"Indeed, we welcome you and greet you into this space. Representing all of us here supporting you, I am that one named Orem, as a particular individual for you to recognize. Perhaps you can visualize or sense my individual presence and perhaps you sense and perceive individual Beings here in this gathering.

As you immerse yourself within the energy you will feel the energy moving into the pattern of your presence here which is, indeed, an energetic form, a formation that is energy. It is this formation of energy which is your conscious self. This conscious self exists in a multi-dimensional way, so even though you have been drawn to focus within this aspect and within this receiving Station, the aspect of you of your energy form that still rests in place as your physical form, is also receiving the energy pattern, but it will be being received in a fractionated, or a transformed, state of existence currently. Simply because as you are present here, the fulness of the energy is easily received because you have the capacitors in your energy formation here to receive the fulness of the presentation.

Already you will be perceiving you have moved into the pattern of existence here with us where you are maintaining a specific synchronization pattern and as part of that there is a modulation frequency. Those of you who are aware of the technical terms will understand this. For those who are new to this term it is a vibrational connection and it becomes in such a way – and modified by your consciousness – that the intricate receptors in your energy field here can receive the intention, can receive the full concept of everything presented to you here.

You are being presented into that overlaying civilization that you recognize as perhaps a new star system of existence, except that it is not new. It may be new to your reality that you are aware of in your current physicality circumstances. You have now a direct connection into your pattern that exists within this higher field dimension of reality of existence.

Breathe it into you – take it all into you, the awareness of what this means. You have the capacity to absorb it and integrate it.

Now you will also perceive you are working with specific groups of other Beings just like you and you will be aware that you are collecting information together, assessing what it all means, and you are implementing certain creation specific to the needs of the population of that reality. This is something which will be reflected out through you in your current physicality circumstances. What you are receiving in this pattern here are the seeds of creation which will be amplified and fed, of course, into creations around you. Remember, you have already moved into the state of consciousness within the Earth physicality where you are aware of certain patterns that enhance your well-being. Your well-being incorporates multi-dimensional aspects of that which you know as you, which has a name. You always are reminded to link in with that multi-dimensional aspect of creation and existence. You are resonating with that, and it is this resonating effect that you are modelling your life upon and drawing that into you.

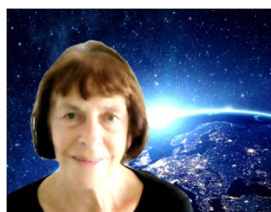

Those of you who acknowledge yourself as star seeds and beings from other star systems come to realise that the capacity is around you to manifest this level that you are experiencing in this session and more than that, because remember this is a Station which acts in a sense as a transformer. It collects data and energy information just as you are collecting data, energy information into you to implement.

Session: 1120

Earth Date: April 28, 2022, Thursday

NZ Time: 9 am

Omega Communications Portal

Lani speaking helping you to move into the state of consciousness where we exist together in a specific plane of existence, or a dimension, within the overlaying energy matrix existing around us and around Earth.

Take in a natural breath and as you breathe out from the top of your head down to the tips of your toes, feel you are letting go of everything you have been dealing with in the world pattern and you are able to move freely now with me into the gathering space of the Station of Light. It is here that you receive the energy and information more clearly than if you were connecting on your own, perhaps, and it is also where you are received by the supportive Beings existing in and through the Station of Light.

This is how we begin this session today.

So, you are actively participating in creation, whether you are physically engaged in processes in the manifestation around you, on the ground, as your terminology would say it, or whether you are doing it first energetically. Those of you who are actively working in helping other people will be aware that the energy exchange and clearance happens in the energy matrix field initially and therefore that allows the channels to be clear for the energy to move deeply within the cellular formations and the cells have receptors. It is all one.

In a sense you might refer to yourself as a specific galaxy or specific energy formation such as your own biosphere of a planetary sphere. As you interpret this and acknowledge this, you have the capacity to change your biosphere. Everything you have been receiving in these inner journeys in these sessions brings you to this moment and from this moment the energy you have engaged flows out in a multi-dimensional fashion to all aspects of you and to all aspects of you through your current pattern of existence. That is – throughout all the formation of your current physicality which includes the multi-layers of you.

This is how you engage the potential and the full concept of what you are receiving here. Details are not relevant because if you try to focus on details, you are focusing on specific points which are not receiving the full support of the wider collection within the concept that are necessary to be brought in. You are working in an expansion field of consciousness that is expanding, expanding, expanding and in the expansion, you are collecting more patterns, energy and information contained within the concept of manifesting yourself within the higher evolved situation.

We who are working with you in the specific individual groups continue the support and we continue to have you acknowledge and appreciate yourself, yourself aligned with consciousness, your essence connected always and receiving input energy necessary. Take all of this into you in every way.

With this, you are with us in the receiving area of the Station of Light. Beyond that, you will be perceiving what you experienced, what you were shown when you moved into experience the full potential of the concept and you also were aligning with your pattern contained and existing in a different starfield pattern. Align yourself with all of this and it will continue to unfold to you as you allow yourself to receive it.

This was the intention for this particular visitation for you here. I withdraw now,

Orem out “

“Ulea speaking to you in this moment and I am expressing joy at the expansion of you, how you have allowed yourself to understand and receive this pattern and therefore you are experiencing what it feels like to share in the creation that we experience with you and around you and we become one in this. You will feel you are not separate in any way from this. It is an ongoing expression of the essence of you in this timeline expressing in and through the physical aspect of you. This is important and this physical aspect of you is continuing to receive clearance and enhancement and more enlivenment and that allows you to expand your capacity to experience what you are receiving here.

It is my joy to remind you of this.

Ulea out “

Lani again present with you. These Beings who bring their message to you and energy have to engage through my consciousness, through all the levels of me and even if the words do not come out in correct pronunciation or correct use of the English language, it is the intention and the energy you are receiving that is the important process of this.

Now begin the process of re-engaging this higher essence, your light energy form, back into the physicality of you and always the breath helps you to do this.

Take in a conscious breath, breathing in all the energy and information from above your head, right down through you to the soles of your feet and tips of your toes and into the energy beneath your feet, connecting you into the consciousness of Earth, in a very clear, strong pattern. Did you feel the alignment of you when you did that? Or, perhaps more energy coming in through you? This is you. I acknowledge you and appreciate you as we are co-creating a higher state of living for us and our descendants and throughout all creation.

It is time now to take in a conscious breath and bring your awareness fully back into Earth time, in the present moment.

This concludes the energy and information coming through this session through the Omega Communications Portal. Thank you to all the creative artists who bring this way of presenting this to you.

Lani ❤️
