Session 1083
Date: August 12, 2021, Thursday
Time 9 am

Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Are you ready to relax your body and open your mind, to be curious and to allow the information to come through to you as an individual?

We begin as usual by taking in a gentle breath, just a normal breath, but as you focus on the breath, you are not focusing on your physical surroundings any more and as you take in another breath and let it out quite naturally, allow your attention to be within the receiving area of the Station of Light.

Already you have entered into the altered state, into the dimension that exists as the Station of Light. Orient yourself here. Take in another breath to do that and as you let it out you will realize you are here.

"Welcome to you. Orem addressing you as I bring you forth into a clearer immersion into this state, into this space and into this dimensional space you are expanded. You are present here not just as a virtual alternate reality. You are indeed here in your true essence, in your energetic form referred to as your body of light.

This is important for you to understand the difference and it is important for you to realize this, that true energy essence of you is what you are. You merely have accumulated matter that forms the physical body and the physical body interacts with the physical environment in the current civilization. Also, the more that you immerse yourself into the true pattern of creation of your energy essence that is creation and is creating, then this is how you manifest yourself into the creation of the dimensions where the higher vital civilizations of light exist. This is your choice, so it does not mean that you completely disengage yourself from all of your current activities and relationships. The intention is that you bring in the higher vital civilization into your present locality and circumstances and this manifests that extra-dimensional civilization around you.

Again, as you focus into that, you realize there are many patterns that people hold onto that they feel they need to fight against or resist, whereas you will see anything of that type of attitude creates a separate reality and that is separate from the true inner essence of you.

We always undertake to address this for you so that you orient yourself into your true essence and here you will be reconnecting to other aspects that you exist as and the particular aspects we refer to and help you to remember and reconnect to are the ones who are assisting the expansion of consciousness into the dimensions of civilizations of that higher existence. You naturally resonate with that. This is how we begin this session today for you.

Now you can extend your presence into other situations where you are working with other commissioned beings who are recognized already and they recognize you as part of the collective groups who are bringing this higher reality into the state of consciousness around Earth. This is already in that field that encompasses the consciousness that you know as the planetoid named Earth. It is already there. When you continue to realize this, to access it yourself and to bring it into your reality that you are manifesting, then you are bringing it in all throughout the planet. There are different areas, different pockets, different cells of the Beings such as you who are emanating this higher vibration, that higher vibration that you resonate with which you are accessing through this positioning and your presence into this dimension and the dimension here resonates with the energy that is coming through the solar portal to you. So, much of what is manifesting is also manifesting because you have accepted that you are part of this creative connection with Beings bringing it all into you, enlivening different aspects of you personally and the different areas around the planet that have not absorbed the higher frequency pattern. There are various groups of Beings working with the greater Galactic Beings who are supporting you and these are mostly not recognized by people. Most people recognize what is presented to them through the mainstream media and through various possibilities presented in stories, so when you identify yourself with the pockets of civilization of the higher reality - we call it higher - it's more of an expanded reality of a greater dimensional existence, every time you recognize that, you are strengthening it within you.

It is necessary to maintain your strong presence strongly connected to the pure aspects of creation that are very natural to you.

We bring your attention now to be present within an area within the planet, within the subterranean areas of the planet. We are aware that many of you travel onto these areas sometimes in your dream state, sometimes in that state of consciousness that you access when you are fully awake and as we bring you into an area in this time, you will see that more energy is being released out through the energy of the earth structure and the flows of water and the flows of gases which come up from the inner spaces of this planetoid. This is all acting in accordance with the vital essence necessary for you. The beings working with these different factors as the intrinsic atmosphere and energy systems for the planetoid, then it comes into a clearer perspective that what has been happening outwardly on the planet is also allowing for clearness to occur. Possibly you have been made aware of this, how the waters are becoming clearer and the air is becoming clearer around the heavily populated areas. There is a greater pattern of clearness emanating through the natural vegetation around the planet and coming up through the waters around the planet. There are Beings working to continue the release of a pure elemental energy system which is informing various aspects of the creatures on Earth, the human creatures, because you are a creation in the humanoid form.

Take all of this into you. It is perfectly resonating with your energy presence here. For some of you it may mean a clearer pattern which was needed in your energy system here and that was why specific ones of you were drawn into this space in the session. It is vital for you to recognize the energy pattern of this that you are taking in.

Even now as we draw you back into the communication chamber in the Station of Light again, you will be aware that you are within your energy sphere and you have taken into you a different factor of the energy patterns.

This extends many of you into a greater field of conscious awareness and of contributing more into the manifestation of the Earth as it was intended to be – clear.

Housing structures are also intended to be a clear manifestation that incorporates the vital essence of the dimensional constructions. In this way you will see the appearance of changes in building styles that will reflect more harmonious resonance with the energy patterns of creation and this sends out a frequency all around the planet. There are already structures that are receiving this higher resonance. They do not need to be very large structures. The energy that is circulating around the planet from the greater dimensions brought in through the various galactic services can be condensed, you would recognize that word although it's not wholly appropriate for what we are telling you about, but the structures do not need to be a large size. They can be quite small. You will be aware of some of these as you look around you in different areas of population. They might be created in art forms. Recognize them that they are receiving again a natural resonating frequency which harmonizes everything that is around them and again as your perception increases, you will recognize this. Appreciate it. In some of these you can use them as a communication bridge into galactic frequencies and information which can be stored within the shapes.

This is all awakening you to the natural processes that are now part of your template, your blueprint, those areas that had been activated and had been ready for this new pattern to come through into you.

This has been the presentation necessary to you today, so I leave you now in the receiving area of the Station for you to integrate this.

Withdrawing now

Orem out “

Thank you, Orem, I acknowledge all of this. Lani addressing you again in my presence here amongst you as we are referred to as Beings of Light - light energy structures. Sense what you have been receiving. It's another enhancement that we are ready for.

So, maintain the awareness of this enlivened energy field that is you and take in a breath, breathing it all in and as you breathe it out, bring yourself back into your physical body, around your physical body and allow the release of this new energy to permeate everywhere throughout you. It will have a different action for each one of us. Be aware of what is happening in this greater attunement or enlivening. You might use it or view it in some other word pattern appropriate for you.

I appreciate being able to bring this to you. I appreciate the connection that we have in this way to the true elements necessary for creation here on Earth. Take in another breath and as you let it out, focus where you are in your locality and bring your attention to the present moment. That's it for this session through the Omega Communications Portal and this ends the session now. Thank you

Lani
