Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Hello everyone who connects in with the energy pattern of this frequency which goes all around our planet.

All you have to do to be present in the dimension of the Station of Light is to make sure your body is comfortable, gently close your eyes to shut out the external world and take in a simple natural breath and as you let it out you cross the dimensions and you are already with us all in the receiving area of the Station of Light.

Even though you are here with many other Beings, you will receive individually the connection and what is appropriate for you to receive. It is as simple as opening to receive.

This is how we begin today.

"Coming forward into this assembly, Orem addressing you and I am well known to you. The energy pattern that I bring through is known to you whether you are familiar with this channel or not.

It is here that we can continue upgrading you celebrating you, bringing you forth into your very true essence and the essential energy Information you have been drawing into you. You will have been realizing that there has been a shift in what you have been receiving and this is part of the natural process of unfolding you, as you reconnect into the specific dimensional aspect of you that is required to be fully focused where you are stationed in the existing Earth physical dimension. We use various words and you use various words to define or help you to orient your presence and position in your physical locality in relationship to the dimensional aspect of you that ultra essence of the composite experiences that you have had and overall that can be referred to as your quantum consciousness. The individualization of that is necessary and is appropriate and we always bring you back to that focus of you.

So, as you focus here in the presentation with us you will be coming much more aware that the Earth has been overlaid in a field that has primarily been hiding it from an extensive appearance throughout galactic dimensions, simply because the true energy of Earth is already a vibrant city of light which is a cooperative civilization and which was established as a station that other beings could come to for revitalization and for expanding their awareness and adjusting the awareness and the energy systems of particular energy forms so that they would continue the expansion of consciousness, manifesting it into more newly evolving situations. Earth has always been this even though you might measure various civilizations that have come and disintegrated and have been referred to in various technologies and historical events and reports.

What is happening recently is that the energy of enlivenment coming through your solar portal is clearing away the overlaying matrix that had been in effect limiting and subduing the true light that Earth station is. Those of you who have been continuing the process of reconnecting back to your pure elemental essence have realized this and you have been manifesting yourselves many times into the greater true experience as a civilization of light. We remind you of this and we are strengthening this in you. Over the last few series of these issuances and experiences with us you have been receiving essential upgrades and activation of various information centers within you and of course this is part of the resequencing of your entire energetic presence necessary for you. We have been conveying this to you.

At this time each of you is experiencing energy through the solar portal and this is a unique experience for you as an individual. So are you experiencing yourself receiving specific energy processes and an overlaying sequence and it may be that you are in an energy sphere that you know is being filled in a unique way for you. This is all being overseen by several connecting groups of Beings who are part of supporting you and all of this again is overseen by many of us present here and by an over seeing collective, or a council. It is all a process you see and you may have been experiencing concurrently with the sessions the sensation of you being lifted up perhaps in an energy sphere in some form and again this is being connected into what you are receiving now and you will also have been aware that you have not been alone in this process. Many of you are receiving this sometimes in your daytime visions, sometimes in an experience as you enter into what is known as your deep sleep state.

It is a natural process that you are receiving. This is part of the acceptance of you coming into the physical body reality multiple times and you had accepted the fact that at certain intersecting dimensional portals and unfoldments you would go through this process again. We are not referring to being recycled or in effect that the body form is dying. It is an upgrade process. Many times this has happened but has not been revealed until the conscious mind could accept it and could accept that it was not a process to be feared.

You are aware that in many of the civilizations there has been the imposition and implanting of ideas that this is an overtaking, or it is a point of ending the physical life in that physical body and so you had been in that civilization controlled by fear and so this has been presented to you many times and you've also been presented into the upgrade path and the reconnection to the higher consciousness state, that truer essential aspect of you. The point of bringing you into this current presentation is to continue the process and this will also be reactivating memories in you that are part of your natural state to remember the aspects of you, to bring it all in together again, so that you recognize the importance of what you are receiving and what you are bringing into your current state of existence.

It is always part of this. There is in the aspect of purification of you, clearing away the fragments that you have perhaps unknowingly taken into your energy systems and these are necessary to be cleared away from you so that you recognize you as vital essence, a vital Being present on Earth.

There are many of you who share information. The major source of information must be in an energy form that is a natural place of you in the context of your livingness. It is the energy systems emanating through your energy field which is your consciousness field that is necessary to connect with other Beings around the planet. Some of the other Beings are already aware of the same information pattern and some of them are not, but if you can think of yourself as an energy sphere individualized and you come into contact with multidimensional layers of Beings and so you will recognize that there is an exchange of energy happening and you are receiving the energy particles from a deeper aspect of Source Creation and some of these you naturally are passing out to other ones who you might feel are not actively in that dimension that you function as and you recognize as a true essence. So it is a natural process going beyond words and this natural process does not contain the potential to engage other people in fear based activities, so remember this and always come from the true connection you have and the energy you are receiving from Source Creation.

In effect you are a central station yourself stationed on Earth and there are other ones who are drawn to you as if it is a gravitational pull. It is a resonating effect because of the energy that you are emanating out. It is just your natural energy field and as you continue to reconnect with your true essence, this keeps it clear and remember there are different receptor areas within your energy field, throughout your energy body system. So remember to bring in the true essence and let it pass through all of your energy field and your physicality deeply into the Earth presence, the Earth structure. You are also of course advising many aspects of the Earth structure and the Beings who are present in the highly evolved segments that you are present, you are aware and you are active in this higher expansion of consciousness and revealing Earth in a natural way as center of light itself. There are sufficient parts and Galactic Beings of the Galactic Federation, the commissioned Beings who have come forward for the sole purpose of creating a light field, that now those ones who would misuse the energy cannot pass through. So you may be aware that there have been many vessels coming through the solar portal as part of this protective overlaying energy field and they also are assisting the emanations of the light coming through to you.

So this was necessary to have you experience this as an individual presence. There may be aspects of you who are present in some of those Galactic vessels, dimensional vessels, who had come through the quantum field to be present. You can connect with the quantum aspect of you who are assisting this whole process if it is part of your necessary presence and it will only naturally occur as part of that. For some of you this is not necessary, but remember that you are in affect the ones on the ground, you are the ones on the Earth activating the higher light field.

Bring this all into your awareness. You will be absorbing it naturally because it is your natural process and so we bring you back down now through the various channels that you are receiving this in and we station you in this initial communication stage within the Station of Light here. We acknowledge your presence and thank you for this.

Orem out “

Lani again here, surrounded with the Beings of Light here supporting us all, supporting you in every way and now it is needed for you to bring all of this back into your conscious awareness and this conscious awareness now you are required to bring back into your physical existence, the Earth existence. You do this quite easily and instantly by taking in a breath, bringing it back through those dimensions into the Earth plane dimension now, into your body. Take in another simple natural breath and bring your focus back into your current life stream, into the present moment, with all this clarity and the essential sequences necessary for you now.

This ends this session through Omega Communications Portal. Thank you

Lani
