"We are ready for you. We welcome you here into this space. Orem addressing you and I come forward with the intention of our Collective Consciousness Beings here – the commissioned ones. You would say we are indeed of the Federation of the Council of Light. It is a Galactic Assembly of Beings who come forward to support you as you are supported in the evolutionary process of the Beings on Earth and the evolutionary process of the consciousness that is that planetoid named Earth,

We prefer to keep the language in simple terms and yet what is presented with the words is the complexity of the concepts which are presented, and you are surrounded in those concepts. You could view yourself in the life you are experiencing as a concept of life experience. So, in realizing this, you can choose, by your intention, the concept of the life or the civilization that you most readily feel a resonating field with. This is an affinity that you have, as a natural inherent sensation and state of being and this resonates into the civilization state and space that is ready for you. In one sense it draws you in as if it is a gentle impulse that draws you into a continuation of expanding of consciousness and a general upward movement, or expansion movement, into greater fields of light.

We refer these to you as the fields of quantum energy frequency patterns, or Light. The simple term "light" again you could say is a concept that embraces a great deal of information. Information is energy. It is patterns. As you accept this and move into it, because you naturally do so, then you will feel that your energy field in your presence here receiving this is expanding and is interpreting information patterns. There are many support systems available in these quantum energy patterns for you in this light frequency pattern. Immerse yourself within them. Feel that you step into the sense of everything provided for you in essence. The you we refer to has existence in many dimensions. You are of course more than the physical body form. You are more than your emotions. You are more than your thoughts. You are even greater than what you might think of as your soul experience because you are expanding and yet the expansion returns you to an existence as part of Creation.

This is how you align yourself most readily and in the most compatible way with the fulness of the experience and also with the inherent potential for you to manifest around you what you are resonating with, even in this moment as you experience this energy surrounding you.

Beyond this there may not be the need for any words. The words are necessary to assist you to be in the alignment and the receptivity pattern of everything that you intended for your presence and to maintain your presence in the expanding civilization around you.

The energy you are receiving is also surrounding the entire life pattern you have had in this current body form. You will understand the impact this has upon your experiences. The experiences all have an energy, and the energy you are receiving from this highest point of the quantum light field surrounds you in every breath you have taken in this physical body form, even though the current body form has changed many times. That in a sense is not the true pattern or the true issue. The true issue for you is bringing that higher consciousness field, and this has a formation in it and the formation is constantly being upgraded and areas within the energy patterns being activated and this is what is surrounding all of your life pattern to the first breath you took and even before that when you first chose to enter the current body form.

Session: 1114

Earth Date: March 17, 2022, Thursday

NZ Time: 9.30 am

Omega Communications Portal

Lani presenting this session to you and I help you to move into the state of consciousness where you can step beyond your physical surroundings and you move easily into the pattern of energy and the space or place which is the Station of Light.

Just take in a lovely natural breath and allow your breath to be the bridge through which you cross into the gathering area, or the receiving area, in the Station of Light.

Your intention is important in all of these sessions. Your intention is important in everything you do in your experience. What is your intention in bringing yourself into this space?

I leave this with you and we are now ready to receive the energy and information coming from and through the Beings stationed here.

So, what you are working with is a quantum field and it is not referred to as “matter” in a sense that you might feel or understand that matter is physical matter that you can touch. This is an energy field – the quantum energy field.

You have been aware of the support systems, the support teams who are drawn to you and drawn to the Earth pattern because of the changes that are apparent on the Earth. There is an overturning and releasing of previous patterns that had been formed by groups of individuals and yet their intention was not part of the original point of Creation. Again, there is intention and we have made it quite clear to you that your intention needs to be connected with your original pure point of Creation.

Envelop yourself within this and you will become more aware of the Beings from Galactic consciousness fields who have been drawn in as support teams. Every time you remember this, and you make the intention to have a conscious connection with the higher light fields, you are bringing this in through the different layers of existence around the planet. This has been a pattern that you as an individual conscious Being, could have participated in, in other of your time realities. Your focus is in your current reality where you are presently focused in your body form and where you have been drawn into this space with us and the effect now that you have when you connect with that higher quantum field of light and support system is greater, because you connect with all the other aspects of you who have been working coherently with the same intention. So it becomes amplified in what ever reality you are existing in, in the different aspects of you.

All of this helps you in the present moment of what you are achieving and what you are doing is helping every other aspect in whatever timeline or life experience pattern. They are pockets of existence. They are dimensional patterns of realities.

The dimensional pattern of reality for you now is being reinforced and you have naturally been working with in these sessions, have increased your quantum light field and the amount of quantum light you are accepting and resonating with and transforming your life pattern and therefore what is around you.

As you expand your consciousness field you of course are bringing in greater light, you are adapting to it, you are integrating it into everything your experience.

There is always more you are unfolding yourself into. This again is the ripple effect referred to in our recent previous sessions with you where the energy that you are taking into you initializes this expanding field from the core energy essence of you which is the connection to the quantum fields of light and this is rippling out so that other ones around you, in whatever part of the planet, can engage also in that expanding field of consciousness, of light field. Quantum light field. Focus on this. Do not be distracted from this light field.

As you experience this and draw it into you, I bring your attention back to where you are present in the initial receiving area of this Station of Light. This Station of Light may have gained greater understanding and realization for you. You may consider yourself to be stationed in the Station of Light wherever you are in your daily routines. It can be likened to a transformational pathway, helping you to maintain your connection to the Quantum light fields.

This is what you are integrating in this presence in this experience. I withdraw now,

. Orem out “

Lani speaking again. Thank you, Orem. and all of the Galactic Beings in that greater dimensional field. They are all with us. You are with all of them, so we are aspects of them.

I feel again this is a greater initiation occurring that is a natural component within the expanding field of consciousness, this quantumness. Again, there is a great deal to expand further into and to receive and so in your daily practice as you continue to access this session or any other sessions, it all contains the fullness of what you received in this session and it is ongoing and expanding and what is needed is you to transition into the space of receptivity, allowing it to activate all of the aspects of you as you connect more clearly into the quantum field, the light fields.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal and as we conclude this session, take in a natural conscious breath and breathe it all back into you, completely into your expanded energy field as it integrates within and around your physical body and location – the physicality. It is a great term “physicality” because it embraces what we know as the physical form and the locality. The locality might be where you are living now or it might be the locality of the planet, it might be the locality of this Milky Way Galaxy. It is a quantum field. This is all from me, at this time. Remember to bring your attention back into Earth time as we measure it, because we moved out of Earth time and now you are synchronizing the higher energy field with you as you exist on the planet. This is great! Thank you.
