"Greetings. Welcome, as we are amongst you in your presence here. Orem greeting you initially, representing the Council of Light and many of the gathered Galactic Beings who come forward to help you. We are all of the one consciousness field surrounding you and as we do this, you resonate from your expanded consciousness field into what we surround you with, what we offer you, especially in this session of strengthening your core energy essence, the aspect of you that has been drawn into this presentation here and the aspect of you that has been drawn presently into the circumstances unfolding around you on the planetoid and in the civilization that you initially are aware of and yet fundamentally you are also aware of the alternate existing paradigm, the ultimate civilization that is already existing within the field of consciousness. This is in your field of consciousness, and we bring your attention also to your choice.

Regardless of the physical circumstances that you might feel are controlling you in some way, or not supporting you in some way, your presence is always linked into the quantum consciousness field of civilization. Perhaps you would visualize that as different layers existing all around you and your attention may be drawn to specific layers in that expanding field of consciousness.

You are always choosing and you need to choose the level of existence where you will function in your ideal positioning. The ideal positioning of course, holds the potential of what you have chosen to come in to do in Earth and also primarily your prime purpose of the alignment into the quantum field of consciousness attracts to you and you act as a gateway, a vehicle, for the higher field, if you would think about it in terms of a higher field, to manifest through you. As it comes in through you it clearly identifies areas of some sort of disconnection from the full supporting levels of consciousness. There are layers being filled in this presentation to you as your awareness becomes engaged into the activity of this supportive flow of energy coming in, through you and around you, through multitudes of people, multitudes of what you would call generations. So, those generations from you feel you have descended will also be enveloped in this quantum field of energy.

There is always the ongoing existence. The consciousness field is always present, even though you would find there are multi dimensions, multi aspects, multi fields of existence and even though you are aware of that, your intention and your focus is to be clearly aligned with the core energy channel that connects you into the quantum field and your original point of existence.

This aligns you. This is balancing and this is synchronizing aspects that you may have felt again had shifted or become out of balance and so the imbalance is synchronized, and equilibrium is restored and so in the equilibrium pattern you receive the fulness of the energy field, the codes, the manifested principles and all of this is received in all the layers of your existence. This refers also to your presence where you are, to the choices you make, to the processes which are movement throughout your energy systems, which is your living organism that you call your body.

There is constant movement and exchange of information. Some of the exchange of information occurring is the clearing out of waste matter, of old energy and the incoming flow which needs to be engaged in the clear flowing field, the bio mechanisms functioning throughout your energy systems of your physical unit. So there is a great exchange of energy and information occurring. You have engaged this within you.

Earth Date: February 24, 2022, Thursday
NZ Time: 6.45 am

Omega Communications Portal

Lani bringing this to you as we enter through the Omega Communications Portal into different dimensions of consciousness.

In this moment as you receive this, you are moving through the gateway – the portal.

Are you ready? Is your mind relaxed and open? Is your body relaxed? Close your eyes and take in a natural, conscious breath to assist you to move beyond the everyday world around you into the state of receptivity within the receiving area of the Station of Light. In this space and state it is easier to access the quantum field of consciousness of you for answers and information and support and the many reasons that you have chosen to be here in this session.

Therefore, you will be and have been experiencing discharges and elimination energies as you continue to align yourself to the original principle of life. This you also engage within the consciousness field, the living energy organism known as the planetoid you are on and all of its associated energy fields of the life supporting elements for the creatures on Earth, for you as a living organism. You will feel the engagement with the plant kingdom in particular because that supports other organisms and the plant kingdom is supported through the elements also present in the bio energy field around the physical planetoid land masses.

In a sense, this is one field of existence. Within that oneness are multi levels of existence and these extend far out into expanded field of existence and of movement and exchange of information and energy in that movement throughout what you call your solar system and the surrounding greater field of the galactic field.

Bringing your attention back to the original aspect of you as you agreed to be the channel for the energy to come in through you and around you, then you become aware of expanded activities, the pathways of activity which may be presented around you that you resonate with and when you feel that resonating energy, then you know the pathway and the activity for you. Therefore, you realise, you feel, what you resonate with which may not be what other people are presenting to you or around you.

This was a reminder to all of you and it again serves to be clarification for you in the ways that you may need it. It serves to reinstate and also to activate more of the energy that you are connected with in your quantum field of existence emanating from Source Creation through your original point of existence.

As you continue to be aware of the higher expanded existence, then you are participating in the shift, the change, which you know is happening because you see it presented to you in many ways.

Remember the higher state of consciousness existing.

All of this has been presented to you in many sessions and in multiple ways. Every time you re-enter any of these sessions you are entering as a different aspect of you. This is the principle of change because everything you take into you changes you in some way. You – the aspect of you, the consciousness field, the thoughts, the body, the electrical impulses through the body.

Again, as I bring your attention to your presence in this receiving aspect of the Station, take it in again, the energy process, to clear you and restore you to the pure principle of your pattern of life that is known as existence and remember, each time you enter this space you can reconnect with the exact presence of what you have experienced here and stored in this energy field within the Station, your particular connection.

Again, there has been much activated in you and through you, through this presentation. Allow yourself to integrate it. Allow yourself to feel that expanded and cleared aspect of you, of your core energy channel – your essence – indeed.

This is acknowledged in you and thus I withdraw.

Orem out “

Thank you. Lani again here with you and really, we are all part of this connectedness. Sometimes it feels stronger when we move into the energy presented with the words, so let this unfold quite naturally through you in the ongoing days. Refresh yourself within it when you feel the need to do that, to keep you online, to keep you clearly moving forward in the process of receiving the Light and allowing it to support you.

Now, this is the appropriate time to connect back into your physical location, your physicality.

Do this by taking a conscious breath in and restore your great consciousness and everything you have been receiving into this which we know as this body, known as a name, and yet you will realise you have changed, or shifted in some way in this deliverance out of time, and yet if we measure time, it has been a few minutes.

When you are ready, take in a conscious breath and open your eyes and bring your focus right back into Earth time as we measure it, so that you are synchronized with the elements of the Earth and the rays of energy and information coming in that supports you.

Thanks for being here. Thanks to everyone involved in this session and this ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal.

Lani ❤️
