Earth Date: January 13, 2022, Thursday
NZ Time: 9.30 am

Omega Communications Portal

Lani speaking with you again and assisting you to put yourself into that state of receptivity where you enter within the Station of Light.

Be curious and expect to receive energy and information, assistance, in whatever way is appropriate for you as we begin this session through the Omega Communications Portal.

Are you with me in the receiving area of the Station of Light? It is energy, everything is energy, so you may be aware of an energy formation around you which links with your energy formation.

I withdraw now as the Beings come forward with their energy and information.

"We settle into this space with you, Beloved. I am Orem addressing you and this is the space that we draw you into and we can address you as different individuals, depending on the energy factors, the frequencies, what is occurring for you and around you and what you will be drawing to you in every individual session.

The recordings, either the voice or in written text, both are important and you, by your intention, can receive fully all of the dimensional aspects of what you are drawn into, to receive, and as the opening words referred to the energy patterns and frequencies, your energy system is a sequence of energy codes and if you observe that from your highest level of consciousness, you will see it as an energy geometric matrix and that connects into what is offered here in this frequency pattern and beyond that, you connect into various intersecting patterns of the greater universal matrix. It is an overlaying grid system which simply are words to help you identify to the level that you are able to, of what is being explained to you and offered to you.

Your energy field, as you accept the codes coming through the solar portal from Source Creation, easily adapts to the patterns that you as an individual will resonate with. There are different intersections in the dimensional patterns and each can resonate in a different way with different aspects of what is being presented to you.

This will help you understand why every time you enter into each different deliverance to you, you may hear different words, you may feel different energy, you may feel you have gone beyond, further beyond, the understanding you first received. It is a natural process of your expansion of the energy field known as consciousness.

Envelop this around yourself, around your environment, the locality where you are, what you are in proximity with, and envelop the land masses, envelop the whole energy system which is known as planetoid Earth in its many names that you may have given it or identified it as. The names change but the concept and the understanding of what is referred to remain. Different energy fields will present different patterns which then are identified as labels, or names, or numbers, in some way. Again, we are taking you beyond the limitations of identification.

There is always movement and flowing between different levels, or different connections, within the quantum field of everything that exists. We are bringing you into specific attunement to some further dimensional patterns that you may readily identify as perhaps pathways and the pathways can lead you into different studies, philosophies, manifested courses to present yourself into and also there are always the simple clear pathways, or the trajectories, which take you directly to your original point of creation from Source. It is your choice, of course. It is your choice what you will attract to you. It is your choice of what you will present outward through your energy field.

As you continue to adapt to the higher frequency patterns known as expanded consciousness, what you emanate from you has a considerable effect around you on others. It may not be quantified, or measured, if you wanted to place judgement or evaluate it. It simply is an energy pattern. You will be aware that every movement you make changes the energy field around you because every movement contains your focused intention and if you are mixing with other people, your energy field needs to be very strong and clear and connected to the pure elements or the pure energy, of a higher evolved consciousness which simply does not engage in lower manifested protocols.

We again refer you to the many groups coming forward from other galactic civilizations, many of which you have been involved in and are still connected with in a dimensional consciousness perception and the energies which you can draw upon are also presenting a higher matrix field surrounding you, surrounding all Beings on the planet. Again, you will see it is an energy which can be utilized depending on the choices people are making and where they are being directed to be, in whatever way,

We do come forward at this time to help you understand that collectively, there is the higher energy field of the consciousness of Source Creation of pureness functioning, creating, offering support and, also already present in those civilizations that many of you are attracted to, where there has already been a settlement, a clearing out of incompatibilities to the human form, so that the humanoid form comes back to the original principle of creation. Here, we bring your focus again to the energy form as energy patterns, sequences, codes, energy connecting areas. You are surrounded in this multi-dimensional energy system.

Be aware you are not able to project or interfere with anyone else's energy, unless you are calling forth the higher dimensional frequency to assistance to clear or connect that person, or being, into the higher energy system. What we say is you are not permitted to interfere with someone else's energy system.

Now, project this to yourself. You can choose whether you allow someone else's energy systems to be projected upon you. Your choice is to accept or reject and so you go through your daily patterns of existence resonating or choosing to be in harmony or rejecting something that is put upon you or offered to you, presented to you in some manner. Your choice always is to maintain your own energy field clearly connected to the pure intention and the fields of light which are fields of consciousness coming through from Source Creation.

This is enhancing you. It is enlivening you in a continuous fashion, so every disturbance that you may experience, or have experienced in your lifetime, can be cleared and altered to be resonating with the original pure blueprint pattern. It is always about this and you have that natural effect upon what is around you and yet you do not force it upon anything. There is always the natural coherence between you and the environment, so the purpose of this presentation is for you to recognize the dimensions of your energy field and of course, the centre of that is your core energy essence and there is alignment on your path connecting you back to the original point and purpose of your existence. There is more of course connected with that, but that is your pathway for you to experience and for what is permitted to come into you, into the civilizations that you are engaged in, in the process of transformation.

Be very clear. Be very connected and all of this is offered to you in this energy system in this way.

The deliverance is complete in this time.

Orem out "

Thank you, Orem.

Lani with you all again and I have the sense of being within a geometric shape, a sphere – in saying that of course a sphere is part of geometry – and yet there are different facets to that, different energies, and the connections are vast.

They extend what we think is possible, because what we think is possible can be limited by viewpoint of science, as far as they are aware. It might also be limited by our own thoughts.

Let's let go of all the thoughts and enjoy expansion, enjoy connection into the upgraded system of community and support all around the planet. When that is strong, no-one else can interfere with that pattern and we simply connect into the formation that is already there of – let's just call it a 'better' civilization. That is a limiting word, I know, but I mean the concept of it. Feel what you would resonate to and you make it happen, you draw it to you, you draw yourself to it, all in accordance with your higher point of consciousness, always.

This has been interesting to experience this session and now I am asking you to take in a lovely natural breath and as you breathe out, bring your awareness fully back into and around your body energy field, remembering that you are a conscious energy Being and so your attention can be firmly within the central core essence of you right down to the soles of your feet connecting into the energy system that is the natural Earth. Now bring your focus back into current Earth time, as we understand what that is. There is always the shift of that 'time' to connect into some greater dimensional pattern / alignment. As consciousness shifts, we consciously reconnect with Source Energy and that is the alignment we bring into the present moment.

Enjoy this. Enjoy who you are. Enjoy the experiences. Thanks.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal.
