Lani presenting these sessions to you. Are you ready to begin? Are you settled in a space where you will not be disturbed? Relaxing your body. Relaxing your mind.

Letting go of every thought, every activity.

Take in a natural, conscious breath and as you let it out, allow yourself to be with me and the gathering of many others present in the receiving area of the Station of Light. Feel it. Know that you are here. Know that you are a presence of light and it is like coming into this space to be re-energised and maybe cleared as part of that process.

This is how we begin today.

"Welcome and Greetings into this space Beloved One. I am known as Orem in this dimension and I am with many of us who come forward supporting you.

You receive support in many ways that in this moment you may not be fully aware of and yet as the days go by as your experiences unfold, as you remember to connect into the highest aspect of your energy self and presence, you receive a flow of energy through the streams of the quantum energy field which you relate to. There is always an energy that draws you into the appropriate level of assistance for you.

You will be aware that energy shifts. There is a process, an ongoing flow of energy, expansion and contraction. You might think of this in terms of your oceans which have ebbs and flows, which have tides moving and changing and rivers that change flow rate and lines of flow in many cases, creating new energy flow paths. In a similar fashion, when you have a need for a particular aspect in the reality that you are aware of, then you automatically draw to you the appropriate flow of vital energy information for you.

Take this into you as we present this to you. Breathe in that vital essence of support. Do not define it. Do not say you want it for this activity or that or this occurrence. Simply present yourself as an Energy Being and your Energy Being delivers all of the awareness that you have of the lower fields of reality you have been experiencing and, at the same time, your energy field absorbs the supporting flow of vital essence. Remember this.

Remember to consciously attune yourself to the quantum channels of light for you. If it is for you, it is naturally for what you are aware of in the dimensional reality around you. Then, as you are recharged and re-energised with the energy quantum fields, you are automatically uplifted and you resonate with the higher frequency pattern. It is all about energy patterns and creative manifestations.

You are called into the higher quantum fields. If you relate that in your interpretation as the higher field or a higher level of intelligence, of consciousness, allow yourself to realize it is more than what you think it is, because your level of thinking or interpretation is always managed or limited from the field of consciousness that you are familiar with and there is always more beyond that. Many of you relate to pathways you follow. Ascension pathways. Maybe that is a term that you recognize and have been linking with and that infers and implies there is more yet. Indeed there is.

Even as we address you here, some of you will be aware of the presence and presentation in the field of your awareness, your vision, your sensing, your knowing and beyond that in a multi-dimensional perception, you will be aware that you expand further and further and further, away from a single element that you might recognize as planet Earth and you move in an expanding field – we refer to ripples, so you are part of the rippling effect and it extends further than your current experience can recognize or vibrate to.

There is the process of adjustment. This relates to the many sessions we have brought you into to receive ongoing activation of the sequences that your energy field and your physicality respond to as part of the expansion of your consciousness field. This is because every aspect of your physical formation is energy and every aspect contains that expansion of consciousness – the conscious field. We are focusing upon you as an individual. There is the need and we have recognized this and you recognize this, which enables us to bring your conscious attention to it.

There is the need for you to recognize you are collectively embraced in a higher energy field which you are experiencing the manifestation of. A collective who are manifesting a different culture of civilization, of organization and this of course was initialized before you were presented into your current physical form. It was recognized by you that you would come into the life pattern and you would be needing to follow your intuition – the impulses you naturally receive as an individual – and this has led you to be in this state where now you are collectively engaged in the higher quantum field of energy of support, of clarification. You work in multi layers for this activity. You work in and through your physical elements and the methods you have of communication or touch or many other ways and then you move through higher levels of intention and you move into this reality where you are part of the quantum connection field. This quantum field we refer to in this level as the matrix that envelops the consciousness field around the planet – this is a level of consciousness that you are aware of and you have been working in sessions to be aligned with this in the energy matrix that is concerned, or is part of, your individual energy field. So you are more strongly connected into the activation of that quantum energy matrix and this, with the ongoing initialization or activation of the energy pathways and sequences within you as a conscious Being, this expands out into the higher quantum fields of consciousness or, you might say, intelligence who are waiting for your conscious connection so that more freedom and light patterns will come into you, through you and around you.

You have the light field rising from the physical processes and intention of you and you have the higher light field surrounding the planet and of course there is more beyond that in different connection pathways, but for this presentation this is all you need to be aware of with the connection and with what you are receiving. It is a presence in this presentation of this field of clearance, of dissolving away. You are all aware of a heat source like rays of sunlight will evaporate water and what is left is a layer that dries up, disintegrates and can often be dissolved away in the ground level.

This is symbology to help you understand what is happening and of course aspects of the emotional field, or water field, is transmuted into some other element which is cleared away in the light, even as the water cloud formations you see will dissolve away in the presence of the light field. Quantum light rays flowing through the sun. As the sun in its consciousness allows the flow to come through it, it also adapts and modifies some of the rays coming through that you are more able to accept as enhancement, the natural enhancement, because you are a natural energy form. It is always the natural energy patterns and frequencies that are the corrective elements and sustaining elements and many other ways for your energy field and your energy transmutes those in a way that the physical aspect of your physical form receives. If you have been experiencing disturbances in the multiple layers that you are existing as from thoughts, emotions and the physical body, then this is the way for you to draw in the correct elements through the light field to activate or to give you the energy that you are needing.

Receive all of this because this was the intention within this presentation for you in this process, of the connection, of the inter-dimensional communication in and through the quantum fields that you are aware of and that you function in ever expanding and higher levels of those fields. This is you and this is presented to you in these few words so that you receive and interpret and respond to. You are supported. You are enveloped in fields of support.

Orem out “

“As the one identified as Ulea, I am also with you in this space. Those multiple fields of energy all flow in and merge in various ways and in various elements for you. This is confirmation for you and because I am closely connected with you all in the physical plane through this vessel who delivers this to you, then I understand and I can give you the way for you to receive it more readily. I envelop you in the fields that are joyful, loving and you respond to with happiness and light and laughter. You are encouraged to find many ways to embrace and express that. Remember this. This was all I needed to present to you in this part of the message. I support you.

Ulea out “

Many thanks to you Ulea, Orem and the Beings existing in the quantum field. Together with all of those beings we now bring our awareness back into the Earth station, ground it through you because you are created to bring in the quantum fields of light. Again in this session I feel there has been deeper activation of the codes within us in the sequences that we are comprised of, all levels of our Being and this is very strengthening. Bring it into the depth of you internally, through mind, heart, solar plexus and below that. I feel it a handwidth below the navel, as the energy is needed there, a powerful place, knowing it connects us to higher vital essence, to Source Energy. This was the session for today. I trust it helps you, because it always helps me. It's a joyful experience to share it with you. Bring yourself back into your physical form and Earth time.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal. Thank you.

Lani ❤️
