Biosphere. Multidimensional Energy.

Lani taking you on this journey again through time and space into the dimension of the Station of Light.

Relax your mind and body and let all background noises fade away and come on this journey with me.

Simply take in a conscious breath and as you let it out, feel you step through the Portal into the receiving area of the Station of Light.

Take in all of the energy as you present yourself into this space.

"Welcome. Orem addressing you here and we have already begun. As soon as you began the thought that you were linking with us, we began the session. The session continues, of course, but in this session, there is a new wave of energy that comes around you, a new way of support, a new way of examining your life and bringing you into clearness.

The energy and information continues as it moves through your energy field from moment to moment and as you allow that energy flow to move through you in any direction, as you would say, past, present or future, there is the examination and the exploration of consciousness that is you. So, every time you consciously step into this stream of information, you are reconnecting your own consciousness into the evolving stream wherever you are situated, wherever you have ever been and will be and are, simply because you are in a multi-dimensional existence. You function in particular phases of the multi-dimensional pattern of existence and so we again bring your focus into your intention and choice.

We work particularly with you who have been drawn into this energy pattern because you are working in a very valuable way, as we use your language, to distribute the pattern that is beyond the conflict and beyond the conditioning that you perhaps are aware of that exists in layers of the current Earth pattern that most people are experiencing. We say it is important for you to maintain your link above all the lower dimensions into the greater quantum field of light dimensions where you are constantly drawing on a pure line of creation.

This resonates with you in different layers of you as you experience different timelines. In some timelines you may be functioning in a different way to what you appear to be functioning in your current life form and time experience. Therefore, you are able to draw upon the potential and energy which will assist you with your focus and intention.

Already you will have felt a response in you – a drawing forward, drawing into a more balanced, strengthened pattern and that pattern of course strengthens all layers of you – the multi layers you are aware of – your thoughts, emotions, the physical aspect, the etheric aspects you feel would show up any abnormalities in your energy field. It is all about you receiving that energy field as described to you which comes through the solar portal and this energy regenerates and revitalizes, energizing all of the energy patterns that are needed for you. From your highest point of potential of existence you are aware of what is needed, beyond the limits of your common knowledge and awareness of the pattern that you are within. To simplify it again, as you draw in the energy, your intention could be that the energy fulfills every aspect of you and enhances every aspect of you into the position where you have chosen to be present on Earth for this specific purpose of this light field around you through your consciousness.

Now we are ready to begin another level of this presentation to you. This level we refer to allows you to have a greater viewpoint around the planet and around the civilizations. You will be observing different stages of evolution even in what you know, what has been presented to you, about current living civilizations in various cities, in various land masses. Observe it all and observe the way of light, the multitudinal levels of the light coming through the solar portal. Remember we have reminded you that this light coming through the solar portal is present whatever time of the day or night as you measure it, as you know it to be, that you think about connecting in with the energy patterns.

Now as you view the planet before you, or beneath you, around you, extend your vision into the multi dimensional space that coexists with what you may be aware of visibly. Even where you are receiving this in your locality, there is the multidimensional existence occurring, existing, and so as we draw your attention to this, you are within that state of livingness and experiencing it and experiencing communication with other ones in those areas. There is much joy to be experienced in that communication and connection which is very natural to you. Remember that most of the contacts you have in your daily living experience, also are existing in the greater multidimensional field of the light cities manifesting, so on what level are you communicating with others? On what level are you receiving the information that comes into you in various ways?

We observe you in the multidimensional phases you exist in and always as you present yourself into this connection that we have with you, it is a clarification process for you. Some of you may be experiencing a need for more energy or balance or some other specific elements that you have become aware of. This is all within the energy fields you are receiving both through your presentation here and also of course, we are presenting to you what comes through the solar portal. This may give you a sense of expanding your dimension of existence – the patterns. Feel free as you do this. You will feel the freer movement through you and around you. Around you here there are many of us supporting you including the High Council who are observing you and receiving what you bring forth. This is a continual process. At times in the presentations to you there will be different elements that will be more significant for you to receive and understand and to process and to allow yourself to receive and process those energy patterns.

You may be aware you are sensing a meeting point, a connection of various pathways coming into the particular vector that you focus within, in the quantum fields and indeed, you are nearing this point and you are sensing it already, in the way you are sensing there will be a greater shift, a greater energy field surrounding you all.

Remember the support you have, remember the observation, the multi layers of observation that you can function through and also to bring in any stabilization and upliftment needed. It is inherent in you to recognize many states that are relevant for you – many lines to be cleared or linked with, integrated and most importantly is your awareness that you, by your intention, stay within the clear pathway of energy and information presented through the solar portal and through the various messengers, methods and way. These all must resonate deeply within you. That is when you recognize that you are fully connected, because it is a resonating effect, a vibration that fills you with light you identify as joy, happiness, fulfillment.

There are many phrases that are presented to you within these word patterns that you recognize and they are energy patterns. All words, all languages are energy patterns of communication that you receive or interpret in many different ways.

You are receiving all that is required for you and we talk about you as being the central biosphere necessary in the present dimensions of existence. In this addressing to you within the receiving area of the Station, become aware that you a unique biosphere and you have been receiving the greater inflow of vital essence necessary. Thus it is.

Thus I withdraw

Orem out "

Thank you, Orem. Lani again. Are you experiencing yourself as a particular biosphere, or within that biosphere?

Again, you have been surrounded in very strong emanations of information and patterns of energy.

Feel the resonance within you and many of you might say yes, I know this, this confirms, this helps me understand what I have been receiving personally. This is how it works of course, because in your quantum light field consciousness, you have already received it, you have already given it to you, you already understand it. It is a deep reconnection and re-membering of you.

Now, remember all of this back into your physical body form location where you presented yourself into Earth space time reality, even though the reality is shifting, evolving and upgrading. It is all part of the upliftment of you and restoring balance and continuation of enlivenment for your body form, your thoughts, your capacity to evolve and grow and nourish all that is within your biosphere, which I feel expands to be the planetary biosphere. Take it all into you, every aspect that you feel you resonate with.

Here you are, bringing this back into you in current Earth space time as we know it. Thank you for this and I thank all of the creative artists involved in this work and the presentation to you.

This ends this session through the Omega Communications Portal.

Lani ❤️
