existing throughout all of creation is known as plasma and it is this which creation is formed from. There is this underlying presence of this bio plasmic energy and this relates in particular to your physical form. Therefore this bio plasmic energy responds to the pure template and it also is actively present in the energy systems you step into for balancing in some way, synchronizing the template. Therefore, you see, the opportunity is around you to maintain yourself, your body, your energy system in accordance with the bio plasmic energy wherein lies the pure template. There is choice and your choice determines the level of existence that you are experiencing. Your choice determines also the dimensional existence that you are moving into or withdrawing from. In our sessions with you we support you in your choice and we always help you reconnect to your prime systems.

Bringing your attention back into the Station, you will also be aware of the presentation that you are receiving now is able to be viewed as if you are viewing it through a multidimensional visionary screen and you will see yourself, where you have made specific determinations for your life pattern and you'll see alongside those, alternate pathways and existences. It is all present. It is all valid, but you choose to shift your focus into the present that you are creating and you will also see you have connected, you have resonated, with the appropriate pattern for you.

This has the main purpose for you for this session and the main purpose of course is to focus on your connection in a very powerful way with what you resonate with the quantum fields of existence. You may feel quantum comprises of all of the density layers around you on the planet Earth. This is not what is referred to. In the quantumness there is available always a higher point of creation. This is where your attention is drawn into again, to remind you of that, to keep yourself clear of any other potentials that people are working very hard to manifest. Always when you step into this dimensional portal into this Station of Light you are separated from what is the focus of many people on Earth. You have above that. You are already connecting into the center of the quantum creation.

So bring this all now back into you as you are present here in the receiving area of the Station. Absorb what you were choosing to step into. This effectively alters many of the processes inherent in your energy field and therefore in your energy systems in your physical form, all in accordance with you fulfilling your prime purpose.

This is what is required for you in this moment. I withdraw now.

Orem out “

Lani again speaking. Thank you Orem and again I am aware of a golden light Being and others coming around me - the Star Beings who come in from a slightly different dimension than where Orem directs our focus and yet it is all part of that quantum existence.

“Addressing you now, we simply validate you in accordance with your prime origin and that which you are creating around you on Earth.

The energy you are receiving is part of the support for you, to keep the process of the clearness functioning throughout your body form so that you do not respond to the energy systems that currently prevail amongst the Earth pattern and so you are present always as a clear Being of Light supporting the planet, supporting the change and you in turn are supported. Thus it is.”

Thank you again to those Beings. As Lani again, I come back into my awareness even in my body of light here to help you all assemble all of this into you. It's like a new energy pattern that perhaps reinforces something that is already latent within you. As they say, it as part of your template of existence. So bring all of this now back into your physical body.

Take in a breath as you do that and the breath will help anchor all of this in you, it will stabilize you, it will strengthen you and it brings you back into the present moment.

I feel the joy of this, I feel the expansion of this, I feel an enlivened network throughout my own body form and energy form and as I speak about that, perhaps it triggers it within you for a similar realization.

I appreciate you for receiving this. I appreciate the artists Karen Elsworth for Orem and I acknowledge the beings who created the other images I use to present the impressions of the other dimensional beings.

It's time now to take in another breath and bring your awareness fully back into your body and into the present moment. So, until we gather again I close the Omega communications portal for this session.
