Session: 1089

Date: September 23, 2021, Thursday

Time 10.30 am

Omega Communications Portal

Lani beginning this session for you.

Scan your body and make sure you are comfortable where you are and take in a lovely breath and as you let the breath out, feel that you have already drifted into that dimensional state, a different state of consciousness, where you connect very easily with me and the other ones gathered in the receiving area of the Station of Light.

So, here you are and now we begin this session.

"We acknowledge your presence and thank you for coming forward in this way to accelerate the timeline and to accelerate the energy presence of you in the timeline. I am Orem addressing you and I have come into this portal for you to assimilate and to activate the latent information that you have been receiving and incorporating into you over consecutive sessions and immersions here with us and this is part of the vital essence that is presented to you always and even though the words may seem similar, the energy field is containing different elements to it and you will be responding to the energy elements particular for you.

There is an overall energy field that envelopes you all and envelopes the current planetoid of you all simply as part of this process that has been brought to the awareness of you all and the process is now advanced to clear the pattern. Those ones who have recently accepted the higher energy field are the ones who have been drawn to be activated within the overall collective of the Beings who are bringing balance and order back into the energy construct of the civilization. In reminding you of this, we are reminding you that it is a continuation of the sessions to bring you into the synchronized pattern that is coming through the solar portal.

The energy of it comes through. It does not necessarily have to be brought through by different Beings, however, that are Galactic Beings commissioned to do this work of enhancement, advancement, upliftment and clearance patterns for you all. This generates a higher light field. You are contributing to the light field that surrounds the Earth planet.

As you experience this in this session, there is the activation in your light field and this is one of the necessary elements that you are absorbing and in turn, this has the effect of eliminating from you that which is not helpful to your pure energy field and essence and it enhances the pure elements of you now that you recognize that you are a Galactic Energy Being and you have brought through with you into your current life pattern aspects and the potential, the energy field, that is needed for you in the present moment. From this present moment you are expanding into the overlaying dimension of existence and this is that aspect – yes – commonly known as the cities of light and crystalline light field construction.

There is a series of the activations that are part of this, because each series releases into you some energy field mechanisms – bio-energetic mechanisms – that allow you the absorption and the experience of the energy field that is active within you and this indeed is leading to the higher conformity to the energy field of Galactic expansion. This is not what is referred to as the mass consciousness that is existing for a different purpose and where people are very happy to exist in it because they relate to that through conditioning received over consecutive experiences in the civilizations.

All of this will be drawing you into that central manifestation of the greater purpose for you and of course the purpose also has drawn you into receiving this type of message infusion of energy. There is an element of this that has counteracted some of the energy you have been receiving, so, again the intention for you must be to have your focus and intention always into the expansion of consciousness, not the limitation of it. Indeed, there are different elements that can be taken into your body and its energy form that would limit that expansion of consciousness. What you are receiving is transforming anything that has been taken into you, transforming it in the way that it will be energy that is cleared from you and that will be transformed and utilized in some other aspect of creation if it is necessary appropriate.

What you are receiving is the exact frequency pattern restoring you into the elements of the template that again has been receiving the unfolding sequences for you. This is a process that you were aware would be happening and in measurements of your time this would be approximately 30 to 40 years going back in your history and we understand that measurement of time because we identify it as a shift in dimension alignments which aligned planet Earth into different portals where energy and information was received. This arises from the continuation of observance and the observance is relative to how we are perceiving the changes in consciousness happening as individuals connect into the higher light field and their original purpose and point of creation and then this gets compounded by ongoing reconnections and reconnections, in particular, to the activations coming through different portal alignments. The major alignment in the dimensional field currently in your experience is coming through the solar portal itself because the solar portal has been aligned to the greater elemental consciousness field of creation. There are the basic elements that you are receiving through the alignment. These are enhanced and transmuted by the Galactic Beings into energy that each of you can recognize and adapt to if you are taking in the appropriate energy for you. It is all part of intention and focus.

There may be some of you who have been watching events unfolding around your planet feeling a sense of violation or perhaps failure or lack of support and in observing, your observations are interpreted by the greater support teams that exist in the Galactic Federation. So, those of you who have been experiencing any of those referred to, you will be now receiving reassurance that there have been and are and always will be the steps and the alignments to take to lift you into the precise location in dimensions where the energy field is clearer and is all in accordance with the unfoldment of the particular experiences for higher civilizations.

You have the ability to choose what you identify with. Remember that and remember that very often the voice that relates to the conscious mind which resonates with the entire thought field around the planet needs encouragement to also align specifically with the higher field of potential and the higher purpose for you and it benefits from that. The conscious mind always benefits when it comes into alignment with your purpose.

In the deliverance of this to you, you are immersed within the patterns, the frequency, that the inner aspect of you resonates with, so the processes for you, for your bio-organic organism that you relate to as your physical form, is benefitting because you have established the connection to receive what is needed as part of the upliftment or elimination and the ongoing activation to bring you into the existence in the sequencing that is required for you now. It could be viewed that there were different factions within the lower consciousness field that thought they were the intelligent systems of the planet, that misinterpreted the essential sequences for people and that got manipulated as you will see, into what has been happening around the planet. When we refer to the higher sequencing pattern, it is restoring you as people and bringing you into the consciousness state of sequencing in the upgrade and the activation of you as Galactic Beings bringing in the higher systems of creation.

This was the essence of your presentation here in this experience today, and whenever you read this, it is the experience of today, as you know it, in your daily activities. The greater dimensional aspect of you is always in this that is presented around you now. It is always in that state, has always accepted the ongoing resequencing patterns. Therefore, when you link in with your higher dimensional aspect, you are able to adapt to the higher sequences, the codes released, the energy needed. This was what was needed for you in this session and you will be aware again that you are in the presentation area of the Station. We acknowledge you.

Orem out “

Lani again. Thank you, Orem and all the support of the galaxies, of the consciousness, and I appreciate this.

Now, lovely Earth Galactic Beings, it is right now needed for you to bring all of this sequencing and activation back into your bio energy sphere – the bio sphere that is known as your physical form and presence. Do this right now.

Take in a lovely natural breath and focus right back within your body form, aware of your expanded energy field and the clearness of it, and the present moment.

This concludes this journey through the Omega Communications Portal. Thank you

Lani
