Omega Communications Portal

Hello. Lani speaking to you again. I link with you wherever you are, as if we are together in the same space, so take in a lovely natural breath, remembering you are breathing in vital essence.

The vital essence could contain information for you and it can act as a bridge for you to connect directly into the Station of Light receiving area. You will be here with all of us and I sense more are coming in from around our world, in the many different dimensions and layers that we connect into.

So, let's begin by welcoming the presence of Commander Orem and the other Beings who come forward.

"Indeed, you are welcomed here and greeted and we envelop you in the energy field here.

You will be aware of the difference in the energy field as you adjust your perceptions to what is here and you would feel it to be a very clear energy field. This is what is available to you to connect in wherever your physical form is located. It becomes an energy sphere that you are within.

Now, as you adapt more to the vibration in this space, you will be aware that there are different elements here that are being offered to you. Some of these elements you may perceive as documentation and some of the elements, as individual Beings come up and greet you in particular, you may be receiving some particular assistance into your energy field. Therefore, this will be contained within pockets of information, of codes, that will be released throughout your physical body. Because there are different fragments that exist in different time realities, but they are all aspects of you, then there could be various elements given to you for different aspects that you would not understand or be aware of.

In this space, with your full attention here, this will allow you to be aware of some of those different aspects or fragments.

So, in bringing it to you, we are also bringing you the opportunity to gather in all of the information that is necessary for each particular aspect of you.

If they are aspects that need to be merged back into you as one unified form and energy system, this will happen quite naturally because it is part of the resonating energy field that you have which you easily connect with in dimensions like this that you are attending in and within.

Following on from previous gatherings, you will again be adjusting to the incoming flows of light frequency patterns. All of this is part of the continual expansion of your consciousness field and the elimination of aspects that had been accumulated in your systems that are not part of the natural resonating field with core Creation and the core creation of course is your core energy essence. This maintains throughout your physical body form so long as you are present in this individual body form we are referring to that you have presented into this space.

There is more presence of your physical form in this gathering in this particular reality where we are addressing you and you might be aware of this, that you are more fully present in many of the conscious layers that you have. You will more easily then communicate with particular individuals who come up to you in this space.

You generally all are being reminded that you bring into your current life pattern a higher system of creation that is manifesting around you into different presentations of communities. The communities do not necessarily have to be in one physical location. Your community can be spread over different land masses and the community can also exist in different time realities and different dimensions. It is relevant for you to be aware that the linkages with these different communities depends on your resonating field. Therefore, your expansion into higher fields of consciousness and the greater energetic matrix of creation above all, draws you into the appropriate communities and existing patterns. These have been referred to as the cities of light.

Your energy field and your awareness now is resonating with some of these particular communities.

We remind you that you do not necessarily have to travel to find those communities, the physical form of travel, because you exist in a different manner. Location is dependent on your resonating energy field. If you are needed to communicate in a verbal manner, then this also will naturally reach you and your communication will naturally reach into the other communities.

You are intended to be connected into a greater community level and again, the community level is not confined simply to planetoid Earth. There are multi areas and existences and dimensions of that which you know as planet Earth.

The full comprehension of this is not necessary in a logical manner of understanding or interpretation, simply because your energy field is beyond a full interpretation and definition. It is always expanding. Our presentation to you in this Station is always expanding.

Throughout the expansion exist patterns, you could recognize them as pathways or linkages or connections and this is the potential and these are the information patterns for you to integrate into your consciousness field of your presence in this state here.

You will be recording this, you will be remembering aspects of this in your individual realisations and experiences.

This was the purpose of bringing you into this space in this presentation. Focus again into this receiving space.

I withdraw now

Orem out “

Lani speaking again and I am aware that coming around each one of us there are many Beings and it is a combination of those dimensional Beings we might refer to as Galactic Beings or Star Beings – a great supporting group.

Again, this is very strengthening. Remember this. Remember the energy you are drawing into you to perhaps renew patterns, or to activate more expansion of consciousness for you, increasing the clear vibration. I am sure you will have your own particular words for what I am experiencing in my personal presence in this Station.

Now it is over to you to allow all this to settle within you and from this space here, observe planet Earth, observe it from this point of expanded consciousness. Observe that there is a layer of higher support available to all.

Now it is time to bring all of this back into your location and your physical form.

Take in a conscious breath as you bring your awareness back into your body, bring all of this in from the top of your head to the soles of your feet and connect it into the natural rhythm and pattern of this biosphere named Planet Earth.

I am glad to be able to connect with you in this way in our community!

It is time now to focus back into Earth time as we measure it in this present moment.

I am sure more of this will unfold to you naturally in the days ahead.

Thanks for being here.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal.
