“Welcome, welcome indeed, returning into this space. Orem addressing you and together we are expanding a field of information.

You will be well aware that more clear information is required and in-formation is bringing energy impulses into formation. Therefore, you will be aware of what you are being informed by because that is forming your relationships, your life pattern and the civilization pattern. Choose carefully what you are informing yourself with.

As you disengage from the common knowledge, the common information patterns presented as a way to limit people, and you step more into the clear patterns of light, then you are informing yourself in a very different way. You are of course aware of connecting with the light of your true essence and the original point of your creation, and as you let that inform you, there will be noticeable changes in you, and through you and around you, but you do need to have the clear intention to be focusing your mind, your attention, your energy field into that expanded consciousness pattern.

This expanded consciousness pattern has existed always. You existed as it in that very clear original pattern of existence and that exists currently around the many dimensions that contain the many planets and galaxies as the one universe of Creation.

The expanded field of civilization already exists around you.

It exists as a different vibrational frequency. You have many moments – and more than moments if you measure a moment in your phrases – you have many moments where you exist fully within your capacity as existing within those dimensions in that field of light – the expanded consciousness state. Experience this again.

Remember, in earlier sessions the Star Beings would take you through a portal and you could enter within the cities of light, often called the crystalline cities of light. Those dimensions are all around you and as you align yourself through different patterns that come into alignment, you more clearly can focus within those dimensions. Assisting you always is the Light coming through the solar portal and this is the significant trigger point which allows you to receive many other patterns, or portals, which align at specific spatial dimensions and these are inter-spatial – they are from a space within quantum dimensional fields. It is all available there for you. It is all ready for you to connect in all the levels of your current existence so that into your current existence you inform yourself of these greater dimensions and therefore you exist within that pattern.

You will be aware this is very familiar. Many of you have worked through this similar pattern of experience to regain the equilibrium of this dimensional existence referred to. By reference to that, you may interpret that what you have been existing in, in your current lifetime, has been out of balance, out of focus, out of the order that is equilibrium. So, if you have been experiencing the sensations of dizziness, of lack of support, of feeling you are not standing straight, feeling you are disconnected in any way, it is all representative of that state that reminds you, you need to regain equilibrium so that you fully connect to the energies of the solar portal and the alignment surrounding that.

This is an interesting pathway through portals that you are experiencing. If you listen to this as it is currently being presented – you are in preparation.

Session: 1102
Earth Date: December 23, 2021, Thursday
NZ Time: 8.30 am

Omega Communications Portal

Lani presenting these sessions to you, as I have done since early 1988. Of course, the sessions have changed, the Beings have changed, I have changed, our entire consciousness field has expanded.

Let's take this opportunity again to enter the dimensional energy field of the Station of Light for further energy, information and light.

Begin as usual, shutting out the external world, take in a conscious breath so that this disengages the conscious mind and move into the Station of Light receiving area. I feel it is a joy to be able to do this, for all of us to gather together in this field of consciousness.

If you listen to it in days or weeks or months separate from this moment of presentation – you will regather, you will be able to experience the entry through the portals and again, the equilibrium state into those cities, the civilization, of what the expanded state of consciousness of Earth is. It is your expanded existence of consciousness – consciously aware.

We remind you to remain connected to your point of origin – your point of light – perhaps you visualize that as Light – a point of Light – a place of Light – and do not be distracted by the presentations which may be outlining various potential outcomes. When you exist entirely within your Point of Light, you already exist within a clear pattern and it is necessary for you to do this. It is relevant for you. It is not appropriate for you to force anybody else to be with you. By your clear pattern of light, others will be touched on the level that they are able to receive it within. Therefore, you will understand that words are not necessary. Words engage the lower mind and the lower mind can create resistance, it can be passive, it can be many things, but remember that your true essence is what you truly are and the lower mind of you absorbs that higher pattern of frequency and then there is unification, there is balancing, the equilibrium of all aspects of you. Take this opportunity to be clearly informed with the formation of the quantum light civilization, reconnected completely.

You already resonate with what is being referred to in that state of existence. The opportunity is right now in this presence of you in this presentation to be fully aware of this, to fully integrate it.

Naturally, this emergence again of this light creation civilization incorporates many Beings. The focus and intention of course is the unfolding and expansion of this world, of this pattern, into everything that is needing to be incorporated into it, to be enlivened, aspects to be discarded as they are not resonating with the field and of course, inherent in it are opportunities for you to recognize.

There are connections for you to recognize with Galactic Beings who will come forward into your knowingness and perception as you expand your consciousness field, that is your energy frequency pattern, allows the more clear conscious connection to occur and that again is a natural state for you.

You are acknowledged by many of these ones who recognize you and that sense, of course, you will also be feeling a sense of recognition as you resonate with the Beings in the field.

Bring this all into you now and allow it to accelerate and to shift and to bring all of the patterns in your entire energy field into this integrated state that incorporates your pure intention and your pure point of existence – the original point of your creation.

This was the presentation of you in this particular entry into this expanded state of consciousness. You will be aware again that you are assembled – do you sense the multitude of Beings around you? As you resonate with those and recognize this is the new civilization, the pattern already exists within you all. This is with you.

I withdraw now

Orem out “

Lani speaking again. Thank you, Orem. That was a powerful experience to be within.

Everybody, take this moment out of time, to fully experience it in your own way.

It is a great alignment and in-tunement, so, you are tuning in the energy pattern of this experience.

You are tuned into and you are tuning in to your point of reference in your current body field, this expanded civilization.

Bring this all back now into the physical state of you – your physicality – truly aligned and all of those aspects within you that you felt were disconnected or jumbled or out of tune, let all of this correction flow into all of those parts that have been missing this frequency pattern.

I am very grateful to have experienced this and to bring it through to you, and it is made possible because you are drawing it in, you have connected into this. Thank you again. Now, take in another conscious breath and as you let it out, fill your energy field and everything within you with this expanded vibration.

Take in another breath and locate yourself fully back into Earth time. You may feel the shift that happened when you did that. I certainly did. Something clicked into place.

This has been another wonderful presentation and I thank you and I end this session through the Omega Communications Portal.

Lani ❤️
