Message to Humankind

You were never designed or created in your world to be over-ridden with guilt or fear or controlled.

Your own connection excludes controls that may be imposed within you or around you or upon you. We refer to controls that would overtake your alignment and your position as a pure Being of higher consciousness present in certain civilizations to develop a higher linkage and conformity to an overall higher matrix of intelligent consciousness.

As we deliver this to you, there is an overlaying energy field being lifted from you as a civilization and you as an individual.

You were always intended to be a clear conscious Being presenting manifestation of higher valued construction and support systems for all creatures, for everything in the civilization which is alive and aware.

The mass turning and returning into this powerful position has begun and has become very much stronger now. The separation and the division which has been occurring will dissolve away. There will be a unified greater consciousness field as each one is drawn back to their original point of existence and purpose.

This is our message to you this day.

Remain strong.

Remain connected.

Thank you

Lani
