Earth Date: November 18, 2021, Thursday
NZ Time: 9. am

Omega Communications Portal

These sessions are all about you opening your awareness to enter into this space – the dimensional existence – where the Beings in the Station of Light are and this enables you to clearly be immersed in the energy and information coming through from cosmic consciousness.

I am Lani speaking to you and as usual, to begin this session, make sure your body is comfortable and take in a natural breath, because you are breathing in vital essence. Vital essence may contain information for you, in the many levels that you exist in. It helps you to transition into the receiving area of the Station of Light, moving directly into the receiving mode of you as you participate in the session.

“Greetings and Welcome into this space again, Beloved. Orem addressing you on behalf of all of those of us who support you and surround you, the Council of Light who come forward and the Council of Light has different Beings who come forward in regard to the different circumstances that might be applicable in different parts of various galactic manifestations. There are also members of the group named the Federation of Galactic Beings who are supporting you all.

In initially drawing you deeper into this communication, you will find you are drawn individually to specific ones assembled who come forward to you. Always there is the initial greeting and, in the greeting, there is an assessment of you as an Energy Being and the Essence of you which brings into you and around you and brings into this space what you have collected as information packets.

The main purpose of all of this is to reassemble you. To analyze the aspects of you that have become distorted or weakened in any way and to assess all ways and in a continuous fashion how you are adapting to the impulses coming through the solar portal to enhance the spectrum of your encoded information. This affects you on an energetic formation in the cellular formation as well as the informational codes that you are presented with.

Remember that in whatever language you speak, there are information codes contained in the energy systems of the symbols or the sounds and therefore, your entire energy field responds to those codes which are patterns or frequencies.

We have always reminded you that you resonate most strongly to your original point of Creation, the original existence as you, as you entered your consciousness, and you created and you entered into a type of physical form. Even that physical form is not how you would see your current physical form, it is still a formation to encompass the consciousness. As you interpret that as in your current lifeform, you might say is that a spirit, is that an etheric energy being? That is all consciousness in some level of manifestation that is appropriate for the purposes at that time. We remind you that your current body form is appropriate for the purposes that you have in your consciousness coming into the civilization as it is now and, in whatever reality, you had the perfect form for the consciousness to exist in.

Therefore, you might have images of multi forms of you and you are all receiving the frequency patterns, because it is all necessary for the entire creations, the manifestations of creative consciousness to be receiving encoded energy information to purify or to enhance the body in the natural way that you naturally resonate with the higher point of Creation.

As you assimilate that, and you realise what that is, there is appropriate releasing of information patterns and codes that are not in harmony, they do not resonate, with the natural formation. Therefore, there is no reason to make any adjustments in a scientific or physical way.

Now, as we continue this session for you, we pass onto you the information that you have already been perceiving, that there is a change. There is going to be a flipping, a turning over, of much of the coded information that has been blasted out to humanity and this we are not referring to as this higher level coming from the initial point of Creation. Again, we lift you up above all that has been occurring into a higher perspective where you connect in with the cosmic intelligence consciousness matrix.

It is from this quantum dimensional level that you are able to perceive the changes that are already happening for people as they realise that there is a higher level of opportunity. In some of your modalities you would all it entrainment, you are being entrained, you are being connected into the higher level that you resonate with. There are many ways that it can be achieved. What we are giving you in this session is the opportunity to reconnect with your own personal level and way of how to do that for you and in turn, as you deeply assimilate that into your current activities, you will find there are ways that you are able to assist other people, because there will be a time when people will come out of balance because what they had been attuned to is being turned around and if they are not able to reconnect to the original point of existence, then there is a time of disturbance, of being completely unaware of what is happening and so you are needed in this phase which is becoming apparent now and many of you are sensing.

Remain in that state of connection to the pure element of Creation and we are supporting you in that field. We are of that field that is supporting humanity and it is supporting the consciousness that is known as the Earth planetoid.

Some of you, as you experience this, may be feeling an appropriate change and loosening of what had been around your individual energy field, so, take it in as a restorative and replenishment to you. In many ways, you have been existing in a field that has been suppressing your true essence. This is another opportunity to realise that and to move beyond that and to continue unfolding and expressing the pure essence that you are.

There is much to be taken into you now. You would be familiar with the terms used in storylines of moving into a decontamination chamber or a field that decontaminates you. We are able to use symbology like this to help your acceptance of what we are speaking about.

As you continue to progress in the current phase, remember what you are receiving in this session. It contains pathway mechanisms. The mechanisms are energy fields and they assist you to connect directly into restoring balance and beyond that, it restores the connection to the upgrade in the natural sequencing patterns.

Be aware of your connections in this quantum field. The connections to greater communities of people who may be located singly where they are existing, but they are connected into the greater community that supports the energy that facilitates progress and clearness.

You are enveloped in that sphere of energy and this is what was needed that you needed to draw around you and into this moment - and it is done.

Orem out "

Thank you, Orem.

This is Lani again speaking to you and I am surrounded here and you are surrounded here by those Star Beings, sometimes seen or referred to as the Golden Light Beings. Pure Essence. They usually do not appear as a very strong humanoid form, and yet that is recognized.

They are present here and again that term, the conscious intelligence. That term contains the reference to intelligence beyond how we think about it in terms of scientific knowledge or what is presented to us. It is a higher energy field pattern that is natural to all of us and we are reminded that we are each taking on a significant role, individually, because we have reconnected with the prime purpose for our presence here in the civilization at present.

This does not mean you have got to shout out from the rooftops. It is done through the inner, powerful, connections of energy and connection to that overall matrix of the greater quantum consciousness field.

Orem described a sense of imbalance or uncertainty around people which will happen, so your quiet controlling centre, as you stand in the core energy essence of you, like a central pool of stillness, will greatly assist the stabilization – to me it like a new sense of freedom and understanding. It will be interesting to see how this unfolds in the next phase ahead.

This ends this session, so take in a breath, filling all of you, filling all of your energy field – your mind, emotions and body – and bring your attention back into the current moment as we measure Earth time, presenting it all into the present moment.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal. Thank you.

Lani ❤️
